Emmily and William T. Easley are buried next to her parents at the Petty Cemetery in Hickman County. I have not been able to find their marriage records there for do not know how long they were married but no longer than 9 years as Emily in 1860 was in the household of her father and then in 1870 she was in the household of her father as Emily Easley as a daughter. William was not listed in the household altho according to cemetery records he was still living. Emmily never remarried after his death and records have not showed any children of this marriage.

3. Delilah⁷ Petty (Abraham D.⁶, William⁵, William⁴, William³, Thomas², Hubert¹) was born 1811 in Chatham County, North Carolina, and died Abt. 1838 in Maury/Williamson County, Tennessee. She married William Skelley 02 January 1832 in Williamson County, Tennessee (Source: Marriage Records Williamson County, Tennessee.), son of James Skelley and Sarah. He was born 12 December 1812 in Williamson County, Tennessee, and died 12 July 1874 in Maury County, Tennessee.

Notes for Delilah Petty:

Not much is known about Delia except that she must have died before May of 1842 as William remarried then. No tombstone in Maury or Williamson County has been found. The 1850 Census in Williamson County shows William with his second wife and children ranging from 16 to 7. William and his second wife had only been married 8 years and his second wife would have only been 11 years old at the birth of the first child. Therefore most of these children must have been his and Delilah's. The last one was names Delilah born in 1838 so it is possible that Deliah died just after giving birth to her.

Charles R. Church, editor and publisher of the Stockton Journal, is a native of Cedar County, Mo., and was born in 1861, being a son of Hardy J. and Mary A. (Corbin) Church, who were born in Maury County, Tenn., and Adair County, Ky., August 26, 1836, and July 22, 1839, respectively. Hardy J. Church came to Cedar County, Mo., with his parents, William Carroll Church and Mazey (Petty) Church (for their history see sketch of William Carroll Church), and was here reared to manhood, and married Miss Mary A. Corbin, who is now residing in Stockton, Mo. His early life was spent in farming, and, from 1870 to 1874, he acted as deputy sheriff and collector of Cedar County, and at the latter date was elected sheriff, and re-elected in 1876. He died in 1880, leaving, besides his widow, the following children to mourn their loss; Jennie M., wife of James L. Mitchell, a druggist, of Stockton; Charles R., Gertrude, William P., Frank L. and Fannie. Charles R. Church was educated in the schools of Stockton, and at the age of thirteen years entered the printing office of the Stockton Tribune, in which office he remained until about 1876, when the Journal and Tribune were consolidated. He continued in the same capacity three years, then filled the position of local editor two years, and, in 1881, became manager of the Stockton Journal for Hon. D. P. Stratton, the present circuit judge. He continued in this capacity until January, 1887, when he became editor and publisher of the same. He supports the principles of the Democratic party through the columns of his paper, and expresses his opinions in a fearless and straight-forward manner. The Stockton Journal is ably edited, and is a bright and newsy sheet, and has the largest circulation of any paper ever published in the county. It advocates the interests of Cedar County and her citizens, and deals largely and very fully with local news in all sections of the country. In April, 1882, Mr. Church was married to Miss Sarah C. Cheek, a daughter of ex-Judge W. A. Cheek, of Cedar County. She was born in Caldwell County, Mo., in 1863, and she and Mr. Church are the parents of two interesting little children; Raymond F. and Mildred I. They are worthy members of the Christian Church, and he belongs to the Knights of Pythias, Cedar Lodge No. 103, which he represented in the Grand Lodge at Hannibal in October, 1888.

HISTORY OF HICKORY, POLK, CEDAR, DADE AND BARTON COUNTIES, MISSOURI 1889, published by Goodspeed, Pg. 726, 727

