He married BARBARA MÜHLBAUER 27 Apr 1813 in Pfarrei, Kötzing, Germany. She was born 09 Nov 1795 in Traidersdorf, Germany, and died Bef. 23 Jul 1845 in Kieslau, Kötzing, Germany.

Notes for BENEDIKT STURM II:

In 1814, the Sturm farm is divided up, a smaller portion separated to constitute the mill of Joseph Sturm, the larger part remaining the Sturm farm. The farm now property worth of 3285 fl. and a taxable property of 2475 fl. It had originally the number 33 and was change to 35 later - it is unclear why the number changed, but the name (the half Sturm farm) remaining the same Benedikt died young at age 34 years and was married when he died.

Notes for BARBARA MÜHLBAUER:

The house no. 35 in Kieslau is named the "der halbe Sturmhof" (the half Sturm farm). According to the description, it is a property of 80 days work of fields and other parts, about 126 days work in total. In 1825 Barbara Mühlbauer, the widow of Benedikt Sturm, takes over the farm at a stated worth of 2096 fl. The worth is given as 3900 fl. in 1844 when she, now the wife of Joseph Deschinger, hands over the farm to her son Benedikt Sturm, who has to pay the heredity shares to his siblings.

Children of BENEDIKT STURM and BARBARA MÜHLBAUER are:

Notes for JOSEF STURM:

In 1814, the Sturm farm is divided up, and a small portion of it with property worth 345 fl. and a taxable property worth 260 fl. is set up in the ownership of the miller Josef Sturm. It is assumed that the mill was his share of the hereditage paid to him by his brother Benedikt.

Child of JOSEF STURM is:

8. i. JAKOB<sup>6</sup> STURM.

Generation No. 6

Notes for BENEDIKT STURM III:

Receives the half Sturm farm from his mother, worth 3900 fl. In turn he has to pay 700 fl. to each of his siblings, an additional 100 fl. as a trousseau to each of his sisters, and 200 fl. to his step-father Joseph Deschinger who does not inherit the farm.

The smaller portions of the property are separated in 1873, one probably to constitute the hereditage share of Franz Sturm, the other probably sold to Peter Artmann and Barbara (why?). The complete farm, i.e., the majority of the property is sold to Georg Stoiber in 1876.

Children of BENEDIKT STURM and FRANZISKA ZISTLER are:

x. ANNA MARIA STURM, b. 14 Jul 1863.
xi. FRANZ XAVER STURM, b. 15 Apr 1865.

Notes for FRANZ XAVER STURM:

This Franz could be a son born of the elder Franz born out of wedlock. The elder Franz would have been 19 at the time. Benedikt would have been 43 years old. This is pure speculation.

This Franz emigrated to America at age 16 with the Ship "Elbe" departing Bremen arriving America 18 February 1882.

8. JAKOB<sup>6</sup> STURM (JOSEF<sup>5</sup>, BENEDIKT<sup>4</sup>, JOSEF<sup>3</sup>, WOLFGANG<sup>2</sup>, WOLFGANG<sup>1</sup>)

Notes for JAKOB STURM:

It is unclear when Jakob Sturm took over the mill labelled has house no. 36 in the Kasaster. We need to assume though he was the son of Josef Sturm and the mill was separated from the Sturmhof.

Notes for FRANZ XAVER STURM:

