Notes for GEORGE HARLAN:

He was Baptized at the Monastery of Monkwearmouth in Oald England, Jan. 11, 1650. In 1687 his brother Michael and his wife and four children took a ship at Belfast for America. They had purchase land in the Province of Pennsylvania, now in the County of New Castle, before coming to America. They traveled down the Delaware River to New Castle, now Delaware State, and settled near the present town of Centerville. George moved his family to what is now Pennsbury Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania in about 1698/99. In 1701 he obtained a warrant for 200 acres of land in the bend. This was an Indian settlement in the "Great Bend" of the Brandywine, before their removal.

George was a foremost citizen of the colony. He was one of the provincial governors of the "three lower counties," now the state of Delaware, in 1695, and a member of the Colonial Assembly in 1712.
