Generation No. 1

1. James/Samuel (Jim)¹ Wilson, CSA was born Bet. 1821 - 1831 in Hahira/Adel area, Lowndes County, Georgia, and died Unknown in Apalachicola Coastal Area (the islands), Florida. He married (1) //. She was born in Georgia, and died Unknown. He married (2) // Poppell in Jefferson County, Florida. She was born in Jefferson County, Florida, and died Unknown.

Notes for James/Samuel (Jim) Wilson, CSA:

Currently I am trying to prove and place, my great, great grandfather, "Jim" Wilson in the Lowndes County (Georgia) family of Orizba (Risby) Wilson. One of Orizba's sons was named James Wilson and his date of birth corresponds to my "Jim" Wilson's birth.

I have as yet been unable to confirm much information concerning "Jim" Wilson, and his early years. There are few records in the Lowndes County (Georgia) area as there have had several courthouse fires in the past which destroyed most records for this period. At the present time I am trying to gather information using census, Civil War, and internet sources. There are still many unanswered questions -

First name in question: He was called "Jim" therefore, his name could have been James. However, his grandson, Caprus Johnson Wilson, wrote (recorded) his name as either James Samuel or Samuel James Wilson.

After serving in the Civil War and the death of his first wife, he and his three children moved down into northern Florida (between 1865-1870).

He then remarried a Poppell girl from Jefferson County and moved into Western Florida. He and his new wife are believed to have settled on an island off the coast of Apalachicola where they began a new Wilson line.

Following the Civil War, Samuel Caprus Wilson was between the ages of 14 and 16 when his father, James (Jim), brought him along with his older brother (William) and sister (Addie) into the state of Florida.

Samuel Caprus Wilson had "three" families:

After the death of his first wife (Mary Ann Johnson), Samuel courted Dora Henderson and fathered a child that Dora named Ellen. Dora later married William Brooks who raised Ellen as his own. He even gave her his last name (Ellen Brooks). The Wilson family and the Brooks family have always recognized Ellen as the daughter of Samuel Caprus and her descendants as part of the Wilson family. Notes for Samuel Knight Wilson, Rev.:

While being a Baptist minister Samuel Knight was also a farmer and cattleman and like his father (Samuel Caprus Wilson) became a very well known and respected citizen of Taylor County. There were still hundreds of acres of fertile soil and with this in mind he began his own farm. As the years past he continued to develop the farm eventually becoming a prominent farmer and cattleman. He had a very large herd at the time of the "open range" and maintained it even after the "no-fence" law became effective. The farm would later yield comfort and happiness to his entire family.

He served various churches in Taylor and Lafayette counties. He especially enjoyed preaching and was very popular at his own church, Oakland Baptist Church located in his old homestead of Cabbage Grove. When he preached, it was said there was never a dry eye in the crowd.

Samuel, known by his family and friends as Knight, was elected and served over 16 years as a Commissioner on the County Board (Taylor County). Under his leadership the Board made very important decisions about the caring of the poor, education, county finances, building, public safety, law enforcement, and many other problems facing Taylor County at the time. It was during his tenure that the greatest progress in road construction was made in the county.

This employment only lasted a year due to her ill health.

Being busy with her career did not stop "Llew" from finding time to devote to the needs of the World War II vets. She became a charter member of the Earlimart American Legion Auxiliary Unit 745. She served repeatedly as its president - first as charter president (1955-1956), and again in 1956-57, 1959-60, and 1964-65.

His service education was completed in 1944 and he was prescribed as PILOT. In 1944 he was also appointed a FLIGHT OFFICER.

Following his separation from active duty in 1945, Eddy and his new wife settled in Earlimart, California where he became the owner of the Earlimart Welding and Machine Shop (Eddy's Welding Shop). The last position he held was that of the shop manager and engineer of Sorensen's Machine Works in Mendota, California (1964-1980).

Eddy became very active within the Earlimart community and joined various service clubs. He was a member of the American Legion Post #745 and served many years as its commander. He was also a member and, on occasion, president of the Earlimart Lions Club. He was also active with his children serving as a Boy Scout and 4-H leader for many years.
