

The Descendants of Elisha Alderman
Descendants of Elisha Alderman

Generation No. 1

1. ELISHA² ALDERMAN (?¹) was born Abt. 1806 in Richfield, Otsego Co., New York, and died Bet. November 1850 - July 1860 in Albion, Erie Co., Pennsylvania. He married LUCY DEIDAMA JACKSON 1826 in Erie Co., Pennsylvania, daughter of LYMAN JACKSON and DEIDAMIA DURHAM. She was born February 06, 1808 in Pennsylvania, and died December 14, 1893.

Notes for ELISHA ALDERMAN:

Based on Elisha Alderman's age of 48 years on the 1850 Federal census, his date of birth was estimated to be about 1802. His place of birth appeared to be " Vt". However, International Genealogical Index (IGI) records list "Richfield, Otsego Co., New York" as his place of birth. In an effort to confirm Elisha Alderman's date and place of birth, on-line 1810 Vermont and New York Federal census records were searched. No Alderman families were found in Vermont in 1810. Several Alderman families including males under 10 years of age were found in New York. An E. Alderman family was the only Alderman household listed in Otsego County, New York. The E. Alderman family included 2 males under 10 years of age. It is possible that one of these males was Elisha.

An Ephraim Alderman was listed in the 1820 New York Federal census of Otsego County. Unfortunately, itemization of the household was not available on-line.

By 1830, the Elisha Alderman family was residing in Conneaut township, Erie County, Pennsylvania. On the 1830 Federal census, 6 persons were listed in the household as follows: Free White Males, 1 under five years, 1 five and under ten, 2 twenty and under thirty (Elisha and an unknown, maybe a brother); Free White Females, 1 twenty and under thirty (Didemia), 1 eighty and under ninety (probably a grandmother). A Michael Alderman family, possibly Elisha's brother, was also residing in Erie County, Pennsylvania.

Both the Elisha and Michael Alderman families were still living in Conneaut township, Erie County, Pennsylvania in 1840 according to census records. On the 1840 Federal census, 9 persons are listed in the Elisha Alderman household as follows: Free White Males, 1 under five years, 1 five and under ten, 1 ten and under fifteen, 1 fifteen and under twenty, 1 twenty and under thirty, and 1 thirty and under forty (Elisha); Free White Females, 1 under five years, 1 thirty and under forty (Didemia), 1 sixty and under seventy (this was probably Elisha's mother, since Lucy Didemia's mother was residing elsewhere). Two persons were listed as employed in agriculture. Two were listed as scholars.

Places and dates of birth for Elisha's sons James and Abner indicate the family moved from Pennsylvania to Illinois between 1844 and 1848. On the 1850 Federal census of Knox County, Illinois, Elisha's given name was spelled as Elsha. He also was noted as the only person in the household over age 20 who could not read or write. Elisha, age 48; Didemia, age 41; John, age 19; Michael, age 14; Philistia, age 12; Hosea, age 10; James, age 6; and Abner, age 2 comprised the household in 1850.

Elisha Alderman was not listed in the 1860 Federal census of Knox County, Illinois. Elisha's wife and 2 sons were residing elsewhere implying that Elisha died between 1850 and 1860.

Burial: Albion, Erie Co., Pennsylvania
Occupation: 1850, farmer in Albion, Erie Co., Pennsylvania

Notes for LUCY DEIDAMA JACKSON:

The 1860 Federal census listed a Didemia Alderman as residing with James and Gilderoy (her sons) in the Abadiah (should be Obediah) Jackson household. The LDS website and other records show an Obediah as Lucy Didemia's older brother. Lucy must have thought very much of her older brother, Obediah, since the oldest child of Elisha and Lucy was named for her brother. It was unusual for the first child to be named for anyone other than a parent, grandparent, or sibling of the father. On the 1870 Federal census, Lucy D. Alderman is "keeping house" in the household of a James Alderman. Given the age of James, it's probable that James is a brother of Elisha.

Generation No. 2

2. OBEDIAH JACKSON³ ALDERMAN (*ELISHA*², ?¹) was born May 05, 1828 in Conneaut Township, Erie Co., Pennsylvania, and died November 03, 1909 in Galva, Illinois. He married (1) MARY ANN HAYWOOD March 12, 1851 in Elk Creek, Pennsylvania. She was born 1831 in New York, and died Bef. February 1868 in Albion, Erie Co., Pennsylvania. He married (2) A.A. SPRAGUE February 28, 1868 in Albion, Erie Co., Pennsylvania. She died Unknown. He married (3) MARY ANN CAMPBELL September 28, 1869. She was born Abt. 1855, and died November 1938.

