Record of E-mails between Jacky McGorum & Step Brother! Keith Upward

From: mup30636@bigpond.net.au To: jridley@alumni.uwo.ca Subject: Bill McGorum Date: Mon, 14 Apr 2008 20:15:44 +1000 Hi Jack, I don't know if this email address is still valid. If so I may be able to help with information on your Father, Bill McGorum If it is the same one, then he was my Step Father who Married my Mother, Margaret Marsh in 1956. I know his 1st Wife died around 1957 and that there was a child, possibly you! who would have been about your age. Bill died in 1978 I know he had a few relatives in Portsmouth. He also Fathered my half Sister, Dania. I can give you more info, but it is a bit sensitive at this stage. Regards Keith Upward, Queensland, Australia

Wow how great to hear from you! BTW it's Jacky [Jacqueline] not Jack ;o) I don't know anything about Billy McGorum except that he was - I think - a Scot, and he and my mother [Irene May Newell] were divorced around about the time I was 3 or so. I have a vague memory of seeing him around that time but can't really remember what he looked like. If you have any pictures you would be willing to share or any information I would be just delighted. Frankly I'm not sure if I was his daughter or not - that may have been why they divorced but I really don't know. I assume it was the case because he never contacted me afterwards but I would dearly love to know - it's been the 'missing link' throughout my life so to speak. Mum died when I was about 13 and from then on I was bounced around the family between the uncles and aunts until I was old enough to move out [age 16] and fend for myself. I would certainly love to know something about him because I have been trying to compile a family history and have been utterly stuck when it comes to his side. I've asked the surviving relatives many times but no-one seems to know anything about him [all of them still in Portsmouth]. You say things are a bit sensitive and I have no wish to intrude on his family but I would be thrilled just to get some information about him. Where he was born - who his parents were - what he did for a living - all of that stuff ;o) If you're in Australia that may provide some answers as to why I haven't been able to find him I would think. Anyway it's just wonderful to hear from you and I really hope you will keep in touch and answer some of my questions. Can't wait to hear from you again - cheers - Jacky

Hi Jacky, Sorry about the name mistake, I did realize after I'd pressed the send button. Well! This is a turn up for the books. I won't relate all the bitterness that I was aware of, as I've come to realize that there are always two sides to a story and I of course I only ever heard the one. My Mother picked Bill up out of the gutter in 1947, I was 7 and my Brother 5, we lost our Dad in 1944, he died in India. Bill was in lodgings in Hove, he lived on soup and fish, cooked in milk, due to his stomach ulcer, plus he drank heavily. Mum took him in as a lodger and nursed him back to health, we called him Uncle "Mac". That same year, Mum had booked a holiday at Warner's Holiday Camp, Isle of Wight, for the 3 of us plus Mum's Sister, Auntie Rose. Auntie Rose died suddenly a couple of months before we went and so Uncle Mac took her place. I remember we had a wonderful time. Uncle Mac lived as our lodger for the next 9 years, he had his own room and for the sake of the times, kept up the appearances of the Widow and Lodger relationship. He was well liked at work and socially and he was good to us and would have given the shirt of his back but drink used to get the better of him and there were many rows between him and Mum, usually over me, especially as I approached my teens. He must have had an ultra moral upbringing as he tried to curtail my normal teenage urges, whereas Mum was more broadminded. When he collapsed every Christmas after his Christmas day drinking binge, I often hoped he would die! I know that sounds wicked but it's true. My Brother Hugh missed most of the turmoil as he left home aged 11 to join the Barnardo Sea Training School, Poole Dorset. In 1956 Mum and Mac were married. To their credit, they discussed it with me first. I said that I didn't mind but don't expect for me to call him Dad. They had a child, Denise, in 1957 but she died after a few hours. My Sister Dania was born in 1958. Things went well for the next few years, Mac laid off of the drink and settled down as a typical family man. I got married in December 1959 before migrating to Australia in April 1960. We moved back to the UK in 1962 and stayed for four & a half years. In that time, Mac & I got on like a house on fire and he was really pleasant to be with, he idolised his 3 Grand Children. We moved back to Australia in 1967 and in 1976, I brought Mum & Mac out for a holiday. In 1978 he died in Hove hospital of stomach cancer, I loved that Man when he died. All I knew of You and your Mum, was when a solicitor's letter came re the divorce which seemed to be a long drawn out, bitter affair. He never claimed you as his Daughter and from what I can make out, you were the result of an affair with a Canadian soldier stationed in Portsmouth during the War. This is the sensitive information that I mentioned before and I only mention it now because of your own doubts. I have been trying to find out about his War service as he would never talk about that! I believe he was in the Army and I know he had bullet wounds in his legs. He had been a very proud Royal Navy man before the war and was a navy boxing champion. I think he was cashiered from the Navy for "jobbing" an officer, for which he served about 6 months in Gaol. I am also building my family history and Mac is included. Yes he was born in Scotland and I have traced his family back to 1760. I would dearly love to include you and your family in the family tree! It's passed midnight here and I'm getting a bit weary so I'll close now. I've attached a photo of Bill McGorum and my Brother Hugh (c.1954) who is retired from the Navy and lives in Portsmouth. My sister Dania (your half sister) lives in Lowestoft. I'm so glad to have made contact with you, maybe between us we can lay a few ghosts. Regards Keith ----- *<mailto:upward1@bigpond.com> Subject: RE: Bill McGorum Hullo again Keith and thanks so much for all the info. Don't worry by the way about hurting my feelings or raising any sensitive issues - it's all a very long time ago ;o) I did hear the Canadian soldier story - although in one family tale he was a Canadian flyer - in another he was in the army. His name was Tom Scholls or some variation of that spelling. He might have been my father but then so might Billy - it depends of course whether they were still married or separated in 1943 so I suppose I'll never know for sure. I've tried to trace Tom but again know nothing about him except for the fact that he must have been in Aldershot for some time because that's where my mother was during the war driving ambulances or so she said - and that's where I was born in January 1944. After the war he left and I certainly never heard from him again, so in effect I lost two dads. I did have a step-father later on who I heartily disliked just like you did - he took off with the insurance money the day after my mother died [also of cancer] and I never saw him again either. I obviously have very bad luck when it comes to fathers ;o) My cousin Peggy told me that Billy was always something of a drinker, I'm glad to hear that he got it in control in the end. Mum never mentioned him to me but then that was in the days when parents really didn't discuss anything with their kids and as I said she died in 1957 when I was just 13 so I never had the chance. You say there was bitterness - tell me about it - I want to hear (I'm starved for any news of him - or her - at all - good OR bad - and I can't remember all that much about my mother so it might fill in some gaps there too. And as I said - don't worry about treading on my toes or upsetting me - I'm pretty broad-minded. And anyway - it's all water under the bridge.*