Franz fought in hand to hand combat during the Franco Prussian War 1870-71. He was decorated for killing a French sniper who had a bead on his commanding general. At first he was reprimanded for firing before the general gave the order, but when it was learned he saved the generals life he was a hero. Frank was a bricklayer by trade in Germany. After his marriage in 1873, Franz buys a small portion of field, meadow and forest from his father Benedikt for the sum of 1150 fl. With the marriage contract, his wife becomes co-owner of this portion. On this portion of the farm Franz builds a house with barn and stable in 1876, which get the house no. 1/7 in Kieslau. On 16 October 1885, Franz sells this house 1/7 to Micheal Preiß for the sum of 5057 Mark. - In 1930 the house is owned by Josef Grasßl. Franz's status is listed as "Häusler" refers to someone not owning a full-scale farm, but just a house and perhaps a small fields for gardens, so that he had to earn money by another profession. Franz was a bricklayer. Franz and his entire family immigrated in 1886 at the age 40 with Franziska and their children: Joe, Frank, Creszentia, Frances, Karl, Max, and Wolfgang. They arrived in Baltimore, MD on June 24, 1886 on the steamship SS America operated by the Norddeutscher Lloyd Line, leaving Bremen Germany about 10 days earlier. They settled in Carrol County IA, where he bought an 80 acres farm 1 1/2 miles east of Roselle, IA.

Notes for FRANCISKA WÜHR:

Franziska came to America in 1886 settling on a farm near Roselle, IA. Franziska is remembered for walking 3 miles every day to attend daily mass in Roselle. Mrs. Frank Sturm, the oldest person in Roselle, celebrated her 90th birthday Friday, March 8. In spite of her old age, she is quite active and in fairly good health and attends church services quite frequently. She is an active member of the Rosary Soladity and the Three Quater Century Club of the Daily Herald. Mrs. Sturm, born in Bavaria, came to the US in 1886 and settled in Carroll where they lived ever since. She is the mother of eleven children, nine of them living. Her son Joseph, was currently living with her. She also has 59 grandchildren and 40 great-grandchildren. Her children and families in the nearby vinity came with well-filled baskets to spend the day with their mother, a surpised planned by her dauther Mrs. Anton Vogl of Harbur. Notes for FATHER PETER M. STURM:

After attending rural school in the Roselle area, Pete worked as a farmhand (1911-1915) in St. Helena, NE. He went to St. John University and Seminar (1916-1923) and was ordained a priest at Holy Angles Church on June 6, 1923.

Rev. Sturm was pastor at Sacred Heart Parish Ledyard, IA from 1929-1938 and is credited with erecting the present day church and purchasing the cemetery ground. The following is an excerpt taken from the Sacred Heart Centennial Booklet June 1996.

Like the rest of the parish, Fr. Sturm used agriculture to help maintain the church during the depression. In the lot south of the rectory, Fr. Sturm raised pigs. Area farmers donated pigs and elevator managers gave feed to keep the "Pig Club" growing. Money from the sale of the hogs supported the church. Fr. Sturm had a special love of animals and is remembered for the pure-bred St. Bernard dog that he brought to Ledyard. Where ever Fr. Sturm traveled, the dog occupied the front seat, while Fr. Sturm's housekeeper was delegated to the back of the car. The dog was a huge hit with children, as few farms had seen such a unique dog. Fr. Sturm later gave the dog to the Rose family. Construction continued on the new church through the summer of 1930 and was completed in September. During the depression the church debt was slowly whittled away, due in part to the efforts of Fr. Sturm.

In 1891 the family decided to go to America, disposing of everything on the little farm in preparation. On the first lap of the trip, George had a heart attack. They rushed to the home of his wife's parnets Benedikt, where he died. The young widow and her children went on, landing in the US in June 1891, and settling in Carroll, Iowa, where her uncle Franz Sturm became her guardian.

Child of CAROLINA STURM and GEORGE MEINDL is:

- i. SISTER MARY ULRICA THERESA ANASTASIA<sup>8</sup> MEINDL, b. 17 May 1883, Blackendorf, Bavaria, Germany; d. 13 Aug 1981, Dubuque, IA.

Notes for SISTER MARY ULRICA THERESA ANASTASIA MEINDL:

Theresa was one of nine children born to George Meindl and Caroline Sturm. She was especially proud of her twin sisters and twin brothers. When she was three, 1886 the family moved to Regen Bavaria. At age four she saw her first Sisters and asked her father to let her join them. Next morning he let her go with her sisters to school, six miles away, "to join the Visitation nuns." Of course, he thought she would be homesick and "only too gald to get home." But she stayed the night. The next day her sisters had orders to bring her home. At age five she started school, which she "enjoyed from the first day, although it meant a daily walk of twelve miles."

