Generation No. 1

1. THOMAS<sup>1</sup> BURCHFIELD was born Abt. 1740, and died Unknown. He married MARY M. She was born Abt. 1755, and died Unknown.

Notes for THOMAS BURCHFIELD:

Much of the information about the Burchfields comes from the book, The Families of Cades Cove 1821-1936 by A. Randolph Shields. According to this source, Thomas Burchfield came from Scotland with his first wife, Sarah Leginwood (or Leatherwood). After she died, he married Mary M., who was either full-blooded Cherokee or had been kidnapped as a child and raised by the Cherokees. They had at least 3 boys: Robert, John Noah and Wilson.

From another book I found in the library in Murphy NC, Old Buncombe County Heritage - NC, Vol II, p. 342: The Thomas Burchfield home is among the oldest records of McDowell County, dating back to 1760. Their daughter, Lydia Burchfield (7/24/1763-10/19/1846) was brutally scalped by the Cherokees. Skin, hair and bone were removed to her eyebrows. She lived and married Andrew Hunter (1765-1848) and was very respected by the Cherokee until her death at age 83.

From the same source, p 235: Approximately 1774-6 "Edward Leatherwood and relatives Thomas Birchfield, Edward Hyatt, Reuben Walker and Aquilla Burns were neighbors in 6th Co., west Bridgewater Twp, on the south bank of Catawba eight miles above Morganton". Edward ("Ned") was the son of John (b ca 1730) and Sarah "Sally" Hunt. John Leatherwood's father was also John (1/29/1685 - ?) and was the son of John and Martha Leatherwood, who sailed from Plymouth, England, around 1680 to Annapolis, MD. Another son, Samuel (b 1681), also accompanied them. In addition to Ned (b ca 1754), John and Sally Hunt Leatherwood had Sarah who married Thomas Birchfield, Hannah who married Edward Hyatt, and a daughter who married a Burns. Ned married Elizabeth Walker whose mother was full-blooded Cherokee.

From Volume I of the same source, p 226: Andrew and Lydia Burchfield Hunter lived where Lake Tahoma now is. Their daughter Elizabeth married Israel Leander Simmons and had a daughter, Lydia Louisa, who married John Hosea Hemphill.

Children of THOMAS BURCHFIELD and MARY M are:

2. i. Robert Wilson<sup>2</sup> Burchfield, b. 1774; d. 1860.
- ii. John Noah Burchfield, b. 1797; d. Unknown; m. Lottie Gelaspa, November 14, 1817, Burke Co NC; d. Unknown.

Notes for RACHEL HONEYCUTT:

Rachel's parents are not known with any certainty at this time. Family members recall that Rachel spoke of Uncles Rease, Tom and John. She was thought to be Indian.

The 1880 census of Tennessee, transcribed and indexed by Byron Sistler, shows Rachel living with Bryant and Nancy Honeycutt in Scott County at Household 251. This was after the divorce from Hezekiah (and he is living at Household 260). So, did she go to live with her older brother or did she return to her parents' home?

Notes for HENRY CLAY OVERTON WEBB:

According to Flonnie Smith Webb Stephens, her late husband Esau always thought Henry was an Overton, rather than a Webb. The family oral history also said that Henry's father had died in Civil War at the Battle of Shiloh. The notes transcribed from George Webb's Civil War pension file clearly indicate that Henry was the son of Riley Overton, whose father was killed by "rebels".

The 1880 census of Tennessee, as transcribed by Byron Sistler, shows the family living in Scott County at Household 253:
