Daniel served in the South Carolina militia in the Revolutionary War, and was paid for his services by the state on Oct 27, 1785 (see Book N, pg 95, Stub entries for Indents, SC Revolutionary War records, edited by Salley). By 1788 he had moved to Georgia and settled in Burke County and was granted 200 acres of land there by the state of Georgia that year. He was living in Effingham County in 1794 when he bought a tract of 500 acres and another tract of 200 acres on 12/31/1794, from Joel Ruis of Burke County. The lands laid on the Great Ogeechee River. In 1795 he was cut into the new county of Bulloch. He was sheriff of Bulloch County in 1807. In 1812 he was cut out of Bulloch into Emanuel county on its creation, but died the same year.

Emanuel estate records show his widow, Margaret, was appointed guardian of their two minor children, Charles and Nancy on 9/3/1812.

Reubin and Lacy were charter members of Hawhammock Baptist Church, located five miles east of Swainsboro on the Canoochee Road. This church was constituted Sunday, July 23, 1842, and Reubin was elected the first deacon of the church and was duly ordained, serving in that capacity until his death. He was the owner of several rather large tracts of land in Emanuel County on which he had two or three farms. He was granted by the state 708 acres in 1837 and 1000 acres in 1836. His other lands were bought from individuals. His home was located on the Blun-Modoc road, two miles east of Hwy 556...this property is now owned partly by a grandson, Willie R. Boatright, and partly by Rev Frank L Grinson, a great grandson and a former pastor of Hawhammock Church. He died in 1878 of injuries in an accident on his farm. Fact 1: 1928, Prison Cemetery near Reidsville, GA¹⁵²

Notes for JAMES HENRY PADGETT:

From many accounts, James Padgett was a hard and mean man. When his daughter Maggie was 3 years old, he traded her for his wife's sister Minnie Faircloth. This was done so his father-in-law would not put him in (or would get him out?) of jail. Before his first wife Maggie became sick, Minnie was supposedly pregnant with James's triplets. Not long after, Maggie became sick. Maggie was believed to have been poisoned by arsenic or strychnine. She was known to tell family members that "they were killing her". James went on to have 5 children with Minnie.

Died from tuberculosis.