Her parents decided to go to America, disposing of everything on the little farm in preparation. On the first lap of the trip, her father George had a heart attack. They rushed to her maternal grandfather Benedikt Sturm where he died. The young widow Caroline and her children went on, landing in the US on 1891, settling in Carroll, IA. Her uncle Frank Sturm became her guardian when Theresa was eight years old. Theresa grew up with the mother of Sisters Juliana and Juliett Vogl (Grace Sturm).

On June 17, 1898, the fifteen-year-old became a postulant in the Dubuque Franciscans, where she received the habit and the name Sister Mary Ulrica on May 25, 1899. Almost immediately she was sent to teach in Dyersville, where she would stay ten years. She made her first profession August 12, 1901. She spent nine years in Sacred Heart (Dubuque), Haverhill, Oregon (Shaw and Silverton), Garnvillo. She taught four years in Earlville and twelve years in Odebolt. In 1963 sister Ulrica retired to Mount St. Francis; in 1974, to Holy Family Hall. When she died, more than eighty-three years of her life had been "with the nuns." There are no immediate survivors.

Notes for CRESZENTIA GRACE ANNA STURM:

Grace Sturm Vogl came to America with her family when she was 10 years old. She received her schooling at Willey, IA. She married Anton at 20 years of age. She resided in Halbur IA for 14 years after their retirement. She died after a short illness while living with Mr. & Mrs. Peter Soyer of Glidden, IA.

Notes for ANTON G. VOGL, SR.:

Anton Vogl, Sr. came to America at the age of 18 years with two other cousins his age. One of the cousins was George Weber who eventually married and resided in Stuart, NE. The other cousin slowly drifted away and may have gone by the name Wolfgang Vogl. After many years it was learnt that these Vogls resided in Dyersville, IA. Two of their daughters came to Dubuque and entered the Sisters of St. Francis of the Holy Family. Quite some years later two of Anton Vogl's daughters entered the same order. Here the sisters learnt that they were the only Vogls that had the "e" taken out of their name. (Note Vogel is a more common German name meaning bird).

Rev. Father Frey at Roselle, IA married Anton to Grace Sturm. They lived on a farm near Templeton, IA until February, 1913. They then moved to a farm 1½ miles south of Halbur, IA. They lived there until retiring in 1944 when they moved into the town of Halbur, IA. Anton was confined to his bed for 22 months following a stroke. He died on the couple's 50th wedding anniversary.

Notes for MAXIMILLAN ANTON STURM:

Max was only 3 years old in 1886 when the family immigrated to America. He grew up in the Roselle area where he attended catholic schools until grade 6. He went to work as a farmhand in St. Helena, NE near Yankton, SD along the Missouri river around 1904 at age 21. In this area, his brother Joe's wife a Brandl had relatives. Max and his brother John were avid baseball players, playing for several teams in the Yankton area.

In 1909 Max married Katie Riesenbergs who lived on a the neighboring farm in Roselle. After their marriage the couple moved to St. Helena, NE where they rented an 80 acre farm. During their six years in St. Helena four children were born: Mary, John, Joe, and Ed. In March 1915 Max moved his family back to St. James, where he bought a 160 acre farm for $97/acre in Rosendale township. Max's brother-in-law John Riesenbergs who moved their several years earlier may have convinced Max to move to Minnesota. On this farm their remaining children were born. The farm was split between the home 80 acres and another 80 acres located 3/4 miles east. In May of 1936 he bought a 148 acre farm in St. James township for $71/acre. His son newly married son John moved there and began farming. Max Sturm died at 1:15 pm Tuesday April 2, at the St. James Hospital following a car accident. The funeral was held Friday 9am April, 5, 1940 at St. James Catholic Church with the Rev. P.M. Sturm officiating. He attended meetings regularly and did all he could to promote better farming. Max was a good neighbor and popular among his fellow men. He was respected by his family and noted for his kindness and thoughtfulness. The funeral service was largely attended.

