A Well Known Pioneer Passes Away

Mr. Owen McCollow, a resident of the village of Oak Grove for the past fifty years and its present postmaster, died at his home there, last Thursday evening, March 1, 1900, at 7:00. His death was an event wholly unexpected and was the result of a sickness of about four days duration. On the Previous Friday he complained of not feeling well but attended to his duties at the post office, besides giving no small share of his time to the care of his wife who was, at the time, considered seriously ill but is much improved at the time of this writing.

On Sunday, February 25, Mr. McCollow was quite suddenly and almost completely prostrated while at the bedside of his wife. He fell into what seemed to be a fainting spell and was helped to his room. Dr. Hallock was called and, upon investigation, found that it was a case of paralysis of the throat, and of the vital organs. He grew weaker from day to day and from hour to hour was not able to take any nourishment, and finally passed away on the day and at the hour above stated.

The funeral services were held at St. Mary's Church in Juneau, on Monday last at 10 o'clock. Rev. J.J. Salentin was the celebrant of the Solemn High Mass. He was assisted by Fathers Condon of Madison, and Collins of Janesville, as deacon and sub-deacon. Rev. Father Klaser of Beaver Dam officiated as Master of Ceremonies. Rev. Father Bertram of Hartford and Rev. M.J. Ward of Beloit were also present.

Father Ward delivered the funeral oration which was one of the most eloquent and the most logical ever heard in this place. It seemed to reach the heart of every listener and there to find a hearty amen. The Rev. Speaker seemed to have taken a deep inspiration from the life of him over whose remains he stood. He paid a most eloquent and feeling tribute to the life and character of Mr. McCollow as a Christian, as a Catholic, as a husband, father, and neighbor. His eulogy was a strong one and his manner of speech left no doubt of his sincerity. Furthermore, he was conscious of the fact that all who heard him and knew the deceased in his life time could heartily endorse and corroborate every syllable that fell from his lips.

The Church was filled to its utmost capacity by Catholics and non-Catholics and the sermon has been a topic of conversation and a subject of thought ever since. At the conclusion of the services at the church, the remains were conveyed to the Catholic cemetery and laid to rest in the presence of the family of the deceased and a large concourse of neighbors and friends.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Jeremiah Mahoney and Edward J. Collins of Clyman, Charles Owen and Edward Drake of Oak Grove, and Solomon Rudolf and John Solon of Juneau.

The date of Mr. McCollow's funeral, March 5th, happened to be the date of his marriage, which event took place in 1848, fifty-two years ago. Two years ago, Mr. and Mrs. McCollow celebrated their golden wedding, with appropriate religion exercises, at St. Mary's church in this city. At that time we published, in connection with an account of the ceremony, the following interesting biography of Mr. McCollow:

"Owen McCollow was born on a farm in Collon, county of Louth, Ireland, Nov. 1st, 1824, and was the youngest of fourteen children, of whom he is now the sole survivor. He was given a very liberal education in a private school. At the age of 17 he began an apprenticeship as a shoemaker in the city of Drogheda, and after a service of four years, came to America when 21 years of age. He worked at his trade in NY City for three years. On the 5th day of March, 1848, he was united in marriage with Miss Margaret Atfield, and the couple came to WI in the summer of that year, settling first in Milwaukee. In 1850 they came to Oak Grove, this county, which place has been their home ever since.

Mr. McCollow was appointed Postmaster of Oak Grove in 1853, and held the position for about nine years. This was before the era of railroads and at a time when Oak Grove was the distributing office for numerous stage routes. The amount of mail handled daily sometimes exceeded twenty bushels. Mr. McCollow was again appointed Postmaster in 1885 and held the office for four years. Again in 1873 he received the appointment and still holds that position.

He has held office of Justice of the Peace for the past 31 years without interruption. He has been elected to the office of chairman, assessor, clerk, and treasurer of the town of Oak Grove and has served as a member of the county board. He was school district treasurer for 21 years, and was twice an unsuccessful candidate for member of assembly in a district in opposition to his political views.

No man has ever stood higher, nor does any man stand higher today in the esteem and confidence of his neighbors than does Owen McCollow."