Notes for OBEDIAH JACKSON ALDERMAN:

According to notes from Kendrah Justesen, Wanda Riggen, and Kendrah's grandmother, Violet Binge Alderman; Obediah moved his family to Pennsylvania shortly after his son, Manley, was born in 1851. After his first wife, Mary Ann Hayward, died in Pennsylvania in 1868, he moved the family back to Illinois while Manley was still a young boy. Obediah was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge but never affiliated with the local lodge. At the time of Obediah's death, a son, William, is said to have lived in Hudson, Kansas. Daughters of the Descendants of Fish Alderman Wilkinson lived in Galesburg and Cambridge, Illinois.

Obediah's family had a long history of military service. His grandfather, Lyman Jackson, and 7 of Lyman's brothers fought in the War of 1812. Obediah, along with 3 of his brothers, fought in the Civil War. One brother was killed at the Battle of Bull Run. Two nephews and 2 cousins fought in the Spanish War.

Obediah was drafted into Company H, 98th Pennsylvania Infantry during the Civil War. He was 36 years old at the time. According to papers from the War Department Adjutant General's office, dated April 22, 1865, his eyes were gray, hair brown, complexion fair and height 5'10". His occupation was listed as laborer. He was enlisted at Ridgeway, Pennsylvania on March 6, 1865. He was discharged on November 17, 1866.

After his discharge at Albion, Pennsylvania, Obediah resided there until 1869 when he moved to Middlesex, Pennsylvania. He lived there until Oct. 19, 1873 when he moved to Princeville, Illinois in Peroria county. In 1876 he moved to Galva, residing there until his death. His home was in the northwest part of the city. He died on a Wednesday morning after a short illness. His death was due in part to complications involving Bright's disease.

Obediah was active in the G.A.R. He was employed by the Galva News for 10 years as assistant press foreman. When issue #1 of the Galva News was published on October 18, 1879, Obediah operated the press. It was "a slow, laborous job. "

Notes for MARY ANN CAMPBELL:
Mary Ann was a member of M.E. Church in Galva. At the time of Mary Ann Campbell's death, she was living in Aurora, Illinois. She had made her home initially with one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Wade, in Kewanee, Illinois but then moved to Aurora to the home of another daughter, Mrs. Frank Kehl. At the time of Mary Ann's death, her daughters Ida, Rozella Wade, and Gertrude Paillette were living in Norfolk, Nebraska; Kewanee and Chicago, Illinois. Her son, Harry, resided in Oswego, Illinois.

Notes for ISAAC DENNY:

Isaac was said to have been well known in Galva, Illinois. He was brakeman for the B & O Railroad in Newark, New Jersey until 1874 when he came to Galva and was employed for nearly a year on the school building then in the process of erection. He then returned to Newark as a brakeman. He died leaving behind his wife and 5 children.

3. JOHN LUTHER³ ALDERMAN (*ELISHA*², ?¹) was born February 28, 1831 in Erie, Pennsylvania, and died November 06, 1898 in Galva, Knox Co., Illinois. He married (1) CATHERINE SCHAFFER. She was born Abt. 1830 in Germany, and died February 16, 1869 in Illinois. He married (2) MARY MILLEN Aft. 1869. She died Unknown. He married (3) MATILDA JANE SEYBERT November 12, 1871 in Henry Co., Illinois. She was born August 12, 1848 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and died December 14, 1910 in Galva, Illinois.

Notes for JOHN LUTHER ALDERMAN:

The 1860 Federal census listed a "Mary Millen, 57, F" of New York residing with the John Alderman family as well as a "Jas Alderman, 47, M" of New York. The connection between this Mary Millen and John's second wife, also Mary Millen, is unknown. The connection between Jas Alderman and John is unknown. However, another family researcher references the 1870 Stark County, Illinois census listing James Alderman, born about 1812 in Vermont as a possible sibling of Elisha Alderman. Therefore, Jas would be John's uncle.

John Alderman was found on the personal property tax lists for both 1865 and 1875 in the town of Victoria, Knox County, Illinois. His personal property valuation increased from $72 in 1865 to $226 in 1875.

