Jane Crumly, a daughter of Benjamin and Hannah Crumly, married her first cousin, once removed, John Clark Crumly. They moved from Cherokee county in North Georgia to Dekalb County, Alabama in the year of 1873. They brought with them an Honorable Recommendation of Citizenship, from the Community in which they lived.

It was signed by a large number of the people and was Sealed by the Constable.

They homesteaded a large tract of good land near where the thriving town of Crossville now stands. There they built a log house and reared a large family; three boys and three girls. They were named; Alfred, John, Thomas, Matilda , Martha, and Fannie.

This Crumly family contributed much toward the civilization, religion and culture of that vicinity. Millers Chapel, the Methodist Church stands in their Honor as a land mark there. The church was organized in the log house of John and Jane Crumly. The burial grounds joins land once owned by John Clark Crumly.

Two other daughters of Benjamin and Hannah Crumly came to Alabama and settled near them. They were Hannah Crumly Allen and Atha Crumly. Hannah and her husband reared a large family. They are both buried in the family cemetery. Atha, the other sister was never married and made her home with Jane and John. At her death she was buried near the others in the family cemetery.

Notes for WESLEY HARRALSON CRUMLY:

Wesley Harralson Crumly had an infection in his eyes when he was two years old (probably conjunctivitis or pink eyes). The Doctor gave his parents some drops to put into his eyes which caused him to go completely blind. He told his niece, Lois Crumly that the last thing he remembered seeing was a black sheep. Despite his blindness he and his brother, John Crumly built a switchboard and operated a telephone system throughout the Crossville, Sand Mountain area. He started by constructing two telephones. One of these phones he used in his house, the other he put in his father, Alfred Crumly's store so they could communicate with each other. This turned into approximately twenty-five lines with 2 to 4 parties on each line. His niece, Lois Crumly said that when she was a very small child she stood in a chair and operated this switchboard. She was the daughter of John Crumly.

He was also an automobile mechanic. According to his niece, Lois Crumly Duke, despite his blindness he could take an automobile apart and put it back together and that many people came to him to have their automobiles repaired.

In 1911 both John and his young daughter Lela had typhoid fever. His daughter, Lela died from the disease and John was very ill at the time of her death. He wasn't able to go to the funeral and didn't know of her death for several days. He was sick for the rest of his life. According to his daughter Lois he was thought to have TB but it was later determined that he had a heart condition. But, according to his death certificate he in fact died from Consumption aka TB. His daughter, Lois Crumly Duke said that he never got over the death of Lela and grieved for the rest of his life. During this period he wrote a hymnal. It was inspired by his daughter, Lela's death. Words to the song follows:

WE SHALL MEET AGAIN

Verse 1:

I am thinking today of that city above. Where some dear ones and friends watch and wait; And 'tis sweet to believe that the Savior I love Will unite us again at the gate.

Chorus:

We shall meet at the gate Of the city on high. If I cling to my Friend till the journey shall end, We shall meet at the gate by and by.

Verse 2:

There is one over there whose bright presence I miss More and more as the years pass away; But I know she is safe in that kingdom of bliss And again I shall meet her some day.

Repeat chorus

Verse 3:

Peace and gladness are hers on that wonderful shore Near the throne of the Heavenly Dove, And I know that with angels of light evermore She will sing of God's infinite love.

Repeat chorus

Verse 4:

May the Lord by His grace keep me truly His own Till the trials of earth-life be past, That among the redeemed, near the glorified throne, I may stand with my dear ones at last.

Repeat chorus

28. LOIS MAE⁸ CRUMLY (JOHN HENRY⁷, ALFRED CLARK⁶, JANE⁵, BENJAMIN⁴, JOHN³, JAMES², JOHN¹) was born 25 Dec 1910 in Dekalb County Alabama, and died 21 Jul 2001 in Jacksonville, Calhoun County, Alabama. She married ARNOLD NOLEN DUKE 14 Jul 1929 in Dekalb County Alabama, son of ALEXANDER DUKE and ADA YATES. He was born 03 Jan 1908 in Heard County Georgia, and died 20 Jul 1988 in Calhoun County Alabama.

