Notes for JOHN LEMASTER:

We think this is the father of the John we find in Amherst County Va. in 1767.

We knew our LeMaster line moved from Md to Va. to Kentucky, and then Lancaster, according to family records journeyed from Frankfort, Ky. in a covered wagon, with his family, to Arkansas right before the Civil War. This makes us pretty sure that this is our blood line. We think this the father of John who has migrated to Amherst County Va. abt 1767 who bought land on Porridge Creel. This was the only John in the area at this date. John and his wife Ann sold their right and title of "Betty's Delight" to Abraham Hargass. recorded March 28, 1747 in Charles Co. Md.
