- ix. MARY BRADLEY, b. March 03, 1820, Preston parish, Lancashire, England.
- x. WILLIAM BRADLEY, b. April 21, 1822, Preston parish, Lancashire, England.

3. JOHN² BRADLEY (*EDWARD*¹) was born Abt. 1782 in Hothersall, Ribchester parish, Lancashire, England, and died Abt. 1832 in Preston parish, Lancashire, England. He married ELLEN HODGSON January 09, 1815 in St. Wilfrid's Roman Catholic Church, Preston, Lancashire, daughter of JAMES HODGSON? and JANE PARK?. She was born July 22, 1793 in Preston parish, Lancashire, England, and died Abt. 1836 in Preston parish, Lancashire, England.

Notes for JOHN BRADLEY:

A John Bradley of "Trailes" [sic. Treales] is listed in the burial register of St. Wilfrid's (Preston) on February 22, 1835, age 54. It is possible that this is the same John Bradley. The baptisms of John Bradley and Ellen Hodgson's children occur in Preston at St. Wilfrid's from 1816 to 1827. Beginning in 1829 their children were baptized at St. Mary's in Lea, Lancashire. Apparently the family must have relocated between 1827 and 1829. Possibly this is when John's mother Elizabeth Hesmondhalgh Bradley died. If the family did relocate to the Treales area, it would make sense that they attended Mass in Lea, as this is where John's brother William was also residing.

Notes for ELLEN HODGSON:

An Ellen Hodgson is listed in the St. Wilfrid's Catholic church (Preston) baptismal registers as follows: "July 22, 1793 Helen Hodgson dau of James & Jane. Sponsors: Robert Towers & Helen Park." According to the "Census of the Catholic Congregation of Preston 1810 and 1820" by Reverend Joseph Dunn, Ellen Bradley was twenty-seven years old in 1820. This would fit with the above baptismal entry. However, she is not listed in the household of James and Jane Hodgson in the 1810 census, when she would have been seventeen years old, although she could have been residing elsewhere. The alternative is the Ellen Hodgson who was baptized in 1793 died by 1810 and was not the wife of John Bradley.

A James Hodgson and Jane Park were married at St. John's, Preston on September 10, 1792.

Children of JOHN BRADLEY and ELLEN HODGSON are:

- i. ELIZABETH³ BRADLEY, b. January 14, 1816, Ashton, Preston parish, Lancashire, England.

Notes for ELIZABETH BRADLEY:

Baptized January 14, 1816 at St Wilfrid's Roman Catholic Church, Preston, Lancashire: "Elizabeth Bradley dau of John & Ellen Sponsors: Robert Bradley & Frances Bradley"

- ii. EDWARD BRADLEY, b. August 30, 1818, Ashton, Preston parish, Lancashire, England.

Notes for EDWARD BRADLEY:

William Bradley, who owns and operates two hundred acres of land on section 22, South Macon Township, is one of the honored pioneers of the county, and has witnessed its growth from the days of its early infancy. He is of English birth, his parents, John and Ellen (Ogen [sic.]) Bradley, being also natives of England. The father followed farming in that country, and there spent his life up to the age of fifty-one. His wife passed away when forth-three years of age. In their family were nine children, but six of the number are now deceased. John, twin brother of our subject, is now a retired farmer living in Auburn, Neb.; and Mary is the wife of Joseph Sandon [sic.], a carpenter residing in Macon.

William Bradley was born in Lancashire, December 8, 1822, and in order of birth was the third of the family. The first fourteen years of his life he spent upon a farm. His father died when he was eight years of age, and he then went to live with a farmer in the neighborhood, with whom he remained for some time. When a youth of fourteen, he began serving a seven-years apprenticeship at the wheelwright's trade, which he followed for four years after his term expired, at the docks in Liverpool. Determining to seek a home and fortune in the new world, Mr. Bradley made preparations to leave England, and in 1848 bade adieu to the land of his birth.