Notes for CATHERINE KATIE RIESENBERG:

to live on the farm until January 1941, when she moved to St. James until her passing. Mrs. Sturm was a member of the Christian Mother's Society and St. James Catholic church. He married HELEN K. SHREMPF 1913 in St. Helena, Cedar Co., NE. She was born 22 Dec 1884 in St. Helena, Cedar Co., NE, and died 04 Aug 1971 in St. Paul, Ramsey Co., MN.

Notes for JOHN STURM:

After attending rural schools in the Roselle area, John went to the St. Helena, NE area in 1911 at age 24 to work as a farmhand. Here he meet his wife, Helen Schrempp and was married. After renting farms for a couple years, it seemed more and more difficult because after World War I, farm prices skyrocketed. In search of land to buy at more moderate prices, he and his brother -in-law, Otto Schrempp set out looking for land. They first tried Denver, CO., however, there the price of land was too high. They finally settled in Eagle Butte, SD, where they bought 160 acres of virgin land for about $25/acre. John's land had a small two room house, small barn without hayloft, grainery and chicken coop. The family with seven children lived in this small house until 1930 when a new house was built for $4,000 using salvaged lumber from an old frame High School in town. Unfortunately this was the beginning of the "Dust Bowl Period". The crops in the 30's were fair, but the prices were very low. Being far from the market, the elevator paid only 4¢ for oats and threshing cost was 6¢ per bushel. During this period many wells went dry and the crops and grasses dried up. The government fearing the worst, bought up the livestock and they were shot and buried to avoid mass starvation. Cows were sold for $15 per head. In 1937 conditions improved, but many farmers were unable to continue to farm. To further depress things, Johns eldest son, Irvin died from spinal meningitis in 1939. This was the last straw. The farm, an $11,000 investment was turned back to the county, and the new house was sold for $450 and moved into Eagle Butte. In the summer of 1940, they returned to the general areas of St. Helena, NE where they buried their son Irvin. Here John worked day jobs on local farms, however his age and health made that quite difficult. In 1942 they moved to St. Paul MN, where their daughters Sylvia, and Rita worked at St. Joseph Hospital. John found a good job he like very much at Brown and Bigleow Mfg. Co., as a foreman in the tool crib. They lived near the church which was important in the family. John died at age 67 after being in a rest home for 6 months.

We worked on the farm for a couple of years until the drought hit, he joined the CCC camps in the Black Hills, SD for a year to send $25 a month home for family support. During 1935-36 he and his cousin, Lynn Schrempp went to St. James to work as farmhands for two years through connections with the Max Sturm family. Albert Sturm recalled Irvin helping John Sturm clear cottonwoods on his new farm west of St. James, remarking "He sure could swing an axe". In 1937 he and Lynn went to Clarkston, WA where the Schrempp relatives lived. After working there two years he decided to return home for a visit and became ill over Christmas and died at Pierre, SD hospital.

Notes for ALBERT JOSEPH STURM, SR.:

Albert Sturm attended Rosendale country and Catholic schools from 1925-33. He then helped his dad farm and worked on neighboring farms until 1940. Albert's first outside job was in 1937 picking corn by hand for 2¢/bushel from Thanksgiving through December. Max supplied him a team of horses and on a good day he could pick two wagons loads, about 100 bushels. He drove slowly back to the farmyard, since the wagons were measured with 1 inch equal to a bushel, and then hand shoveled the corn into the bin. Albert made $50 that fall, enough to buy his first car, a 1925 Model T.

From the spring of 1938 to the fall he was a farmhand working for $30/month with room and board on the west edge of St. James, for John Sandmeyer. It was there that he first meet Lorraine Thorson who was visiting Lucille Reiman and lived on the neighboring farm. They dated several times, mostly at dances at Dukes. Albert first met Bruce Rieman when he bought a spotlight from his 1928 Chevy in 1938. Albert's recalls asking Orville Hilgendorf, Lucille's husband, if it was okay to take Lorraine home after one dance. On another occasion, Albert was with his brother Ed and they were having such a good time they got lost and ended up in New Ulm after the dance.