An on-line search of Illinois Civil War veterans listed a John L. Alderman who served in Company E of the 95th Infantry. He resided in Leroy, Illinois.

Notes for JAMES KNOX ALDERMAN:

Quoted from the Knox County, Illinois Genealogy & History Home News Histories, on the Knox county web site, "Center Prairie and the immediate neighborhood did not lack in patriotism as evidenced by the list of boys who wore the blue. Among the descendants of Elisha Alderman, James Alderman...Of these famous sons of Center Prairie and surrounding territory who fought in the army blue, only three, George Newberg, August Carlton and George Elliott are now living. Sad to relate that although Center Prairie showed her patriotism by sending so many of her sons to the front, there were those whose sympathies were with the enemies of a united people and who showed a yellow streak down the back by trying to avoid service. In this day we would call them slackers and to this day their descendents have never retrieved the disgrace of their forefathers by offering themselves on the altar of Liberty when their country called. Thank God there were not many."

During his career as a carpenter and building contractor, he ..ted in the construction of several of the principal Joplin churches and business buildings."

On the back of a photo of James Thomas Barcus, his wife, Rebecca, and their daughter, Caroline, is written the name and address of "G.N. Alderman, 820 Sargent, Joplin, MO".

On the marriage license of Gildia and Caroline, it says that they were married in Marshall county, Kansas at the residence of Martin Campbell, Minister.

Notes for CAROLINE BARCUS:

On the online transcription of the book by William C. Cutler, "History of the State of Kansas", (written in 1880 and first published in 1883), under the section on Marshall county. The Descendants of Eliza Alderman tells us of the calamities which occurred there. One listed after John Harris arrived was the plagues of grasshoppers. In August, 1867, the grasshoppers arrived in great numbers and "destroyed every living thing". In August, 1868, they returned in millions but did comparatively little damage. In the summer of 1874 they appeared again and ate every green thing or leaf they could find. The county was self-supporting during the plague. The morning of May 30, 1879 started out to be a beautiful day. By that afternoon, the temperature had dropped about 30 degrees and a storm began moving in. In a short time, a cyclone (tornado) moved through Marshall county, causing death and destruction in some localities on a large scale. The cyclone struck in the spring of the year of the birth of Caroline Barcus.

In her scrapbook, Caroline Barcus wrote about being sent to live with her aunt Caroline Mills at age 2 when her mother, Rebecca Harris, died from pneumonia. Her younger brother, George, also died of pneumonia within days of Rebecca. George was only 2 months old. Caroline reported that "after Mother's death papa took Charles, Margaret and Caroline to Marshall Co. Kansas and scattered us out among his brother and two sisters where we lived till grown."

Caroline also wrote about being bitten by a rattlesnake at age 3: "My favorite play thing was a cat or a chicken. My main playmate was a black and white spotted cat. She was fond of hunting. She would go hunting most every evening. She had 4 little kittens in a barrel on the north porch so she would leave the kittens and go hunt and when they mewed it worried me so I thought I would not let her go so she got outside the picket fence and I kept reaching for her and finally I reached just once too many times. A big rattlesnake bit me on the little finger of the right hand. This hapened Oct. 9 1882." Caroline's scrapbook also contains pictures taken of her with her "tame" chickens and her pet squirrel "Dickie".

Due to poor health, Caroline Barcus Alderman did not attend school until age 8. She described all of her teachers in her scrapbook. Apparently she was able to attend school for only a few years before she had to quit school to stay at home and help her aunt.

On the marriage license of Gildia and Caroline, it says that they were married in Marshall county, Kansas at the residence of Martin Campbell, Minister.

Caroline Alderman's obituary reported she had been a patient more than a year at the Jasper County Tuberculosis Hospital in Webb City when she died. Funeral services "were held at the Frank-Sievers chapel. The Rev. E. T. Hardaway of Carthage was in charge. The Wristen sisters sang."

Notes for NETTIE LEVEDA SULLIVAN:

LDS records indicate that Nettie's surname was "Nettie Leveda Sullivan". Her obituary notes that she came to Joplin in 1934 from St. Louis. LDS records also indicate that she was born in Victoria, Knox County, Illinois. Since this is where Gildia Newton Alderman was also born, it is a more likely place of birth than the Descendants of Elisha Alderman, Illinois, as indicated by Caroline Barcus Alderman's scrapbook.

