PAULSEL 09 December 1883 in Clarksville, Hamilton Co. IN., daughter of GEORGE PAULSEL and LYDIA CUPP. She was born 13 November 1862 in Clarksville, Hamilton Co. Indiana, and died 21 December 1937 in Clarksville, Hamilton Co. Indiana.

Notes for OSCAR JOEL MUSSELMAN:

Scientific farming finds an able exponent in the person of Oscar J Musselman, who is now successfully operating one hundred and sixty acres in Wayne township, Hamilton county, Indiana. He comes from sterling German ancestry and has, as have all other German farmers of this county, prospered most gratifyingly. Mr. Musselman is a man of progressive ideas and stands for everything which means the betterment of his community.

Oscar j. Musselman, the son of John and Mary (Kauffman) Mussel man, was born in Wayne county, Indiana, January 17, i860. His father was born in Germany about 1828, and came to America when eighteen years of age. He first located in Ohio and later lived across the line into Wayne county, Indiana, and while living in the latter county, married Mary Kauffman. who was a native of Pennsylvania, and was the daughter of Valentine Kauffman and His wife, both of whom were natives of Germany.

John Musselman was a carpenter by trade and while living in Wayne county, gave all of his time to cabinet making. After his marriage in Wayne county, John Musselman moved to Owen county, Indiana, but two years later permanently settled in Hamilton county, Indiana, where he bought a farm in the northwestern part of Wayne township. He continued to operate his farm until his death, although he worked more or less at the carpenter trade all the time. He and his wife were loyal members of the Lutheran Church, and interested in all the works of the church. His death occurred on March 26, 1894, and his wife died February 4, 1898. John Musselman left a family of five living children: David Henry, Oscar J., George W., Francis M. and Mrs. Mary Qdelia Wild.

Oscar J. Musselman was four years of age when his parents located in Hamilton county, Indiana, and consequently received all of his education in this county. He remained at home until his marriage and then began farming for himself. He first bought eighty acres of the farm where he is now living, but did not move to it until about a year after his marriage. Later he added to his original farm until he now owns one hundred and sixty acres, which lies in the eastern part of Wayne township.

Oscar J. Musselman was married December 9, 1883, to Hattie M. Paulsel, the daughter of George, Sr., and Lydia (Cupp) Paulsel, and to this union five children have been born, two of whom are living, Ola C. and Jesse L. A pair of twins died when young. Ola married Jessie Males, and has four children, Alma, Harry, Eva and Ruth. He lives on a farm just north of his father's place. Jesse L. married Mary Brown and lives south-east of Clarksville.

George Paulsel, Sr., the father of Mrs. Musselman, and a pioneer farmer of Wayne township, Hamilton county, Indiana, was born in Rockingham county, Virginia, July 1, 1832, and died at his home in Wayne township, this county, November 27, 1870. He was a son of John and Margaret (Smith) Paulsel, natives of Virginia, of Scotch-Irish and German ancestry. John Paulsel died in 1856. George Paulsel, Sr., was married February 22, 1855, to Lydia Cupp, who was born in Augusta county Virginia, April 11, 1833, a daughter of Frederick and Catherine Cupp. A few months after his marriage George Paulsel and his bride came to Hamilton county, Indiana, traveling from Virginia overland in a wagon. He has previously visited the county and had entered some government land, the tract where his son, George, is now living in the northwestern part of Wayne township. When he and his wife got within sight of their new home they could get no farther because of the high waters and had to remain camped in the forest until the waters receded. Much of his land was swampy and grown up in willows, and it took a great deal of hard work in order to drain and clear the land. He started in with sixty-two acres, only a part of which was cleared, and the log cabin which he built and which became their first home stood until a few years ago. Later Mr. Paulsel built a good house and barn and got his farm in such a shape that it yielded satisfactory returns. He took an active interest in public affairs, and at one time served as trustee of Wayne township. He was kicked by a horse in November, 1870, and died before the end of that month. He and his wife were consistent members of the Christian Church. George Paulsel, Sr., and wife were the parents of nine children, four of whom died in infancy, the others being as follows:

Edith, who died at the age of twelve, October 25, 1880; Anna, who died April 16, 1907, at the age of forty; Mrs. Elizabeth Lehr, of Clarksville, Indiana, Mrs. Hattie Musselman of Wayne township, wife of the immediate subject of this sketch, and George Paulsel, Jr, who is now living on the home farm in Wayne township

Mrs. Paulsel was married October 24, 1872, to Fleming Scarce, and they lived on the Paulsel farm until 1892, when they moved to Noblesville, where they lived until the death of Mr. Scarce, February 8, 1898. One son was born to this marriage, Carah H. Scarce. After the death of her second husband Mrs. Scarce lived at Clarksville until her death, which occurred May 1, 1911, at the age of seventy-seven.