William Carroll Church, who is well known throughout Cedar County, Mo., as Uncle Billy Church, was born in Maury County, Tenn., in 1816, and is a son of Robert and grandson of Thomas Church, both of whom were born in North Carolina, the former in 1795. When a young man he moved with his father to Maury County, Tenn., and there Thomas died in 1847, at the age of seventy-seven years. His wife, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Culbertson, died in Cedar County, Mo., in 1856, aged about seventy-five years. Robert Church was engaged in farming in Tennessee, and was there married to Miss Frankie Fitzgerald, in 1815. She was born in the "Old North State," in 1799, and died in 1845, her husband dying in 1876. Robert Church was twice married, his second wife being Lucy Fitzgerald, a sister of his first wife, and a daughter of Edmund Fitzgerald, who was born in North Carolina, and died in Maury County, Tenn. William Carroll Church was the eldest of thirteen children born to his father's first marriage, and was reared to manhood on a farm. In 1835 he married Miss Mazey Petty, a daughter of Abram Petty. She was born in North Carolina, in 1815, and her union with Mr. Church resulted in the birth of seven children; Hardy J. (deceased) was deputy sheriff four years and sheriff of Cedar County four years; Frances, wife of George R. Corbin; Naomi; Sarah, wife of Nelson Fritts; Robert; Cynthia, wife of E. W. Montgomery; and George W. When Mr. Church was a young man he learned the blacksmith's trade, and in 1854 removed to Stockton, Mo., and erected a blacksmith's shop, in which he and G. R. Corbin were partners for nine years. About this time the war broke out, and Mr. Church went to Cooper County, where he remained until 1865, then returning to Stockton, and he and H. J. purchased a carding machine and also ran a nursery for four years. Since that time Mr. Church has given his undivided attention to farming, and is the owner of 300 acres of fine land near Stockton, and 300 acres about twelve miles southwest of the town. Mrs. Church died in 1877, and the following year he married Mrs. Mary Jane (Maxey) Morrison, a daughter of William and Sarah (Nelson) Maxey, who were natives of Tennessee, and came to Pulaski County, Mo. Mrs. Church was born in Lawrence County, Tenn., in 1832. Mr. Church is one of the oldest citizens of the county, and is a man whose honesty and integrity have never been questioned. He is a Democrat in politics, and his first presidential vote was cast for Harrison in 1840. He has been a member of the Masonic order since he was twenty-one years of age, and, when only eighteen years of age, united with the Southern Methodist Church, in which he soon became a class-leader. After the war closed he joined the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and has been a ruling elder in the same for the past twenty-three years, and has attended many presbyteries and synods. In 1881 he was sent to the General assembly at Sedalia, Mo. All his children are members of the same church, but his wife belongs to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

James Petty estate filed 29 August 1865 with Caroline Petty widow of deceased named Administratrix. James A. Pankey and Austin Fox securities for bond of $1,000.00.
 Information was all found in Cedar Co. MO Probate Records Vols. A-B 1845-1868, Vol. B. 1859-1868 FHL film #0932395:

There were a few other minor entires in the estate of James Petty; however, the interesting document in his estate was filed at P. 138 December Term 1868 in which Thomas M. Petty, 20 yrs. 10 mos, 2 days; Calvin G. Petty; 18 years, 1 mo; Jesse M. Petty 16 yrs, 1 mo 26 days who select Caroline Petty as their guardian and curator. Gideon M. Petty, 13 years, 3 mos 18 days; Martha J. Petty, 9 yrs, 11 mos 10 days and James H. Petty, 6 yrs, 6 mos & 7 days have no guardian and Caroline is appointed by the court as she has entered into bond to perform her duties as guardian and curator.

More About James Petty:

Burial: 1864, Younger Cemetery, Cedar County, Missouri

Notes for Mahala Caroline Wrenn:

Mahala is not found in the 1870 Census of Cedar County but in 1870 Children living in home of daughter Mary j. and in 1880 two of her children Mary and Eldora are found in the household of their Uncle Thomas W. Wrenn. So So this puts her death between June 1870 and July 1871 as per her estate going to court. So Mahala must have died before the Census of 1870 taken in August of that year.

The estate of Caroline Petty was entered July 1871 p. 546 with Lewis Gravely, public administrator, appointed as her administrator.

On Jan. 11, 1872, p. 624, Jesse Monroe Petty, 19 years, Gideon Petty 16 years, Martha J. Petty, 13 years and James M. Petty, 11 years select Nelson Fritts as heir guardian and curator. Actually, Jesse and Gideon chose Nelson, and Nelson was appointed for Martha and James. Bond $800.00 and William Church & Abram C. Petty were securities. This did not appear in the index. I just happened to scroll a few more pages and found it.

In Vol. D&E 1872-1880 FHL film #0932397 the only matter there was Oct. 1873, p. 247 when Lewis Graveley administrator files his final account and distribution in the amount of $11.94 was made to the following: Wm. A. Petty; Mary J. Petty; Calvin Petty; Jesse M. Petty, Gideon Petty Dora Petty, James Petty and Thos. Petty. This was written out in line fashion as I typed it and squeezed onto the bottom of the page so you could hardly read it.

He was born 05 January 1819 in Maury County, Tennessee, and died 08 August 1880 in Fannin County, Texas (Source: Cemetery Records Fannin County, Texas.).