In 1843 [sic.], our subject had been united in marriage with Miss Mary Sachary [sic.], of Cheshire, England, who with her child accompanied her husband across the Atlantic. Making their way Westward, they located in Monroe County, Illinois, where our subject worked at his trade and engaged in farming until 1859. That year witnessed his arrival in Macon County. Here he purchased forty acres of wild land from the railroad, a wet and unimproved tract, seemingly hardly fit for cultivation, but by draining and improving he has made this one of the fine farms of the township, and now two hundred acres of rich land yield to him a golden tribute. The family circle has been increased by the birth of two children. John, the eldest, is a prosperous farmer of this county; William operates the home farm; and Ellen is the wife of Thomas W. Tomlinson, a farmer of Sherman County, Kansas.

Mr. Bradley and his family are faithful members of the Catholic Church. He exercises his right of franchise in support of the Democratic party and is a staunch advocate of its principles, but has never been an aspirant for office. He has probably resided in South Macon Township longer than any of its citizens, and has been prominently identified with its advancement and upbuilding. His love of progress has made him deeply interested in its welfare, and in all possible ways he has aided in the promotion of its best interests.

Notes for MARY ZACHARY:

Baptized at All Saints Church in Gresford, Wales. She may have actually been born in Cheshire (in or near Chester). As of the date of her marriage on August 16, 1847, Mary Zachary was residing in Whittle-le-Woods, Lancashire.

THOMAS W. TOMLINSON

Thomas W. Tomlinson, who is now carrying on farming on section 5, South Macon township, was born in St. Clair County, Illinois, November 20, 1847, his parents being John B. and Elizabeth (Cotton) Tomlinson, who were married in St. Louis, Missouri. The father was a native of England and was a butcher by trade. Emigrating to America in 1833, he first located in St. Louis, where he worked at his trade until 1845 and then removed to St. Clair County, Illinois, where he purchased a farm the following year and turned his attention to agricultural pursuits. Later he sold his property there and came to Macon County, accompanied by his family. He bought a farm east of Macon, which was then all wild prairie covered with ponds and slough, and to its improvement and cultivation he devoted his energies until called to his death on the 31st of December, 1881. In early life he was a Whig and later a Republican but during Grant's administration he became a Democrat, although he was a great friend of the General. Of his twelve children, only six are now living: Mrs. Elizabeth Carroll, Miss Agnes Tomlinson, Thomas W. Tomlinson, Mrs. Rachel Bradley, Miss Mary Tomlinson, and Frank, all residents of Macon County with the exception of Mrs. Bradley, who makes her home in Alabama.

Thomas W. Tomlinson received his education in a log school house which stood on the boundary line between St. Clair and Monroe counties, the boys, who sat on one side of the room being in Monroe county, and the girls on the other side in St. Clair county. He remained under the parental roof until twenty-three years of age and in 1874 went to California, where he engaged in farming for two years. He then returned east to visit the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia and did not go back to the Pacific coast for some time but came to Macon county, Illinois where he was married May 12, 1878, to Miss Ellen Bradley, a daughter of William and Mary Bradley.

After his marriage, Mr. Tomlinson went to Washington Territory, where he remained three years, and at the end of that time returned to Macon county on account of the illness of his father and staid with him until his death. A year later our subject removed to Nebraska, where he spent three years, and from there went to Kansas, but during the drouth of 1893 and 1894, he moved back to Illinois and then went to Texas, living for two years in Houston. He still owns his farm of four hundred and eighty acres in Kansas. In the fall of 1896 we again find him in Macon county, where he bought his present farm of ninety acres on section 5, South Macon township, and has since engaged in its operation. The place is supplied with modern machinery and the fences and buildings are in good repair, in fact everything about the farm presents a neat and thrifty appearance. In connection with general farming Mr. Tomlinson is engaged in dairying to some extent. Politically he is identified with the Democratic party, and religiously he and his family are communicants of the Catholic church.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson were born the following children: Mary, who was born in Walla Walla, Washington, and is now the wife of William Riley, a farmer of South Macon township; Rachel, who was born in Illinois and is now living with her aunt, Mrs. John Bradley in Huntsville, Alabama; John B., who was born in Illinois and is now nineteen years of age; Agnes, who was born in Nebraska, and is now seventeen; Ella, who was born in Kansas and is fourteen years old; Frank, who was born in Kansas and is eleven years of age; and Thomas, who was born in Illinois and is seven years old. With the exception of the two oldest all are at home with their parents and the family is one of prominence in the community where they reside.
