Notes for JOSEPH GERRISH:

Rev. Gerrish was the minister at Wenham Massachusetts from January 1674 until his death.

It was one of Joseph Gerrish's parishoners, Mary Herrick, that brought an accusation of witchcraft against the wife of the Rev. John Hale. She confessed this to Joseph Gerrish who relayed it to Hale. This caused Hale to finally oppose the trials.

He was one of 11 ministers from Essex County who signed a petition against the Salem Witch Trials, fearing "that Innocent persons then suffered, and that God may have a controversy with the Land upon that account."

He married 2 daughters of Richard Waldron and had 4 wives total. You can read his entry here from Savage's Genealogical Dictionary of The First Settlers of New England.