Notes for LOIS MAE CRUMLY:

Lois was educated to the 9th grade. This was probably equivalent to a college diploma in present day. She could figure almost anything and read a lot. She also could work almost any crossword puzzle. She was an excellent seamstress and would go to town and look at a dress, buy the material and go home and make the dress which looked better than what was in the store. She also did a good bit of crocheting. She enjoyed this very much. She was also an excellent cook and enjoyed cooking for her grandchildren. She made one of the best coconut cakes ever and also was famous for her blackberry pies. In 1952 she started selling Watkins Products. She sold them for several years during which time she won a very nice refrigerator for top sales and also a trip to the home office in Wynona, Minnesota. Arnold accompanied her on the trip. They talked about it for years. Later she started having parties for Modern Method, Tupperware and Artex. She was always very good in all of these jobs. She was a very blunt person and always said exactly what she thought many times at the expense of the person she was talking to or about. Below is a poem that her grandson, Kenny Skinner wrote upon her death which I think pretty well summed her up:

A TRIBUTE TO GRANDMA

By: Kenny Skinner

I set on my deck and look off at the mountains,
I can't help but wonder did she drink from the fountain?
The Fountain of Life, I once read of in a book,
To her it more than likely is a creek or a brook!

She could hang with most cowboys, waiting on spring thaw,
When I was younger I thought she was the meanest woman I ever saw.
I knew there was no way she could be a saint,
Cause if a preacher ever talked to her she probably made them faint.

Granddad stayed with her for over fifty years and,
After his passing it came to me one day, he probably couldn't hear!
She worked hard selling Watkins when they were in a bind,
She would stay out all day in a hot car; I really think she didn't mind.

Holidays were special around her place,
She made the best Blackberry cobbler I ever put in my face.
My uncles and cousins would start wrestling in the grass,
We would end up in the living room and she would get on our ass!

So, as it gets dark on this Colorado plain,
I hope, in my heart, that she passed with little pain,
And if she's looking down tonight from way, way up in the sky,
There are some friends that have gone on before, maybe they are sharing a blueberry pie!

Notes for ARNOLD NOLEN DUKE:

All information on Arnold Duke, Lois Crumly and their children, and grandchildren provided by Margie Skinner and from Lois Duke Family Bible.

Arnold grew up in Heard County Georgia. He was 13 years old or maybe a little less, when his parents divorced, something that he never talked about. Alex Duke later married and moved to Dawson, Dekalb, County AL and Gena Yates Duke, Arnold's mother moved to Bowdon, Georgia, LaGrange Georgia, Hightower Alabama, and sometime before 1930 settled in Anniston, Alabama. Arnold traveled back and forth between his parents homes, sometimes hopping boxcars on trains. It was in Dekalb County, Alabama where he met and married Lois Crumly in 1929. They first lived in Anniston Alabama, but by the time the 1930 census was taken they were back in Dekalb County in the Dawson area. It was in Dekalb County Alabama where their first two children were born. Arnold was probably a sharecropper at this time.

Arnold worked at a Saw Mill in Cleburne County Alabama for a few years when their daughter Mavis was born. They lived near Rattlesnake Tower in Cleburne County, Shoal Creek Mountains (now Talladega National Forest) Alabama at this time. They always said that Mavis was born in a "Hoot Owl's Nest". They moved to Anniston, Calhoun County Alabama where their son Elmo was born then went to Langston Alabama in Jackson County where he was a sharecropper for a few years. They lived on the Tennessee River at this time. He could walk down to the River and fish. Their daughter, Margie was born here. He returned to Saw milling as a Sawyer for a while in Cleburne County, Alabama. Their son Wayne was born in Edwardsville Alabama. During this time Arnold did a good bit of boxing.

