Notes for CHARITY RIGGAN:

Charity was the first child born to Jacob and Elizabeth, January 31, 1819 in Guilford County, North Carolina. Charity's mother died when she was twenty years old. Charity was then needed in the Riggan home to help care for her grandparents, Joel and Nancy, and her younger brothers and sisters, ages four to sixteen. This task probably delayed her marriage. She married Jesse Albertson on October 24, 1846 in Davidson County, North Carolina. Charity's younger brother, Joel, was the bondsman for the wedding. It is believed that Jesse Albertson had previously been married. He already had two children, Richard, born in 1838, and Martha, born in 1843.

Charity and Jesse had five children: Jacob, born in 1849, Joel, born in 1851, Nancy, born in 1854, and John and James, born in 1858. The last two children may have been twins. A review of wedding bonds indicates the following marriages involving Charity's children. Jacob married Amanda Steveson on December 11, 1876. Joel married Susan C. Runnion on November 29, 1883. John married Melissa King on December 22, 1878.

Charity and Jesse came to Indiana in 1852 and settled in Gregg Township of Morgan County. Jesse's mother, Mary Albertson, lived with them at this time. Charity was no doubt a hard working woman with heavy loads to carry, starting in childhood with caring for her grandparents and then her siblings after her mother's early death. In addition to her own five children, she helped to raise two stepchildren. Charity was probably Jacob's favorite child. He spent a great deal of time with Charity and her family in Indiana, prospecting for gold in Morgan County.

It is interesting to note here that Charity's children, Jacob, Joel, Nancy, John, and James all were given names which had been in use by the Riggan family for over 125 years.

Family records indicate that Charity died on July 20, 1864. Her grave is likely in Morgan or Hendricks County, Indiana. However, a search of cemetery records has not revealed the location. General feeling among senior family members indicates that Charity is probably buried in the cemetery at Abner's Creek. Jesse remarried (Phebe Pierce) and lived the last years of his life in Center Township, Hendricks County.

2. MARY ANN³ ALBERTSON (*JESSE*², *JESSE*¹) was born Jun 1841 in North Carolina, and died 1921 in Indiana. She married JOAB RIGGAN⁶ 04 Sep 1859 in Hendricks Co., Indiana⁶, son of JACOB RIGGAN and ELIZABETH TEAGUE. He was born 18 Nov 1828 in Davidson Co., North Carolina⁶, and died 08 Jan 1907 in Indiana⁶.

Joab was born to Jacob and Elizabeth on November 18, 1828 in Davidson County, North Carolina. Mary Ann Albertson married Joab and they had six children: a daughter born in 1860, Henry J. in 1861, Alice L. 1864, William M. 1869, Dora M. 1871, and George 1879. It is believed that Joab's first born daughter was the first of our Riggan family to be buried in Indiana. This infant was buried in Abner's Creek Cemetery in July, 1860.

Joab came to Indiana in late 1852 with his father by wagon train. His future wife, Mary Ann Albertson, was also on this wagon train, and was age eleven at the time.

Marriage bonds record the following marriages involving Joab's children: Henry J. married Flora E. Lewis on November 4, 1885, Alice L. married D. A. Lewis on April 6, 1882, William M. married Emma Lewis on March 11, 1893, and Dora M. married Julie Lewis on April 12, 1899.

The Atlas of Hendricks County of this time indicates that Joab owned the south 40 acres of the 120-acre Riggan farm. Due to discord between Joab's wife, Mary Ann, and William Riggan's wife, Salome, Joab sold his farm to his niece, Christina Beason Wood, on December 30, 1898. He resided elsewhere in the county before dying on January 8, 1907. He is buried in Abner's Creek Cemetery next to his wife.

Biography of Marion F. Johnson

CCCman, CC5-71323, Company 560, Camp F-160, Gold Center, Clarkia, Idaho & Camp P-216, Camp Las Posadas, Angwin, California

My Dad Marion F. Johnson served in the Civilian Conservation Corps from 10 June 1934 to 21 March 1935. He was in the 560th Company. He first saw service at Camp F-160, Gold Center, Clarkia, Idaho doing labor (B. R. Control) type of work which he explained was really keeping the brush under control to prevent forest fires. He has many pictures that he took while there and also had the thrill of going hunting for the first time where he bagged his first deer.

Dad next saw service at Camp P-216, Las Posadas, Angwin, California doing Brush Gang work but he explained that they planted a lot of trees. His one wish was to go back some day and see how the trees had grown. Sadly he never made it.

After giving it much thought he decided not to re-enlist and was discharged at Fort Knox, Kentucky the same place he was enrolled eight months earlier. My Dad really enjoyed his days in the CCC's. He saw new places, made life long friends and carried a lot of memories in his heart for years. His record of service is as follows:

a. From 7-10-34 to 7-16-34, under War Dept. at Fort Knox, Kentucky

29. CLIFFORD E.⁵ RUNION (SARAH ELLEN⁴ ALBERTSON, JOSEPH BARTLEY "BART"³, JESSE², JESSE¹) was born 03 Aug 1910 in Hendricks Co., Indiana, and died Dec 1980 in Brownsburg, Hendricks Co., Indiana. He married OPAL MARIE BURTON 20 Aug 1945.

Notes for CLIFFORD E. RUNION:

Following is e-mail from Louzina (Merritt) Spoon: (Runion/Albertson/Merritt Line Cousin)

Mary,

Pam send this to me, thought you might like to read it.

Clifford and his family came out home when I was a kid.

I knew, he had a rough life. My sister and I went to see him, just before he died abit. But I think I've told you that. At that time, he was in a fetus position and didn't acknowlege who we were.

I have Uncle Darius Runion's obituary, I'm sending in a few also. Pam just sent it to me.

She goes to the library, and digs alot, I think.

I'm always very happy to get everything, so I am in turn, passing it along. we may get it altogether!!!

Louzina

Pam got this information from Hendricks County Vital Records, an old Classmate of par Clifford's named Dorothy, and Ruby, Clifford's daughter.

CLIFFORD E. RUNION was born in Hendricks county, Indiana on August 3, 1910.

His parents were Sarah Albertson and Clarence Runion. Sarah becam ill and was tied to a cot in the attic, because she went insane there, she suffocated, June 24, 1914, at the age of 26 year. Clarence went to the Indiana Reformatory.

Clifford would herd cows up and down Cattersburg road to graze, because he had no where else to feed them. It is said he came to school dirty and smelly and the kids made fun of him. He had some family who tried to care for him from time to time. He married Opal Marie Burton Aug 20, 1945, and they had seven children. Clifford Jr, Ruby, Caroline, Phyllis, Lester, George, and Mary Jane. He worked for Bottema Farms, again caring for cattle. He lived on the farm with his wife and family, but there was trouble with the owner's wife and Opal.. They couldn't get along, so Opal left.

Clifford was never happy without Opal. He died Dec 1980 in the Tender Care Nursing Home, in Danville, Indiana and is burried in the South Cemetery.