He picked corn again in the fall and then worked as has a hired man for Mr. Pierson in Butterfield in winter of 1939-40. Albert returned to the family farm after Max died in 1940 with Ervin until January 14, 1942, when he was inducted into the army along with his brother Ed.

Albert took his 13 weeks of basic training at Camp Wallace Mineral Wells, TX home of the Crazy Crystals as advertised on radio. He was selected to attend 13 week military school training in Puerto Rico. Departing from Houston, Albert recalls sleeping under the Sugar Bowl before boarding the El Quoin Queen a converted cruise ship. Since many of these troops departed for North Africa they cruised for 2 weeks to dodge and confuse the German Uboats. Albert was stationed the next 13 months in Cuba. His army pay was $21/month. Asked if he ever fired a gun at a person he replied, "yes". After surgery at Gailsburg IL Hospital he was discharged at Camp Carson on September 1945.

After his discharge, Albert went corn shelling for six months. In the spring of 46 he got a job at Forester moving furniture and later laying linoleum. He married Lorraine on January 1947 at age 28. The couple lived in an upstairs apartment on the north side of St. James. The apartment cost $35/month and they had to carry their own fuel oil upstairs for heat. They once took train from St. James to Philadelphia, where Albert attended school for installing linoleum. He continued to work at Foresters until 1948 and his highest pay was $100/month.

In March 1948 Albert started farming, using a $2,500 loan received from a retired farmer, since the banks would not loan him money. They first moved to Butternut where they rented 80 acres from his father-in-law Tim Thorson. Wanting more land, they moved in February 1951 to the 240-acre McMullen (Old Maids) farm located 2 miles east of where Ed Sturm was renting from (Ole Haler). And in November 1952 they moved the 240-acre Bregel farm.

He did livestock 50-50 with Bregel for the first two years 1200 chickens with eggs at 50 cents a dozen.

In 1962 he rented the neighboring 160-acre Scharder farm with Ed Sturm. They farmed this farm together until 1966 when Albert took it over. For many years, Albert did custom corn shelling in the area employing his kids and relatives.

In November 1979 after 27 years on the Bregel farm they retired and moved into St. James. There they helped with their 39 grandchildren, helped on the farm, and were active in square dance being a past president. In the fall of 1993 Albert had two major surgeries one for stomach ulcers and another for an aneurysm.

Albert was a life long member of St. James Catholic Church, a past member of the Knights of Columbus, a member of VFW Post 1914, the Swinging Saints Square Dance Club and A.A..

Like all parents, Albert biggest regrets are not spending more time with his children. He wished he'd bragged up simple things, like when the kids brought home a carp instead of telling them to go throw it in the grove. Or he wishes when the kids brought lunch to him in the field he would have made that into a little picnic and talked more to them.

Notes for LORRAINE HELEN THORSON:

Lorraine Sturm recalls her life on the Butternut farm from 1923-41 with very hot, dry summers. The temperature stayed in the 90° to 100° for what seemed like weeks at a time. The crops were not very good, and to make matters worse it was the "Great Depression". Many people were out of work, so there were many bums. Some rode the railroad. and knocked on doors looking for a hand-out. A lot of them could be seen sitting on the park benches up town waiting for some farmer to give them a job. When it was time to shock grain or pick corn my dad always came home with one or two bums. We even had some stay all winter, for they had no place to go, and wanted only room and board.

I remember my dad saying the price of corn was 10 cents per bushel and pigs were about 5 cents a pound. Since the price of coal was high, many farmers including us used corn cobs for fuel to keep the house warm. Farmers fared the best during the depression. We always had a garden, chickens and other livestock, but no money to buy much of anything else. In the summer we always went barefoot and the time and I looked forward to it each spring. My mother always would say, "You can't go barefoot until the ground is warm enough to plant corn". My Dad was easy going who often said, "We didn't get much done today but we'll give it hell tomorrow". And to my mother who was such a hard worker he would say, "She's a good worker but not much good for companionship".