A lapse of two short years has not altered the above sketch except perhaps to add to the esteem in which Mr. McCollow has ever been held since he first settled in Oak Grove. In the presence of the death of this truly good man, it is difficult to select words that can exemplify his life. As Father Ward expressed it: "His life was a lesson of righteousness, and more impressive in its practice than can be made clear to the mind by any combination of words."

Mr. McCollow is survived by his wife, five sons, and one daughter. The sons are Eugene, of Minneapolis; John M. of Neosho; T.J. of Ellsworth; Thomas A. of Hartford. The daughter (Mary) is a member of the order of the Sisters of Mercy, and is a teacher in St. Joseph's Academy at Janesville. She is known in the religious order as Sister Mary De Sales. All were present at the funeral except Eugene.

Notes for Eugene Carlton McCollow:

An Excerpt from "St Paul's Catholic Church - Evansville, MN., Researched and written by Ruth Ann Montgomery:

"In March 1930, St. Paul's Catholic Church was assigned a new priest. Father Raymond Mahoney was transferred to St. Victor's parish in Monroe and he was replaced by Rev. Carlton McCollow of Monroe. Father McCollow found the parish to be in excellent financial condition, with a balance of more than $6,000 in the treasury.

However, it was the beginning of the Depression and many people were desperate for money, desperate enough to steal from a church. In July 1930, a candelabrum and money were stolen from St. Paul's. Police Chief Fred Gillman the recovered the candelabrum from a ginseng field. The money was never found. The candelabrum had more sentimental value than monetary because it had been given in memory of Michael McCarroll.

Father McCollow was more conservative in suggesting remodeling projects than other priests had been. During the difficult financial time of the Depression there were few physical changes to the church. McCollow did oversee the installation of a new pipe organ that was first used during the midnight mass on Christmas Eve, December 1931. Mildred Bodenberger was the organist for the service. Evelyn Lay and Donald Wissbaum played violin and Hazel Kelly was the vocal soloist. The new priest also maintained the successful social and fund raising activities. The Irish Picnic was held in late August and still brought thousands of people to Evansville. A crew of more than one hundred people was needed to organize and staff the event."

THOMAS A. MCCOLLOW

It is a pleasure to insert in this volume a sketch of the life of the subject of this sketch, for he has not only been public-spirited and law-abiding, but he is also enterprising, kind hearted and intelligent, and in each and every relation of life has conducted himself in a manner to win the respect of all.

He first saw the light of day in the village of Oak Grove, Wis., February 26, 1854, but his worthy sire, Owen MCCOLLOW, is a product of the Green Isle of Erin, and there grew to early manhood. He was of an ambitious nature, and decided to seek his fortune in the new world, and after having been in this country for some time was united in marriage in Jersey City, and thereafter for a few years resided in NY.

In 1847 he came to Milwaukee, Wis., and in that city began following his trade of shoemaking, and worked faithfully at the same until 1850, when he located at Oak Grove, Dodge County, where his home has since continued to be. Owing to his long residence here he has become exceedingly well known, and the numerous friends that he has gathered around speak eloquently as to his many worthy traits of character. He has always interested himself in the political affairs of this section, is a staunch Democrat, and has held many offices of honor and trust in this county.

He is now living in retirement and greatly enjoys his rest from the burden and heat of the day. Thomas A. MCCOLLOW has resided all his life in Dodge County, and in the public schools of this section he acquired a practical education, supplemented by a two-years course at Sacred Heart College, Watertown, Wis., and for a few years thereafter was a successful school teacher of Dodge County, and to him lies the honor of being the only young man educated in the village who afterward taught the same school that he attended in his youth.

After reaching the "young idea" for some time, he engaged in clerking in Juneau and Horicon, but in October, 1884, he and a brother, T. J. MCCOLLOW, united their means and bought out an established business in Juneau, and up to February 1893, they did a remarkably successful general mercantile business. At that date the brothers sold out, and Thomas A. has since been identified with the Democratic party, and has filled the offices of town clerk, alderman and county supervisor. He has also been deputy county clerk and October 18, 1893, was appointed to the position of postmaster of Juneau, and has made a very efficient and obliging official. He has served as a delegate to numerous conventions, and in various other ways has been active in the political affairs of his section.

