Thomas W. Tomlinson, who is now carrying on farming on section 5, South Macon township, was born in St. Clair County, Illinois, November 20, 1847, his parents being John B. and Elizabeth (Cotton) Tomlinson, who were married in St. Louis, Missouri. The father was a native of England and was a butcher by trade. Emigrating to America in 1833, he first located in St. Louis, where he worked at his trade until 1845 and then removed to St. Clair County, Illinois, where he purchased a farm the following year and turned his attention to agricultural pursuits. Later he sold his property there and came to Macon County, accompanied by his family. He bought a farm east of Macon, which was then all wild prairie covered with ponds and slough, and to its improvement and cultivation he devoted his energies until called to his death on the 31st of December, 1881. In early life he was a Whig and later a Republican but during Grant's administration he became a Democrat, although he was a great friend of the General. Of his twelve children, only six are now living: Mrs. Elizabeth Carroll, Miss Agnes Tomlinson, Thomas W. Tomlinson, Mrs. Rachel Bradley, Miss Mary Tomlinson, and Frank, all residents of Macon County with the exception of Mrs. Bradley, who makes her home in Alabama.

Thomas W. Tomlinson received his education in a log school house which stood on the boundary line between St. Clair and Monroe counties, the boys, who sat on one side of the room being in Monroe county, and the girls on the other side in St. Clair county. He remained under the parental roof until twenty-three years of age and in 1874 went to California, where he engaged in farming for two years. He then returned east to visit the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia and did not go back to the Pacific coast for some time but came to Macon county, Illinois where he was married May 12, 1878, to Miss Ellen Bradley, a daughter of William and Mary Bradley.

After his marriage, Mr. Tomlinson went to Washington Territory, where he remained three years, and at the end of that time returned to Macon county on account of the illness of his father and staid with him until his death. A year later our subject removed to Nebraska, where he spent three years, and from there went to Kansas, but during the drouth of 1893 and 1894, he moved back to Illinois and then went to Texas, living for two years in Houston. He still owns his farm of four hundred and eighty acres in Kansas. In the fall of 1896 we again find him in Macon county, where he bought his present farm of ninety acres on section 5, South Macon township, and has since engaged in its operation. The place is supplied with modern machinery and the fences and buildings are in good repair, in fact everything about the farm presents a neat and thrifty appearance. In connection with general farming Mr. Tomlinson is engaged in dairying to some extent. Politically he is identified with the Democratic party, and religiously he and his family are communicants of the Catholic church.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson were born the following children: Mary, who was born in Walla Walla, Washington, and is now the wife of William Riley, a farmer of South Macon township; Rachel, who was born in Illinois and is now living with her aunt, Mrs. John Bradley in Huntsville, Alabama; John B., who was born in Illinois and is now nineteen years of age; Agnes, who was born in Nebraska, and is now seventeen; Ella, who was born in Kansas and is fourteen years old; Frank, who was born in Kansas and is eleven years of age; and Thomas, who was born in Illinois and is seven years old. With the exception of the two oldest all are at home with their parents and the family is one of prominence in the community where they reside.