Also I didn't know my mother very well. She spoiled me and sent me to private school but she never spent much time with me). I now live in Canada and have been here since 1966. I have 4 kids · David, Elizabeth, Peter and Matthew - and a gang of grandchildren. I have been married more than once but this last one seems to have stuck - ha. When I lived in Portsmouth I was a laboratory assistant at Portsmouth Tech [now Portsmouth University] in the Pharmacy department. When I arrived in Canada my college diploma was no good so I worked in a variety of jobs from sales to hospital lab work. When my ex-husband took off I went back to school and took several university degrees. Now I am self-employed as a research librarian with one major client - a Canadian singer - Loreena McKennitt. There were no other kids on my side - no brothers and sisters I mean - although my uncle did adopt me when I was 14. That didn't last too long and as I said I lived by myself from the time I was 16. The sisters and brothers on my mother's side are all dead now - I just have my first cousin Peggy and her husband left. I have traced the Newell side of the family back as far as about 1800 or so but have met up with a few brick walls. Most of them it seems lived in either Lodsworth or Easebourne - two villages near Guildford? There were also connections in Brighton and on the Isle of Wight. The Portsmouth Newells were also attached to the navy - in fact it's a family tradition - that and cab driving. Grandfather Henry Newell drove a coach with horses so I believe. His father Stephen was in the Merchant navy and on his wife's side - Mary Boxall - her father was a sea captain I think. Anyway anything you can share will be just wonderful - I really look forward to hearing from you again. And thanks for the photo - it's like the past just walked in the door ;o) Cheers - Jacky Date: Tue, 15 Apr 2008 00:25:24 +1000 From: upward1@bigpond.com To: jackyridley@hotmail.com Subject: RE: Bill McGorum