We lived three miles from school. In the winter, because of the weather and poor roads, we sometimes didn't get to school for days. Dad usually took us to school during the winter, but we walked home most of the time if it wasn't too cold. We had a long driveway, and there was no tractor with a loader only a hand scoop shovel. Sometimes we drove out through the field where the snow wasn't as deep, but even that always didn't work. I remember being bundled up in the back of a sleigh (a regular wagon with runners) as we rode into Lake Crystal for groceries and other supplies at Wegosky's General Store.

I must have been about ten years old when we purchased our first radio. That was very exciting as long as the batteries worked. We would come home from school and listen to "Jack Armstrong the All American Boy". But first we had chores to do, like bring in enough wood to last until morning or bring in the kerosene and fill the lamps so that we had light for the night. There was no electricity, TV or running water.

It was a slower, simpler time, when neighbors got together often. There were many house parties. Sometimes they would roll back the rugs and dance if someone could play an instrument for music. There were also many cards parties in those days, but only the men played cards while the women talked about recipes and their children. Lots of times they just got together just visited. Neighbors were always on hand to help out when someone needed it.

Seems like we always had extra people at our house, relatives mostly. The crops were not good up North or for Uncle Tom out in South Dakota, where they would often dry out. So, they would come looking for work around our area. As the corn was picked by hand, there were always farmers needing extra help. And they always stayed at our house. During corn picking a typical breakfast consisted of fried potatoes, salt pork, cornmeal mush, eggs, bread, and whatever else mom could find. Looking back, I wonder how my mother handled it all. Until she got an engine powered washing machine, which never seemed to start when she needed it, she washed all the clothes by hand. My uncle Gabe lived with us until he died, so there were six of us, besides all the other people we always seemed to have around.

Our school was a one room country school with one teacher for eight grades. In my grade there was just Sarah Ann Jones and me. We started first grade together and went on to high school together. That was a scary change for me to move into the big school with forty some classmates.

The general store in Butterfield was called "The Lake Shore Mercantile Co.", and it carried everything from underwear to groceries, to hardware. Gas, sugar and many other items were rationed. And anything that wasn't rationed was still hard to get. Even if you had money you couldn't buy a new car, refrigerator or many other items. If some store happened to get in some ladies nylons for instance, there would be a long line waiting for just one pair. The same was true with chocolate chips and many other items. There were people running around picking-up scrap iron as it was paying a good price, many a farmer's grove was cleaned out of old machinery during the war effort.

Lorraine attended country school (1929-37) in Butternut Township and Lake Crystal High School (1937-41). I graduated in May of 1941. Shortly after graduation, I meet your father at Dukes on Long Lake near St. James. I was spending a few days with Lucille Reiman and we went to a dance there. Only six months later, Pearl Harbor was attacked on December 7, 1941. I remember the radio was going all day long and President Roosevelt the next day declaring war on Japan and latter on Germany. Your dad left for service in the army a month later in January 1942 and we continued to correspond while Albert was in the service. In 1946 Albert came unexpectedly to the apartment for a date. As he waited downstairs an another guy showed up and asks "Where's Button Nose ?". I don't know how they got rid of this guy, but Albert made that girl his wife in January 1947.

After graduation I wanted to be a teacher but could not afford to go to college. I did housework while I completed a 6-month home study course in bookkeeping. I then went to work at Butterfield store my first job as a sales clerk for $50/month. In 1943 I worked in Mankato at Sears for $20/week as sales clerk. Soon I was promoted to accounting, since they liked her handwriting, where she continued to work until her marriage. During that time, I shared a one-bedroom apartment with my sister Max and her baby Susan and cousins Brunette and Delores Gangstee. I worked there until 1947 when I got married. It took twenty years for me get used to your dad. I came from a family of easily going people who always had time to visit. Your dad was a workaholic. I remember him sweeping cobwebs from the ceiling in the barn at 9:00 pm when I am not sure I got all the cobwebs out of the house.

