Generation No. 1

1. JOHN J.<sup>1</sup> SCHWALD was born in Germany. He married ANNIE STRUTT. She was born in Germany.

Notes for JOHN J. SCHWALD:

Name taken from Charles F. Schwald death certificate.

Notes for ANNIE STRUTT:

Name taken from Charles F. Schwald death certificate.

Child of JOHN SCHWALD and ANNIE STRUTT is:

2. i. CHARLES F.<sup>2</sup> SCHWALD, b. 17 July 1863, Baden, Germany; d. 24 August 1942, Walla Walla, Washington.

Generation No. 2

2. CHARLES F.<sup>2</sup> SCHWALD (JOHN J.<sup>1</sup>) was born 17 July 1863 in Baden, Germany, and died 24 August 1942 in Walla Walla, Washington. He married (1) MARGARET KRONENBERG, daughter of UNKNOWN and UNKNOWN. She was born 22 February 1862 in Heerd, Germany. He married (2) BIRDIE OLIVER.

Notes for CHARLES F. SCHWALD:

Met Margaret in Minnasota.

Charles was a cowboy in Walla Walla before buying his acres of land.

The following article appeared in a 1912 edition of 'Who's Who in the Walla Walla Valley:

CHAS. SCHWALD

No visit to the Valley is complete without having seen "Pleasant View Ranch".

Here with his delightful family, resides Charles Schwald, one of the leading men of the Sunnyside District.

Born in Baden, Germany in 1883. (I believe this date is a misprint as our information states that he and his wife came to the Walla Walla Valley in 1886)

Mr. Schwald came to the United States 26 years ago, and four years later located on his present farm.

He started operations with $600. and has now 100 acres, worth from $250. to $300. per acre.

This fine ranch produces over 200 tons of alfalfa yearly, as well as large quantities of fruit and vegetables.

Two years ago Mr. Schwald built the beautiful residence in which he now lives, which stands as an eloquent testimony of the thrift and industry of its occupants. The house has nine rooms with every convenience, including hot and cold water, up and downstairs, electric lights and all that could make living conditions pleasant.

Twenty-four years ago Mr. Schwald married Miss Kronenberg, one of the most desirable young ladies of Walla Walla.

This union has been blessed with six children, two boys and four girls.

Certainly this valley is fortunate in having a man of the sterling character, and business ability of Charles Schwald.

Elizabeth "Elsie" Phillips, 90, formerly of Milton-Freewater, died July 4, 1995 at the Park Manor Convalescent Center in Walla Walla.
At her request, there will be no funeral services.
Memorial contributions may be made to the Salvation Army through Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home, 902S. Main St., Milton-Freewater, OR 97862.

Mrs. Phillips was born Dec. 28, 1904 on Appleton Rd., near Winesap Rd., near Milton-Freewater to Charles and Margaret Kronenburg Schwald.
She attended Ferndale Grade School and high school at St. Vincent's Academy in Walla Walla.
She then attended Whitman Conservatory of Music for a year, studying piano and pipe organ.
Mrs. Phillips played organ at the old Strand Theatre, later the Roxy Theatre in Walla Walla for the Sterling Theatres of Seattle, WA.
She played piano in a traveling dance band for many years and nightclubs in Kansas City, MO and Wenatchee, WA.
In 1935 she played the piano in the dance band for the Walkathon held in the Community Building in Milton-Freewater.

On May 4, 1939 she married Grady A. Phillips in Wenatchee. The couple homesteaded in Anchorage, Alaska in 1940.
Mrs. Phillips worked later for General Electric in Richland, WA in 1948 and 1949.
The couple returned to the Milton-Freewater area in 1959 and lived on Crockett Rd. for many years where she was noted for her beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Phillips is survived by two nieces, Margaret Duff Thompson of Pendleton and Frances Dill of Walla Walla; and several nephews.
She was preceded in death by her husband on Oct. 17, 1983; two sisters Minnie Duff and Annie McAllister; and two brothers, Pat Schwald and Charles Schwald.

Kenny Brown, 70, of Greenbank, died July 10, 2003, at his home.

He was born June 18, 1933. He graduated from Bothell High School, and was a communications sergeant in the Army paratroops. After 11 years in the Army, he moved to Long Beach, Calif., where he became fleet manager for several large truck dealers.

He moved to Whidbey Island in 1985.

His birth parents are unknown, however he was luckier than most and picked his own family: Pat and Catherine Schwald, who preceded him in death, and Tosh and Yaeko Funai of Woodinville, Dr. William Morton, Diane, Dwight and Harvey Funai, Spike Schwald, Nancy Demello and Scott Schwald.

A service will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at Trinity Lutheran Church, Freeland.

Memorials may be made to the Health Hospice, Whidbey General Hospital, 101 N. Main St., Coupeville, WA 98239.