Notes for HARVEY DAVID EPLEY:

At one family dinner, the food was all laid out on the table. Harvey had had a bit too much to drink and sat on the edge of the table ... right square on a pie. He butchered an average of 18 hogs per year, also butchering for his dad. The meat was salted down and put in the cellar. The family had an average of 16 head of horses and 6 - 8 milk cows at a time. They used their own ice from their own ice house across the road from the home place. It was a dugout with a log cabin on top. (Notes

Notes for STAFF SERGEANT WILBUR LU EPLEY:

SGT. WILBUR EPLEY KILLED IN ACTION

WAS TAIL GUNNER ON B-17 BOMBER

Staff Sergeant Wilbur Epley, 27, who on Aug. 11 was reported by the government as missing in action, has been reported killed in action over Germany. The word of his death came to his parents on Aug. 25. The telegram stated that he met his death over Germany on the 31st of July, while flying on a bombing mission in a B-17 bomber upon which he was a tail gunner. Sgt. Epley, with his brother, Dale, was among the first 16 to leave in the draft calls from Johnson county. He had been in the army for nearly four years. He was first quartered with the 110th medical corps, company G, with the 35th division. He was with this group for over 3 years. He received his first training at Camp Robinson, Ark., and later at Camp Rucker, Ala. Last October he transferred out of the medical corps and entered the air corps. He was first stationed at Fort Meyers, Fla., where he received his rating. He then went to the flexible gunnery school at Miami, Fla., and received his final training. He left the United States last June as a member of a crew on a B-17 bomber, as the tail gunner. Sgt. Epley was a farmer before he entered the service. He resided near Johnson and was well known in that locality. A younger brother, Junior, is in France at present, and another brother, Dale, is an instructor at Camp Robinson, Ark. (Note is apparently a newspaper clipping of unknown date courtesy of Jeane McCourtney.)

Notes for MABEL CAROLINE ALDERMAN:

On the back of a photo of Mabel Caroline Alderman, she wrote that she and Don first went together when she was about 17 years old.

Mabel's mother, Caroline Barcus, kept a scrapbook with family history and biographical information. (In the scrapbook, Caroline spelled the family name as Barkes). Mabel continued to add family information to the handwritten scrapbook until her death in 1988. In the scrapbook, Mabel noted that "all of Grandmother Harris' ancestors were either driven out, or were slain, in the awful massacre of Christians in Ireland". According to an undated clipping from an unknown newspaper (probably the Joplin Globe published on Oct. 18, 1988), "Services for Mable C. Scott, 79, ... will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Clark Funeral Chapel, Neosho. Roger Owens and John Anderson, ministers, will officiate. Burial will be in the Burkhart Cemetery, Racine. Pallbearers will be Greg Scott, Davis Scott, Randy Scott, Edward Scott, Doug Williams, and James Lankford."

61. DONALD MURL⁶ SCOTT (MABEL CAROLINE⁵ ALDERMAN, GILDIA NEWTON⁴, GILDEROY³, ELISHA², ?¹) was born January 08, 1936 in Joplin, Jasper Co., Missouri. He married LOIS JEAN BOAZ November 06, 1955 in Joplin, Missouri. She was born April 09, 1937 in Joplin, Newton Co., Missouri.

Notes for DONALD MURL SCOTT:

All of his life Don has had a love for the outdoors. He can usually be found either fishing or hunting. His hobbies include collecting antique fishing lures, carving fishing lures, and having an apiary (beekeeping). He worked for over 30 years in various grocery stores in and around the Joplin, Missouri area as a retail butcher before retiring. He has a excellent work record and reputation.

Don started doing taxidermy shortly after he married, initially for his own enjoyment. After a short time, he started doing taxidermy work for numerous friends. His hobby eventually grew into a family business based out of his home. Don joined the National Taxidermy Association in its second year of existence. He and his wife, Lois, have attended numerous state, national, and world conventions and competitions across the country through the years. Even though the NTA is not aware of it, Don was one of the first taxidermists in the country to carve his own styrofoam mannequins. In the 1970's, he went to a NTA convention in Denver, Colorado. While attending a seminar there, he observed a new technique being introduced, that of hand carving fish mannequins. The instructor said he had just started carving mannequins and was the only taxidermist in the country utilizing this technique. Don had been carving the Descendants of Elisha Allen prior to the convention.
