Notes for DYSES "DICY" RAGAN:

The first church on the Oak Grove location was named Mt. Bethel Church, and the first wooden building was used as school during the week and church on weekends.

After the first building burned, a second wooden structure was built in 1935.

Dicy Snell donated property for the cemetery, and

Mr. Fisher Snell donated some old rough lumber.

The church eventually changed its name to Union

Grove or Oak Grove, but the date is not known.

The present brick structure that is used today was built September 1949 by Mr. Francis Joseph Snell (deceased).

Notes for FRANCIS JOSEPH "RED" SNELL:

History Of Oak Grove Church & Cemetary:

The first church on this location was named Mt. Bethel Church, and the first wooden building was used as school during the week and church on weekends. After the first building burned, a second wooden structure was built in 1935. Dicy Snell donated property for the cemetery, and Mr. Fisher Snell donated some old rough lumber. The church eventually changed its name to Union Grove or Oak Grove, but the date is not known. The present brick structure that is used today was built September 1949 by Mr. Francis Joseph Snell (deceased).

According to church members, Oak Grove Cemetery was originally a family graveyard with members of the West & Owers family and their extended families being buried here. Each year in October the Owers & West families meet at the church and cemetery for a reunion.
