Notes for GUS WIRT BOYNTON:

Gus Wirt Boynton was the oldest known child of Gaines Moses Boynton. He was born in Texas in December 1869, presumably around Shelby County, although this is uncertain. Gus Wirt married Minnie Asa Braddock on December 8, 1889. They had six children altogether. Their youngest child was Elbert Wirt Boynton of this lineage.

Gus and Minnie relocated to Newton County, Texas sometime prior to 1910. However, they lived at other times in Beaumont and Austin. My uncle, Sherrill Elbert Boynton, knew Gus Wirt and provided much of the information I know about him. He stated that Gus Wirt was very intelligent, although he had only a 2nd grade education. He was quite a student of history and of the Bible. He apparently liked to write fiction, and he reportedly had several of his studies published in the Saturday Evening Post. They paid him with free subscriptions. Gus Wirt reportedly traveled with his physician father. His father would send him on horseback to get needed medical supplies. Once Indians chased him, but he obviously got away. Gus Wirt was a millwright by trade. He apparently built sawmills throughout east and central Texas. Their children were raised in various mill towns. Sherrill reported that Gus Wirt was a happy man, but "stubborn as a mule at times". Once he told Sherrill to spell Maddog backwards. Sherrill did. Sherrill states that his grandmother Minnie heard it and vowed to "kill Gus on the spot" if he ever did that again.

Notes for DONALD EVERETT TRAHAN:

Donald Everett Trahan was born September 8, 1951 in Beaumont, TX, the oldest son of Wilson Everett Trahan and Peggy Ruthe Boynton. He started to school at Louie M. Fehl Elementary in 1958, the year after Fehl opened. his father, Wilson, was principal at Fehl for the first seven years, including the six years Donald was at Fehl. Donald then attended MacArthur Jr. High School in grades 7-9 before enrolling at South Park High School, where he later graduated in 1970. He was Salutatorian of his class. Throughout most of grades 5-10, Donald was active in football, track, and baseball. He enjoyed participating in speech competition, especially debate and extemporaneous speaking. He won several district competitions in these events, in addition to winning a number of other tournaments. After graduation from high school, Donald attended Lamar University, where he graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology in 1974. While at Lamar, he met the "girl of his dreams", Shirley Lyons, who was from Sour Lake, a small town about 15 miles from Beaumont. As of this writing, they have been happily married and very much in love for 30 years. Shirley and Donald graduated from Lamar in May 1974. They married a month later on June 29, 1974 at the Methodist Church in Sour Lake. They lived in Beaumont for 2 months before moving to Denton, TX, where Donald enrolled at North Texas State University. He later obtained both his Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy degrees in Psychology. Shirley worked as an administrative assistant at NTSU during that time. In 1978, Donald enlisted in the Air Force to pursue his residency training in psychology. He and Shirley moved to Wright-Patterson AFB near Dayton, Ohio, where they spent the next year. During that time, their oldest daughter, Kimberly Michelle Trahan, was born on February 6, 1979 - her grandfather's (Wilson Everett) birthday. In August 1979, the Air Force transferred Donald and family to Keesler AFB in Biloxi, MS. They spent the next three years there, with Donald working as a clinical psychologist. During this time, their youngest daughter, Amy Melissa Trahan, was born on October 5, 1981. In August 1982, the Trahans were transferred to Galveston by the Air Force. There Donald completed a post-doctoral fellowship in neuropsychology. In 1983, they were transferred to San Antonio (Lackland AFB). Donald was Chief of Neuropsychology Services at Wilford Hall USAF Medical Center. In August 1985, the Air Force transferred them once again to Sheppard AFB in Wichita Falls, TX. Donald and Shirley decided during this year that it would be in the family's best interest to leave the military service, a decision made with some ambivalence. They liked the military lifestyle, except for the frequent moves. On July 4, 1986, they left to move back to Beaumont, TX.

Donald set up a private practice in Neuropsychology and Shirley worked as his office manager and technician. Kimberly and Amy were able to get to know their grandparents better, as well as cousins they had had limited contact with while the family lived the service life. Kimberly later enrolled at Texas A & M University, obtaining Bachelors and Masters Degrees in Accounting. She married Matthew Ege on May 18, 2002. As of this writing (2/13/2004), they are living in Humble, TX. Kim teaches math in junior high school and Matt works for PWC in Management Information Systems. Amy is engaged to Tray St. Clair. She is a senior Business major at Lamar University. In June 2004, Donald and Shirley will celebrate their 30th anniversary (he says with "the girl of my dreams") We consider ourselves to be very lucky, and we give thanks for the many blessings we have received in our lifetime. The greatest gifts have been our family and friends.