They moved from Edwardsville to Anniston, AL in the 1940's. They lived first in a rural area on Hunter Street just off Highway 202. This was when Royce was born in 1944. He was the first of Lois' children to be born in a hospital. The night that he was born the house caught on fire and burned one bedroom. No one was injured. They bought their house at 2026 Moore Avenue in Anniston Alabama in 1945. It was in 1947 when Marilyn was born at Anniston Memorial Hospital. They lived in this house until about October 1959.

When World War II started Arnold began work at Kilby Steel in Anniston Alabama, forging 105mm shells. He stayed there working as a shell forger during the Korean War. After leaving Kilby he worked as a night watchman at Anniston Foundry in West Anniston for a short period.

They moved to Dearmanville Alabama in 1959 where Arnold managed a farm for a while. In 1962 they moved to Cleburne County, Alabama, living first on County Road near Howle & Turner, later moving to the Housing Project in Heflin. They were living here when he was injured in an accident in 1968 resulting in an early retirement. He was driving a pick-up truck and was hit by a huge concrete truck containing 77,000 pounds of concrete. He remained hospitalized for several weeks. This resulted in permanent disability. The last job he had was on a crew building bridges for the Cleburne County, Alabama Road Department. In 1969 they move to Blue Mountain, Alabama where they lived until they bought their home in Weaver, Alabama in 1970. This the house where they both lived until their deaths.

He always had a huge garden and Lois always did a lot of canning. Arnold Duke was a very strong man and always worked hard. He had colon cancer which was successfully removed, but the cancer came back later in his lungs. When he was dying the hospice nurse said that he was the strongest man that she had ever seen and fought death until the very end.

Arnold and Lois were both buried at Anniston Memorial Gardens. It is located on U.S. Highway 431, North of Anniston, Alabama.

Notes for GEARLD ELMO DUKE:

I was only six weeks old when Elmo was born. He died from Colitis. All my life his picture hung on the wall at my parents home.

Of course I cannot recall anything about him, but do remember Mama talking about him. She said that the reason that I was left handed was because my daddy wished it on me. He would take Elmo out in the yard and try to teach him to through a ball left handed. Seems that there were some great left handed pitchers in baseball at that time.

Elmo was buried at Lusk Chapel Cemetery. It was many years before the were able to afford a tombstone, but finally did. I remember them taking it up there and placing it where he was buried and removing the rock that had been used to mark his grave. We went to the cemetery every time we went up on "Sand Mountain". We always went up for Granny Crumly's birthday in March and again for mother's day in May. That was also decoration day at Lusk Chapel Cemetery, so we always took some flowers for the grave.

JAMES², JOHN¹) was born 28 Dec 1932 in Dekalb County Alabama, and died 01 May 2002 in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. He married FREEDA HILLEY Private. She was born Private.

Notes for LARRY ELBERT DUKE:

After graduation from Anniston High School in 1952 Larry attended Jacksonville State College until he was drafted in September of 1953. He was in the U.S. Army 24th Infantry, 15th AAA. He was in the 89th Ordinance in Pusan Korea. He drove a 1/2 track in Panmunjan and was also a radio operator. He spent 16 months and 3 days in Korea. (In his own words)

Larry was a welder and worked at several places in Anniston, Alabama. In the early 1960's he moved to Huntsville and worked with Brown Engineering Co. Later he started his own metal fabricating company, where he contracted with The Redstone Arsenal. He built parts for Skylab and many other projects. He had quadruple bypass surgery after suffering a heart attack in 1983 and never had any more heart trouble. He was married to Freeda Hilley on December 20, 1956 at 2026 Moore Avenue in Anniston Alabama. They later divorced, remarried, and divorced again. They evidently could not live together, but when he became ill in 2001 until his death Freeda was very involved in his care. She cleaned his house when he became unable to do it, carried him food until he became so sick that he had to be placed in the hospital and drove from Anniston Alabama to the Veterans Hospital in Murfreesboro Tennessee to visit him until his death. She had remarried, but that also ended in divorce.
