

Descendants of William Fenner

Generation No. 1

1. William¹ Fenner was born in Ireland, and died 17 Sep 1754. He married unknown.

Child of William Fenner and unknown is:

- + 2 i. Richard John² Fenner, born Bet. 1718 - 1725 in Dublin, Ireland; died Bet. 1765 - 1768 in New Bern, NC.

Generation No. 2

2. Richard John² Fenner (William¹) was born Bet. 1718 - 1725 in Dublin, Ireland, and died Bet. 1765 - 1768 in New Bern, NC. He married (1) unknown Bef. 1745. He married (2) Ann Coddington 1745 in Ireland, daughter of Dixie Coddington and Hannah Waller. She was born Abt. 1731 in Ireland, and died 12 Jul 1777 in New Bern, NC.

Notes for Richard John Fenner:

emigrated to NC (New Bern) (1747-1754?), after having been educated as a lawyer in Ireland. Much of information re: their children is based on letters and research of Ruth Barrett, Texas. Sons Robert, William, and Richard, Jr. were named in Ann's will. William and Walter were step-sons of Ann.

Notes for Ann Coddington:

Ann was probably the second wife of Richard John Fenner. Richard married twice. His first wife is unknown but by her he had three sons: William, Walter and Joseph. The conclusion that these sons were by a first wife is based on the fact that only 3 sons were named in the will of Ann Coddington; those were William, Robert and Richard. It is not known why her son Henry (by Richard) was not named in the will. Perhaps he had died by that time (1777) or perhaps it was because of his choice to return to England at an early age. Though lore has it that she was "Lady Ann Coddington" no research bears this out. Family lore also says that she was disinherited by her father for her marriage, but his will proves otherwise.

Children of Richard Fenner and unknown are:

- 3 i. William³ Fenner, born Bef. 1745.
- 4 ii. Walter Fenner, born Bef. 1745.
- 5 iii. Joseph Fenner, born Bef. 1745.

Children of Richard Fenner and Ann Coddington are:

- 8 iii. Major William Fenner, born Aft. 1745; died Abt. Aug 1778.

Notes for Major William Fenner:

died in the service in Philadelphia, unmarried.

The following info was supplied by Betty Finley, New Orleans:

From the book "Roster of Soldiers from North Carolina in the American Revolution" written by the DAR and published by the Genealogical Publishing Company, 1976, p. 26: "William Fenner, Seventh North Carolina Line, Major, 24th October 1777 to 1st June 1778. Omd [omitted ?] Sep. '78." From the book "North Carolina Revolutionary Army Accounts Secretary of State Treasurers & Comptrollers Papers Vol. I, II Part II"; Weynette Parks Haun, p. 266: Vol II, Book 1 p. 85 [original document]: "The account of Major William Fenner, desd. was exhibited and certified by Capt. Robert Fenner for pay and subsistence to 1 Augt. 1778. One Years pay as Supernumery with Int. included to August 1, 1783. 633.18.10" [pounds, presumably] He had signed an Oath of Allegiance in the spring of 1778 at Valley Forge. See link. <http://www.colonialancestors.com/revolutionary/oath6.htm>. So it looks to me like he died in August, 1778 but certainly not before the spring of '78.

A rogue and 'n'er do well', he caused great sorrow to his family. Spent time in Richmond, Va. prison for robbery, though later released when another prisoner confessed. His mother and sister had borrowed money for his bail when he was arrested, then another $2000 to help him flee to South America. They were the only ones who believed in his innocence b/c of his shady past. The night before he was to leave for S.A., a woman in Norfolk who he'd told of his plan, robbed him and alerted the police. He was arrested, tried, and was in jail for a few years before released by another's confession. He later died of a heart attack in a bar in Norfolk.

Notes for Kate Fenner Urquhart:

graduated from UNC-G (then called Woman's College), Greensboro, NC, Phi Beta Kappa in 1937. After working for the Winston-Salem Journal-Sentinel newspaper, and next as manager of the Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce, she moved to New York City in 1942, holding public relations positions with various companies (Cunningham and Walsh, Allied Chemical, Inmont, and BASF). She retired in 1992 to devote more time to her antiques business, Ampersand Enterprises, and to her vast number of family, friends, and interests. She was well known as an expert in "ephemera", antique printed matter, with an "eagle eye" for valuable rare books, prints, catalogues and other sought-after papers. She and her husband divided their time between their Ridgefield, CT, and NYC homes when they were not pursuing worldwide travel or salmon fishing in British Columbia. She spent every Christmas of her life at her birthplace in Lewiston-Woodville, NC and in Raleigh, NC among family. She is remembered for her generosity and devotion to her family.