Lorraine's first house was an apartment in St. James where Tom her first child was born. The doctor bill was $25 and the hospital bill was $55. Sounds cheap, but it was almost a months pay for the couple at the time. Over the next 31 years she raised 11 children while helping Albert farm in Butternut, Rosendale township, and St. James township. Steve and Sandy were born while in Butternut, Albert while on the McMillan farm, and Becky, Bruce, Brad, Mary, Dan, David, and Todd while they were on the Bregel farm. Today Lorraine has 20 living children and spouses with 39 grandchildren.

He married INEZ ZIZKA 02 Jun 1943 in St. Stanislaus Parish, St. Paul, MN, daughter of JAMES ZIZKA and LUDMILA MALECHLA. She was born 09 Dec 1917 in Veseli, MN.

Notes for SEVERINUS ROMAULD STURM:

Severinus Romauld was named after a Pope, a name chosen by his aunts. Because of his unusually name the family called him Rinus . He was born in St. Helena, NE and graduated in 1929 with his brother Irvin from a country school in the Eagle Butte SD area. After graduation he and his brother Irvin worked on the farm for two years. In the summer of 1930 they spent 2 months digging a basement for the new house, using only a pick-ax to break the rocky soil and horse drawn scraper. Dynamite was also used to loosen the shale and hard dry dirt. Rinus started high school in the fall of '31, riding a horse seven miles to school. His schools record show no absences, amazing considering he sometimes had to travel though blizzards in the flat treeless area where frequent white-outs were common. After HS graduation in '35 he started Northern University in Aberdeen, SD, receiving a degree in science, math and accounting and business. While in college, due to lack of work in Eagle Butte, he worked on farms in the St. James area where he and his brother Irvin spent many Sundays at the Max Sturm family for Sunday dinners and visiting. Two summers he worked on the Edmund Schrempp farm, at St. Helena NE, the old Joe Schrempp farm where his mother was born. In 1930-40 he taught science and math at Doland SD Sr. HS. During the summer of 1940 his started graduate work at the U of SD in Vermillion. In 1940-41 he got a job in Wynot NE., the area of his birth, where he taught science, math and business. In October 1940 he and 12 million other 18 year olds were required to register for the draft. At this time, he left teaching and moved to Cincinnati, OH where he got a job at a large accounting firm. With the thought of staying in business he took full time courses at the U of Cin. in advanced accounting and business. With the draft catching up, he took a job with the Cincinnati Ordnance District, in Chattanooga TN. While there he enlisted in the Army Air Corp. and was put on reserve for 18 months since they over recruited. While in Chattanooga he worked at a small manufacturing firm where guns and shells were made. With extended reserve time, he was encouraged by his parents to return to St. Paul. Upon return in 1942 he immediately took a job in Ordnance inspection. Since teaching salaries had improved he returned to teaching high school science in Forest Lake. There he meet his wife Inez where she was a Jr. HS instructor. After their marriage in 1943 he was called to active duty in the Air Corp. He spent 3 ½ years in the service, about two in China, Burma, and at the Headquarters in India. Upon his return in 1946, they bought a home in St. Paul which they still live in. Rinus got a job at a Cretin HS teaching biology while also taking graduate courses at the U of M. Due to uncertainty of a job in that field and not wanting to leave St. Paul he and a brother-in-law, Edward Ganje, purchased the Globe Business College in July 1948. He worked there until 1968 when they sold it to an out of state buyer. He taught a couple more years at the Rasmussen Business College and the Century Community College in White Bear Lake until 1973. Having become interested in residential apartments, he retired and managed these acquiring 6 building and 50 unit until he sold them in 1986.

In September 1942 she was accepted for a teaching position in Junior High School. Here she meet her husband and married at the end of the school year.
