Whitesville, Harris Research Inst. (1977) page 67.

Shadrack was a charter member of the Mountain Creek Baptist Church in Harris Co., Georgia.

Shadrack Rowe's gravesite is about a mile or so east of the Interstate, on the road that goes east just South of Whitesville. There is a barn very close to the road on the North side, a single story white house across the street, and a small wooden house to the west of the barn. There is a fence line running just to the West of the Barn, and perpendicular to the road. There is a horse gate that you can drive through, your vehicle opening the gate as you go. The cemetery is in a clump of trees about a hundred yards from the road, behind the wooden house and to the west of the fence line. The property is owned by the Sly family of Columbus, so permission to go on the land is advised. Tenants live in the wooden house. There is a DAR marker on Shadrack's grave, The grave of Nancy Bynum and a number of slave graves are nearby.

10. SHADRACK⁴ ROWE, JR. (SHADRACK³, JOHN², WILLIAM¹) was born Abt. 1812 in Whitesville, Harris Co., Georgia, and died Bet. 1870 - 1880 in St. Clair Co., Alabama or Birmingham, Alabama. He married FRANCIS CAROLINE THORNTON December 03, 1839 in Whitesville, Harris Co., Georgia, daughter of WILLIAM THORNTON and MARY CARTER. She was born March 12, 1827 in Georgia, and died July 12, 1881 in St. Clair Co., Alabama.

Notes for SHADRACK ROWE, JR.:

Moved to St. Clair Co., Alabama in 1866. The 1860 Census indicates he was born in 1806. The 1850 Census indicates he was born about 1812.

Census 2: 1860, Whitesville, Harris Co., Georgia, p. 613

Census 3: 1870, Kelly's Creek Post Office, St. Clair Co., Alabama. Page 78

Notes for FRANCIS CAROLINE THORNTON:

Information on birth and death taken from Book of deaths in St. Clair Co., Alabama. The birth date does not match the statement on the 1870 Census, which would have her being born in 1825. The 1825 birth date would make her 15 when James Cato Rowe was born. The 1860 Census indicates her birthdate to be about 1827.

In the June 7, 1880 Census, Francis gives her age as 62, which would make her birth year 1818. That is more consistent with the above information. In the 1880 Census, Mattie, Lizzie, and Jackson are still living at home. Thomas is a few pages away. She states that she has heart disease.

Notes for JESSE NEAL SHEPPARD:

There is some uncertainty as to whether Jesse Neal Sheppard is the son of William Sheppard or William's son, George Washington Sheppard. His death certificate indicates that his father was George, but in each census record, he is listed in William Sheppard's household. If he is the son of William and Nancy Caroline, his mother would have been 43 at the time of his birth.

In July of 1909, He bought 152 Acres out of the Wm. P. Corbin Survey from Paul Von Rosenberg. This transaction is recorded in Vol. 234, p. 385.

In the 1910 Census, Jesse is a widower, living with daughter, Barbara.

In the 1920 Census, Jesse is married to Callie Mae, and living in Creedmoor with her and son, Sheron Rowe.

On Feb. 10, 1923, Jesse and Callie Mae sold their 89 acre farm in Creedmoor to August Schaefer for the sum of $17,600.00. The address there was: 1377 Old Lockhart Rd., Buda, Texas, 78610.

On January 1, 1927, Jesse leased the "Oil Station and Garage" at the corner of East Live oak St. and Post Road (South Congress) for an initial period of two years from Mrs. Ida F. Johnson for the amount of $100.00 per month. At the same time, he rented the cottage at 205 East Live oak for $27.50 per month.

AUSTIN MAN KILLED BY ACCIDENTAL SHOT

BULLET LEFT IN RIFLE HELD AS CAUSE

J.N. Shepherd (sic), about 50, was fatally wounded Tuesday morning shortly before 11 o'clock by an accidental discharge from a 32 calibre rifle which he was cleaning in a tool house near the Lone Oak filling station which he operated on South Congress avenue. (2202 College Ave.)

It was believed that he had failed to remove a bullet from the magazine of the gun, for the other shells were lying on a shelf nearby, Det. Ted Klaus, who investigated, reported.

Mr. Shepherd was shot through the temple and died while being transported to the Brackenridge hospital.

Fitzhugh Wallace, who works at a filling station directly across the street, was believed the last person who conversed with Mr. Shepherd before the fatal accident.

Wallace said that he and Mr. Shepherd frequently joked with each other and that shortly before the accident Shepherd had called him to come across the street, saying that he would sell him the gun as soon as he finished cleaning it.

Wallace said that they joked about several matters as usual and that he returned to his work. About five minutes later he said he heard a shot and that Joe Perry and Herman Piland, who worked for Shepherd, shouted that Mr. Shepherd had been shot.

The body was taken in charge at the hospital by the Cook funeral home and funeral arrangements had not been made shortly after noon Tuesday.

Mr. Shepherd is survived by his widow and one son.
