"Death of an Old Resident

Mrs. Margaret Kellogg, widow of Charles Kellogg, died at Hobart last Saturday morning. Some seven weeks ago she received a severe fall, causing the injuries resulting in her death. She was eighty-six years of age. She had resided in Hobart three years with her daughter, Mrs. Augustus Wood. Mrs. Kellogg was twice married. Her first husband was Mr. Brown, of Cincinnati, by whom she leaves two children: Mr. James Brown, of Valparaiso, and Mrs. Jessie Wood, of Hobart. Her second husband was Mr. Charles Kellogg, with whom she came to Michigan City. She leaves two children by this marriage: Mrs. Sarah Brown and Henry Kellogg, of Hobart. Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg resided here many years and were among the early settlers, their home being for several years the house at the corner of Pine and Michigan streets, later at the country home now owned by E.A. Boyer. Mrs. Kellogg was a woman greatly beloved by all - a faithful wife, a devoted mother, a true christian, and many hearts in the city will be saddened by news of her death. Her life has been a beautiful example of the life of a good woman.

The funeral of Mrs. Kellogg will be held at the home of Augustus Wood in Hobart this afternoon and the remains will be brought to this city on Tuesday morning at 8:43 o'clock; then taken directly to Greenwood cemetery and buried beside her husband, Mr. Charles Kellogg, who died here many hears ago.

Samuel Bullock, a relative of the deceased, is in the city to-day, making funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Kellogg had a number of distant relatives in this city.

Friends who desire may join the funeral party at the depot and accompany the remains to the cemetery."

Obituary of Nancy Wilson

Wilson, Nancy June 17, 1912

Miss Nancy Cotton was born August 1, 1828, and died at her home near Mt. Vernon, Illinois, June 17, 1912, age 84 years, 10 months and 17 days. She had one brother, William, and two sisters, Elizabeth and Katherine, who with her father and mother, have preceded her to the better land.

She was converted some 45 years ago at Cincinnati, Ohio in a Methodist meeting. She became a member of Hopewell M.E. Church, Feb 1st, 1887 under the pastorate of Wm. Browder.

She was married to John Wilson Sept. 10, 1867, who still survives.

She leaves to mourn her departure an aged companion, who through her years of affliction was faithful, kind, and true; one only daughter who was devoted to her mother's needs; and an orphan daughter, who was to her as her own child, ready to respond to her mother's call; also two cousins, Mrs. Fern Moffett and Miss Hallie Brown, of Cincinnati, Ohio, with other relatives and friends. Bless be the tie that binds.

Child of NANCY COTTAM and JOHN WILSON is:

THOMAS W. TOMLINSON

Thomas W. Tomlinson, who is now carrying on farming on section 5, South Macon township, was born in St. Clair County, Illinois, November 20, 1847, his parents being John B. and Elizabeth (Cotton) Tomlinson, who were married in St. Louis, Missouri. The father was a native of England and was a butcher by trade. Emigrating to America in 1833, he first located in St. Louis, where he worked at his trade until 1845 and then removed to St. Clair County, Illinois, where he purchased a farm the following year and turned his attention to agricultural pursuits. Later he sold his property there and came to Macon County, accompanied by his family. He bought a farm east of Macon, which was then all wild prairie covered with ponds and slough, and to its improvement and cultivation he devoted his energies until called to his death on the 31st of December, 1881. In early life he was a Whig and later a Republican but during Grant's administration he became a Democrat, although he was a great friend of the General. Of his twelve children, only six are now living: Mrs. Elizabeth Carroll, Miss Agnes Tomlinson, Thomas W. Tomlinson, Mrs. Rachel Bradley, Miss Mary Tomlinson, and Frank, all residents of Macon County with the exception of Mrs. Bradley, who makes her home in Alabama.

Thomas W. Tomlinson received his education in a log school house which stood on the boundary line between St. Clair and Monroe counties, the boys, who sat on one side of the room being in Monroe county, and the girls on the other side in St. Clair county. He remained under the parental roof until twenty-three years of age and in 1874 went to California, where he engaged in farming for two years. He then returned east to visit the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia and did not go back to the Pacific coast for some time but came to Macon county, Illinois where he was married May 12, 1878, to Miss Ellen Bradley, a daughter of William and Mary Bradley.

After his marriage, Mr. Tomlinson went to Washington Territory, where he remained three years, and at the end of that time returned to Macon county on account of the illness of his father and staid with him until his death. A year later our subject removed to Nebraska, where he spent three years, and from there went to Kansas, but during the drouth of 1893 and 1894, he moved back to Illinois and then went to Texas, living for two years in Houston. He still owns his farm of four hundred and eighty acres in Kansas. In the fall of 1896 we again find him in Macon county, where he bought his present farm of ninety acres on section 5, South Macon township, and has since engaged in its operation. The place is supplied with modern machinery and the fences and buildings are in good repair, in fact everything about the farm presents a neat and thrifty appearance. In connection with general farming Mr. Tomlinson is engaged in dairying to some extent. Politically he is identified with the Democratic party, and religiously he and his family are communicants of the Catholic church.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson were born the following children: Mary, who was born in Walla Walla, Washington, and is now the wife of William Riley, a farmer of South Macon township; Rachel, who was born in Illinois and is now living with her aunt, Mrs. John Bradley in Huntsville, Alabama; John B., who was born in Illinois and is now nineteen years of age; Agnes, who was born in Nebraska, and is now seventeen; Ella, who was born in Kansas and is fourteen years old; Frank, who was born in Kansas and is eleven years of age; and Thomas, who was born in Illinois and is seven years old. With the exception of the two oldest all are at home with their parents and the family is one of prominence in the community where they reside.
