

Descendants of Isaac Starling

Generation No. 1

1. ISAAC¹ STARLING was born Bef. 1663 in England, and died Unknown in Probably Chowan County North Carolina. He married UNKNOWN. She died Unknown.

Notes for ISAAC STARLING:

Isaac Starling first appeared in Accomac County, Virginia where he is named as one of twenty six people who received transportation from England, by two gentlemen of means, in exchange for a 50 acre "head right" from the King.

It is presumed that Isaac was an adult at this time (1663). Isaac was probably born about 1641 to 1643.

Child of ISAAC STARLING and UNKNOWN is:

2. i. ISAAC² STARLING, b. Abt. 1695, Chowan County, North Carolina; d. Abt. 1764, Northampton County, North Carolina.

Generation No. 2

2. ISAAC² STARLING (*ISAAC*¹) was born Abt. 1695 in Chowan County, North Carolina, and died Abt. 1764 in Northampton County, North Carolina. He married SARAH Abt. 1732 in Bertie County, North Carolina. She was born Unknown in unknown, and died Unknown.

Notes for ISAAC STARLING:

Other Starling researchers hold that Isaac (b1695) is the son of Isaac from Accomac County Virginia, who appeared in 1663. At least one document has him as Isaac Jr. If this is the case Isaac Sr. would have been about 54 yrs old at his sons birth. I feel that there might have been another generation between the two Isaacs. The search for the truth is still underway.

On Feb. 16, 1862 he was taken prisoner at the Battle of Fort Donelson Tennessee. It was reported that he died May 15, 1862 at Camp Butler Prison, Illinois. Robert must have died of wounds received in the battle. Three months is a survivable period even in the harsh conditions of a Civil War prison, unless there is some other reason for death.

Robert is buried at Camp Butler National Cemetery, Confederate Section Plot 511. Camp Butler is located at Springfield, Illinois.

It is not known if Robert ever married.

10. JOHN WASHINGTON⁶ STARLING (ELISHA⁵, ADAM⁴, ABRAHAM³, ISAAC², ISAAC¹) was born 1820 in Johnston County, North Carolina, and died November 01, 1887 in Cross Bayou, Mississippi County, Arkansas. He married SARAH ANN HOOD Abt. 1850 in Columbia County, Arkansas. She was born Abt. 1834 in North Carolina, and died Unknown in Cross Bayou, Mississippi County, Arkansas.

Notes for JOHN WASHINGTON STARLING:

John Washington Starling is named in Goodspeeds Historical and Biographical Memoirs of Eastern Arkansas.

He fought for the confederacy until he received his discharge on account of ill health. In 1863 he removed, with his family to the northern part of Missouri, and remained there until 1866: but thinking the outlook along the Mississippi River more promising in which to rebuild his shattered fortune, he placed his family and possessions on a flat boat and spent one year on the river looking for a suitable location. He finally settled in Mississippi County where the father and son together bought 100 acres of land on Cross Bayou.

It is a mystery why John took his family and traveled from Confederate territory to Union territory in the middle of the raging Civil War.

John, who was an Arkansas man, enlisted in a Tennessee Heavy Artillery unit commanded by Col. Robert Sterling. This is very curious. It is possible that Robert Sterling was a cousin, though I cannot find the connection. John received a Disability Discharge Sep. 20, 1862 for deafness. His discharge papers describe him as 5ft. 10in. tall, dark complexion, grey eyes and light hair.

It would appear that John did not know his birthdate. Almost every census shows a different age. His tombstone shows 1820. His military discharge interview quotes him as saying "1818". This record will use the tombstone inscription of 1820.

He married ZILLY EVELINA HOOD November 04, 1854 in Columbia County, Arkansas, daughter of GEORGE HOOD and EDITH JOHNSON. She was born August 18, 1839 in Fayette County, Tennessee, and died September 04, 1906 in Waldo, Columbia County, Arkansas.

Notes for JESSE A. STARLING:

Jesse Starling was shot to death by one of his wife's brothers. It is not known which one. The newspaper account from The Columbia Banner, July 10, 1879 follows:

Citizen who lives six miles north of Magnolia was shot and killed by his brother-in-law, one Mr. Hood, who is lately from Texas where he has been living. The particulars of this fatal affray as given us: Both Starling and Hood were in town tuesday, and left here together; Starling was known to be drinking heavily. On their way home Starling reprimanded Hood for not coming to see his sister, and words were passed freely. Mr Starling went on home, got his shotgun, and went down to the field where Hood and a woman who lives with him were; Hoods father and mother were in the field at the time. Starling walked up in a few paces of Hood, before he was discovered, and had his gun in a shooting position. Hood now quickly got his own gun and fired both barrels, filling Starling literally full of squirrel shot. Also two pistol shots were fired at Starling, one taking effect in his forehead; the other striking and denting his gun barrel. Our informant says it is not known whether the pistol shots were fired by hood or by the woman that was with him. At any rate Starling is dead, and thus ends another of those heart sickening scenes that too often occur about women; while men are under the influence of whisky.

12. DAVID THOMAS⁶ STARLING (*DAVID*⁵, *ROBERT*⁴ STERLING, *ABRAHAM*³ STARLING, *ISAAC*², *ISAAC*¹) was born 1837 in Johnston County, North Carolina, and died November 26, 1878 in Shelby County Tennessee. He married SARAH LOUISA STURGIS April 07, 1859 in Shelby County Tennessee. She was born October 14, 1841 in Tennessee, and died February 19, 1920 in Shelby County Tennessee.

Notes for DAVID THOMAS STARLING:

David Thomas Starling fought in the Civil War. He appears to have enlisted in the same infantry Reg't as his two older brothers for a period of one year. at the end of the year he enlisted in 1st Reg't , Tennessee Partisan Rangers. Later named 12th Tennessee Cavalry. He reported for duty Dec. 5, 1862 in Fayette Co. Tennessee. On July 30, 1863 he was captured by the Union Army between Germantown and Colierville Tennessee. He was first sent to Gratiot Street Prison in St. Louis Missouri. Gratiot Street Prison was a processing point for POWs before being sent to their permanent prison. Seven days later David was sent to Camp Morton Prison in Indianapolis Indiana. David remained in Camp Morton Prison from Aug. 22, 1863 to Mar. 24 , 1865, at which time he enlisted in the U.S. Cavalry as a "Galvanized Yankee". Two weeks later Lee surrendered at Appomattox. The role of "Galvanized Yankees" was to fight in the Indian wars on the American Plains. They were not required to fight against their Confederate Countrymen. Prisoners from Camp Morton made up two companies of the 6th Reg't of the U.S. Volunteer Infantry, about 200 men. David was in Company G of the 6th Reg't. The 6th reached the plains country in June, 1865. They protected settlers from the Indians, restored stagecoach and mail service, guarded survey parties for the Union Pacific Railroad, escorted supply trains and rebuilt telegraph lines. This was not a peaceful endeavor. There were many Indian battles and many on both sides were killed. This duty covered territory in Nebraska, Wyoming, Colorado, Kansas and Utah. The last Galvanized Yankees were mustered out of service in Nov., 1866.

David appears to be the only lucky one of the three Starling brothers. Robert, the oldest, was captured at the battle of Fort Donelson Tennessee and imprisoned at Camp butler, Illinois, a very harsh prison. He died in prison May 15, 1862. Abraham, one year older than David was never heard from again. It is presumed that he was killed in the same battle where Robert was captured. He is probably one of the hastily buried Confederates at Fort Donelson .