George Paulsel, Sr., had two brothers who were well known in this county, Peter and John. Peter was a farmer and lived in Noblesville many years. He married Eliza Burroughs, who survives him and is now living ;, in Noblesville. John lived south of Clarksville, in Wayne township, for many years, but is now a resident of Indianapolis.

Mr. Musselman is a Democrat in politics, but has always preferred to devote his time and energy to his agricultural affairs rather than engage in political matters. He and his family are devoted members of the Christian church. He takes a deep pride in keeping everything about his farm in good repair. with the result that his farm always presents a very neat and attractive appearance. He gives his unqualified approval to all public-spirited measures and has always stood for the best interests of his community.

Notes for FRANCIS MARION MUSSELMAN:
FRANCIS M MUSSELMAN

A man who has been an intelligent tiller of the soil and a public-spirited citizen of Hamilton county, Indiana, is Francis M. Musselman, who has lived within the limits of this county for the past fifty years. Such has been his diligence and good management that he has accumulated a fine farm of three hundred and eighty acres, the general appearance of which place indicates that he has been very successful in its management. He is a man of~ quiet and unassuming demeanor and while attending primarily to his own interests, has not neglected to take his part in the civic life of the community about him.

Francis M. Musselman, the son of John and Mary (Kaufman) Musselman, was born December 14, 1863, in Owen county, Indiana. His parents moved from Owen county to Hamilton county, Indiana, in 1864, and located in the northern part of Wayne township. John Musselman was a carpenter and contractor as well as a farmer, and was a man of high influence in his community, where he lived until 1894. He was an active member of the Lutheran church, as was his wife, and both took a prominent part in the various activities connected with their church. The wife of John Musselman died in 1898. There were born to this worthy couple seven children, two of whom died in infancy. The five living children are David, Oscar, George, Francis M. and Mrs. Della Wild.

Francis M. Musselman was about eight months old when his parents moved from Owen county, Indiana, to Hamilton county. He has lived on the same farm since coming to this county. He received a good common-school education in the district schools of his 'home neighborhood and remained with his parents until the time of his marriage. As a farmer he has been very successful, as is shown by his fine farm of three hundred and eighty acres, all of which lies in one tract in the northern part of Wayne township. He has never specialized in his farming, but raises all of the crops common to this section of the state and feeds for the market a considerable annual production of hogs and cattle. He has a beautiful home and a large and commodious barn and other outbuildings His house is surrounded by a 'well-kept lawn and everything about it speaks well for the taste of its owner. Concrete walks and a concrete wall, in front of the house and a porte-cochere at the side of the house add to the general attractiveness of the place. .

Mr. Musselman was married in 1891 to Minnie A Stubbs, who was born in Shelby county, Indiana, the daughter of Leonidas and Charlotte (Cushing) Stubbs. Mrs. Musselman lived in Shelby county with her parents until ten years of age and then came with them to this county.

To Mr. Musselman and wife have been born seven children, all of whom are still living: Orvis, Carey, Clarence, Muriel, Pearl, Roy and Ralph. Orvis married Julia Kinder and lives on the home farm.

Leonidas Stubbs, the father of Mrs. Musselman, was born in Shelby county, Indiana, April 22, 1847, the son of Elza and Zephaniah (King) Stubbs. He was reared to manhood in his native county, and was married October 6, 1868, to Charlotte W. Cushing, who was born at Scott Plains, New Jersey, August 4, 1840, the daughter of John and Hannah (Watson) Stubbs. She came to Shelby county, from New Jersey, with her parents when she was a child. Mr. Stubbs died June 3, 1908, and his widow is still living in Noblesville. The reader is referred to the biography of Leonidas Stubbs, which appears elsewhere in this volume for further details of the history of this family in Hamilton county.

Mr. Musselman and his wife are loyal members of the Christian church. Politically, he is a Democrat, but has never been active in political matters, his extensive agricultural interests having demanded all of his time and attention, and he has never cared to become a candidate for any political office. Mr. Musselman is an industrious and prudent farmer and gives his personal supervision to his large estate. He takes a deep interest in the affairs of his community and lends his hearty support to all public-spirited measures.