Hi again Jacky, Thanks for your interesting reply, I will file it for my family history book. I was a bit tired and weary last night which meant that I left out a few answers to your questions, mainly what Bill did for a living. His only skill was driving and that's what he did for a living, none of them very well paid. He was a Bus driver for Southdown and Brighton & Hove District Bus Companies, A truck driver, (sorry Lorry driver!), A Coach Driver for various companies, I remember him spruiking on Brighton Sea Front for "mystery tours" of Sussex. He probably knew more about the history of Sussex than any native. When he married Mum, he'd got a prestigious job as a Chauffeur, driving a Rolls Royce for which apparently, he had to be especially accredited. His last few years of his working life, he spent at a local service station (Garage) pumping petrol. He used to love to entertain when he was full of ink! He would sing Danny Boy to anyone who cared to listen and he played the mouth organ, I've still got his old harmonicas. While on the Southdown Buses, he got involved with an entertainment group and a guy named George Blake, the Father of Josephine Blake who became the Wife of Dick Emery. I remember at about 9 years of age, at a Kid's Christmas party, Josephine & I got shoved spontaneously into a talent contest. I sang Rudolph the red nose reindeer and I was terrible, (stage fright!) never the less I won, it was of course fixed. Mac tore strips off of me because I had let him down as he'd told everybody how talented I was. This of course led to another row with Mum who always stuck up for me. This was in the days when he was drinking heavily and he was trying to impress his "show biz" mate. This experience unfortunately affected me such, that I made sure I never got on stage again as I never got over my stage fright. However my eldest Son Robert lives my dream as a professional entertainer in Melbourne. If you Google Robert Upward, it will lead you to his web site. Next time, and it looks like turning into a "Soap Opera"! I will tell you a bit more about my family. I fully understand and empathise with your need for closure on your Father. I went through a grievance period for my Father 50 years after his death and a couple of years ago my Brother and I linked up for a War Grave Pilgrimage to NE India and we both shed tears over his grave 62 years after his death, my Brother wasn't even born when our Dad went overseas. At the moment my Wife Mary is going through a similar trauma, wanting to know the whereabouts of her Father. He left his wife and 4 young children in the late 1940s and has never made contact since. Mary needs closure and an understanding of why? So, after I've chased all avenues on the Internet we've now got the Salvation Army on to it. Anyway! I'm rambling again. I've attached the ancestry tree of my Sister Dania for your interest and I will send more photos later. I haven't contact Dania yet about our contact, I don't know quite how she will take it yet. Being a lot younger, she knows less than what I do. We are pretty close but since we lost our Mother a couple of years ago, she seems to have pulled the shutters down on the rest of the family. She has some early photos(1947) of Mac that she is supposed to send me but I've been asking and waiting for about 18 months now with no response. Please send me a couple of photos of yourself and family, sometime. Cheers for now Keith -----Original Message-----

Oh just saw this letter Keith. I replied to the other one this morning. Funny how Billy was a driver - all my family on the Newell side were drivers of one sort or another too. That's if they weren't in the navy that is. My Uncle Bernard was a commando [or so he used to say and who knows but he did have a very large and vicious looking diving knife to prove it - ha] and later used to run the hovercraft ferries out of Portsmouth. Mum didn't sing but she did play the piano. I can relate to your story of the stage-fright. Mum was also the highly critical type and she would rag on me too if I didn't perform to her expectations. I remember being told off severely for not putting my 'all' into being a sunflower in the annual kindergarten kids concert! haha. Quite put me off sunflowers for life ;o) I'll look for your son Robert - that's wonderful. Yes I think when we get to a 'certain age' there are lots of things that we need closure on. I have spent my life wondering where on earth I came from and why no-one wanted to 'claim me'. After all, Billy left and Tom left - and even my mum left when I was 13. I remember being very angry about that. I know exactly how your wife feels - there are all these unanswered questions. It's very sad really even though it was all such a long time ago. I think you would just like to sit down and have a chat one day and just ask 'why' - that's all. I hope that Dania will want to say hullo [the family history is fascinating by the way] - as I said it's all water under the bridge and I look at it as a deeply interesting part of family history. What our parents did way back when doesn't mean that we are anything but regular people ourselves. I'm actually pretty nice if I do say so myself ;o) I try to be a good person and treat people well - love kids and animals etc. I would love to 'meet' her. After all she could be my sister - who knows ;o) Pity they didn't have DNA tests back then - ha. Cheers - Jacky

