Child of JOHN BATCHELOR and ANNIE is:

- i. ANNIE⁸ BATCHELOR, b. 1898, Rugby, Warwickshire.

44. HENRY⁷ BATCHELOR (JOHN⁶, JOHN⁵, GEORGE⁴, GEORGE³, GEORGE², WILLIAM¹) was born 19 Sep 1877 in 34, Railway Terrace, Rugby, Warwickshire, and died Jun 1936 in Coventry, Warwickshire. He married ALICE FARREN WILSON 09 Apr 1898 in St. John's church, Fleet St., Coventry, daughter of HENRY WILSON and MARY FARREN. She was born 15 Oct 1878 in 18, Aylesford Street, Hillfields, Coventry, Warwickshire, and died Mar 1936 in Coventry, Warwickshire.

Notes for HENRY BATCHELOR:
Army Number 4467

In 1901, Henry was a Brickmakers labourer, living at 19, Gas Street, St. Andrew's, Rugby with his wife, Alice and 10 month old son Henry John (Uncle Jack.) They later moved to Coventry, at 11 court, 37, SponSt., Coventry (sub district St. John's)_

They were so poor when they had their first child Henry John, (my Uncle Jack), that he was born in Rugby Union Workhouse.

He served in W.W.1 with the 1/7 Battalion, 48th division, 143rd Brigade, Royal Warwickshires from August 1915 to October 1916 when he was medically discharged suffering from shell-shock after fighting in the Battle of the Somme.

1/7th Battalion

August 1914 : in Coventry. Part of Warwickshire Brigade, South Midland Division. 13 May 1915 : redesignated the 48th Division and 143rd Brigade

[MYFAM~28.ged]

He was in St Joseph's Convescent home, Bournemouth convalescing from shell-shock.

An e-mail from Bournemouth answering my enquiries into St. Joseph's:-

St. Joseph's Convalescent Home was in Branksome Wood Road. It was founded in 1874 by Lady Georgiana Fullerton and moved to Branksome Wood Road in 1888 as a women's convalescent home. In 1892 the next door property (Ulverston Grange) was purchased and opened as a men's home. It was run by the Sisters of Mercy. The building was demolished in 1986 and a new building erected on the site. This new building later became the Sanctuary (c. 1993) - an Aids hospice.

In a Bournemouth Echo article on the home's centenary it says "Many wounded servicemen recuperated at St. Josephs during both the Boer War and the 1914-1918 war". We also have a small pamphlet on the home but there is no further information on the First World War.

I have attached a couple of photographs of the exterior and interior. I am not sure of the date of these.

The article from the Coventry Graphic was not attached.

Please let me know if I can help further.