He was married in Beaver Dam, Wis., September 26, 1883, to Miss M. E. PARRY, a native of Fond du Lac

County, Wis., but who was reared and educated in Beaver Dam, and was a very successful teacher of Dodge County for a number of years. To them two children have been given: Josephine M. and Zita C. Another child, Eugenia, died at the age of thirteen months. Mr. and Mrs. McCOLLOW are members of the Catholic Church, and socially, he belongs to the Foresters and also to the C.K. of W., of which order he is secretary. The entire life of Mr. McCOLLOW has been spent in this county, and when it is known that he has the respect of all who know him, all has been said.

Notes for Margaret Eugenie McCollow:
Juneau Telegraph, 9 SEP 1887:

"On Sunday last Margaret Eugenie, the youngest daughter of Mrs. T.A. McCollow passed rather unexpectedly, from this vale of tears, at the tender age of 13 months. Although the child had not been strong and had many serious spells of sickness, the parents were hopeful of her entire recovery, supposing that all the ups and downs were naturally incident to the order of tender years of infancy. Therefore, when the summons came they were found unprepared for the heavy blow, but recognizing the will of the Creator "Who doeth all things well" they, with christian fortitude bowed with submissive obedience. In this, their first affliction, the bereft parents have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral occurred at St. Mary's church on Monday and was very generally attended by all classes and creeds. The remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery east of the city"

Notes for Josephine McCollow:

Juneau Telegraph 28 JUN 1907:

"Her Spirit Flown Mr. and Mrs. McCollow Lose Bright Daughter"

"Last Friday's issue of the Hartford Times contained the following announcement fo the death of a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed A. McCollow, which sad news caused profound sorrow of among their Juneau friends: 'A young life went out yestrday, June 20th, int he death of Josephine, Beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McCollow, who died of Bright's disease, aged 11 years, 3 months, and 21 days. She had been in somewhat poor health since an attack of scarlett's fever a year ago and had not attended school although able to be around most of the time. She took to her bed last Friday, her condition became very serious by Saturday night, and she gradually fell into that sleep which has no awakening. Besides her parents, she is survived by three sisters and one brother.' The funeral services were held at St. Killan's church, Saturday, and were conducted by Father Bertram. Among Juneau friends who were present a the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. T.A. McCollow and daughter Zita, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Becker, Michael Hartzheim, and John Solon."

Notes for Simon Stephen Mullen:

Simon was a music teacher in Watertown for many years, and was also a gifted organist and pianist, as well. He owned a custom made Steinway piano, which only had 85 keys instead of the traditional 88 keys. His Granddaughter, Nancy Elizabeth Mullen, remembers him at the age of 80 years old getting up at 630 on Sunday mornings and taking the city bus to church in Milwaukee to play the organ for both Sunday Masses.

At one time, Simon had purchased a small acreage tract outside of Milwaukee and, according to his granddaughter, Nancy, on the weekends he would take the grand kids there to help him tend to a small crop of various vegetables. At harvest time, they would gather the bushels into his truck and distribute them to the local Nun's, widowed ladies, and orphanages.

Notes for George Joseph Mullen:

Friday, April 26, 1963:

"Mullen Dies; Choir's Chief Organist at Cathedral"

"George J. Mullen, 44, choir director and organist at St. John cathedral for the last 18 years, died of cardiac arrest Thursday afternoon at his home, 510 E. Kilbourne av. Mr. Mullen was the third generation of a family of church musicians. He was taught by his father and as a high school student rode his bicycle to St. Jude's church, Wauwatosa, to play the organ. Later he played the organ at St. Patrick's and St. Rose's churches. He received a bachelor's degree in Catholic church music from the Gregorian Institutes, Cincinnati, and a Master's degree as an organist from the University of Montreal. He wrote many musical compositions, the latest a four part offertory motet for the cathedral male choir. He liked best to write music for children, particularly the St. John cathedral boys choir, which he organized when he went there in 1944. Mr. Mullen is survived by his wife, Margaret; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Mullen, Wauwatosa; two sisters, Mrs. Clarence Kocovsky and Janet, both of Wauwatosa, and two brothers, Thomas of Cape Girardeau, Mo., and David of Cincinnati. The funeral will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at the cathedral. There will be a vigil at 8 p.m. Friday at the Brett funeral home, 2001 W. Wisconsin av. Burial will be in Holy Cross cemetery."