Hi Jacky, This is all bringing a tear to my eye, I'm a little over whelmed! I e-mailed my Sister last night and have received a reply already. She tells me she has e-mailed you but it will be on your hotmail address. Is that still valid? If not and you don't receive it, I'll let her know. She appears to be as chuffed as I am. I am happy to inform you, that you are now officially part of my World Wide Internet Family and as for our relationship! I would love to adopt you as my Sister. Dania has already claimed you in order to support her in exercising control over myself and Brother Hugh. I will tell you more about my family later and send you some photos. I have to go and paint the verandah now and then I'm off to do my part time job as a Soccer Coach, I coach at the Local Sunshine Coast Schools. I seem to work harder now I've retired, than I did when I was in the work force! Cheers for now Keith X

Hi Jacky, See attached- just created your ancestor file. Keith X -----Original Message----- From: Jacky Ridley <mailto:jackyridley@hotmail.com> Date: 16/04/2008 08:03:20 AM To: Keith Upward <mailto:upward1@bigpond.com> Subject: RE: Bill McGorum Hi again Keith - I got the letter from Dee and replied already - it was wonderful to hear from her! I'm just as overwhelmed as you are - as I said before - it's like the past just walked right in the door ;o) I have several email addresses so I'll give you all of them: jackyridley@hotmail.com, jacky.ridley@rogers.com, jridley@uwo.ca. Phone - 1-519-913-2248 Right now it's supper time and Gary just got home from work so I have to go cook - but I will write a longer letter tomorrow. I hope you got my message about the photos? I would be delighted to be part of the Australian family - always wanted a brother - and a sister ;o) cheers -

Jacky

To: Keith Upward <mailto:upward1@bigpond.com> Subject: RE: Bill McGorum Thanks Keith that's so very interesting. So the McGorum's were originally from Ireland? And I note that your family side is all from around the same area as the Newells - south of England, Sussex and Hampshire mainly. I wonder just how far back they go in the region? I know that I was able to trace my husband's line all the way back to 1066 when they came over with the Norman's. Of course it helped immeasurably that there was an old book all about the Ridleys that gave a complete history. His branch came from Northumberland up near the Scottish border then his ggggrandfather took off for Canada in 1853. They settled around London Ontario here but later spread out to North Dakota and other parts of the States - there may also be a branch in Australia - small world. I love family history and have dabbled in it for years - I even employed a professional genealogy service at one time but of course that got a bit too expensive after a while especially since they charged in pounds and Canadian dollars are only worth half - so to me it was as if they charged double - sigh. But it's all fascinating and makes you feel part of history. I looked at Robert's website - wow - he's a very accomplished musician and designer. I downloaded some of his music. I work for a musician myself, not that I'm musical in any way shape or form although I was in the chorus - at the back - in HMS Pinafore once. The singer I work for is Loreena McKennitt - www.quinlanroad.com - she's a 'Celtic' type singer and has sold something like 14 million albums worldwide. She also travels widely - right now she's in Kazakhstan. I do her research for her since she has an interest in everything, from medical info to legal casework to environmental issues to organic farming. I got entirely fed up with working 9-5 for a living so now I sit here in my little office surfing the Net and getting paid for it. I'm a bit of a blogger and I also write reviews for the Blogger's News Network. You can see some of my ramblings here: <http://thysbe.blog.co.uk/> although I haven't added much for a month or so. Now however I have a whole new topic to go on about ;o) Well I've had my tea and read my mail - the cat [one of them - we have a houseful of pets from dogs to turtles] is flumped on my lap and it looks like rain outside so I know it's time to get to work. This morning I'm looking at drug interactions and must wade through mountains of medical reports - so talk later. I wonder how far ahead of us you are in time? 12 hours perhaps? Not sure. I was talking to my cousin Peg last night [she's still in Portsmouth] and she says to say hullo! She met Billy several times when she was a kid and remembers him quite well. She doesn't think they were married all that long and she also doesn't think there's much chance he was 'dad' - too bad - but I'm glad I found you all anyway. When you get back online you must tell me all about Australia and your life there. It's a part of the world I always wanted to see - and New Zealand of course after seeing 'Lord of the Rings' - ha.

Please send as many pics as you can - when you can - so I can upload them for the rest of the family to see. Cousin Bobby has been collecting info for a family history for years by the way and he has quite a lot of info re: the Newell side which you might like to attach to the McGorum files , just for completeness - if so just let me know. Cheers - Jacky

Ok Keith and thanks once again - some time today once I've finished all my daily reports I'll try to upload the 'McGorum/Upward' pics to the site. Too bad you are limited for Internet access! I would die if I couldn't surf the Net - lol [besides - that's my work - doing Internet research - so I couldn't possibly do without it. That's my excuse.... ;o). I wrote to Dee but haven't heard back yet - hopefully she got the message.