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Petty:

From Joan Ball of Fannin County, Texas

I spent all day yesterday in the Fannin County Courthouse and found some very interesting things!

As you know, we have been uncertain where Mary Elizabeth Petty Wrenn died - well, I found it in the probate records.

Jesse S. Wrenn states on the attached record that she died in 1860 leaving 5 children. I think there is also a record that says she died in Fannin County. I couldn't copy all of the records because they charge $1.00 a page - which is a bit rich for me.

I also found that Jesse S. Wrenn bought 144 acres of land in Fannin Co. in 1866 - so we know they were there in 1870. My money will be on her being buried in the Caney Creek/Coontown Cemetery because I also found that the cemetery was found on Jesse's land at least by 1866. When he sold it to his stepson in 1878, the notation is given in the deed "excepting two acres more or less for a grave yard."

I also found all of the children from the marriage of Jesse S. and Mary E. and their spouses.

When Patsy A. Wrenn, the second wife, died in 1884 - Jennie Wrenn Collins and Martha Jane Wrenn Sears were already deceased. Jennie left three children: Sarah M. Collins, Mary Virginia Collins, and William T.(could be J. T.) Collin. Martha left one son, Samuel H. Sears.

This document states that the 96 acres of land was purchased by Jesse S. Wrenn prior to his marriage to Patsy A. Mahurin Short.

It also states that 105 ac. of land was inherited by Patsy A. Morrison before her first marriage with W. P. Short - that means it was Mahurin land.

My thoughts on Mary Elizabeth Petty Wrenn

I believe Mary died in childbirth with Mary Caroline Wrenn in Cedar County before the family moved to Cane Creek in Texas between 1860 and 1865.

Jesse Wrenn went to Court in 1868 in Fannin County, Texas stating his wife Mary had died in 1860 leaving five children who had inheared some land from there Grandfather Aberham D. Petty worth about $500. This action was in probate Court to settle this estate. Now in Aug. 1860 Mary was shown as living in Cedar County, Missouri with husband Jesse Wrenn and four children. Mary the youngest had not been born yet but if Mary died in 1860 it had to be between Aug. 19, 1860 and Dec 31 1860 and Mary had to be born during that time. So it is my belief Mary died in child birth and Jesse names the baby Mary in honor of his wife. It is also my belief Mary is buried in the Younger Cemetery with her father, Abraham and brother James and his wife Mahala Caroline Wrenn Petty, Sister to her husband Jesse Wrenn.

The Probate Records from 1845-1868 are not indexed. But I did look through the microfilm roll for you since these estates began in 1865. However, it took several hours to just read through 1868. Good thing I did because I found the Estate of Gideon Petty who was not listed in the Letters of Administration.

Notes for Marion Ethelbert Gant Petty:

Pa Petty as he was called or the Irishman to some was of Scottish decent but in the rural area of Tennessee that did not seem to matter. After his wife died in Maury County, Tennessee Pa Petty moved to Giles County with his son Clarence. He was in what was known as the Peach area and later moved to Appleton across Sugar Creek. There he met his Second wife from Lexington, Alabama whom he married and moved to Alabama until her death. He then moved to Lawrenceville, Tennessee and lived with one of his other children until his death. He is buried in Lexington, Alabama beside his second wife and son.
Marion was named form the Sparkman (his mother) side of the family.

107. Charles R.⁹ Church (Hardy J.⁸, Mazy⁷ Petty, Abraham D.⁶, William⁵, William⁴, William³, Thomas², Hubert¹) was born November 1861 in Cedar County, Missouri, and died in Cedar County, Missouri. He married Sarah C. Cheeks. She was born 1863 in Caldwell County, Missouri, and died in Cedar County, Missouri.

Notes for Charles R. Church:

Charles R. Church, editor and publisher of the Stockton Journal, is a native of Cedar County, Mo., and was born in 1861, being a son of Hardy J. and Mary A. (Corbin) Church, who were born in Maury County, Tenn., and Adair County, Ky., August 26, 1836, and July 22, 1839, respectively. Hardy J. Church came to Cedar County, Mo., with his parents, William Carroll Church and Mazey (Petty) Church (for their history see sketch of William Carroll Church), and was here reared to manhood, and married Miss Mary A. Corbin, who is now residing in Stockton, Mo. His early life was spent in farming, and, from 1870 to 1874, he acted as deputy sheriff and collector of Cedar County, and at the latter date was elected sheriff, and re-elected in 1876. He died in 1880, leaving, besides his widow, the following children to mourn their loss; Jennie M., wife of James L. Mitchell, a druggist, of Stockton; Charles R., Gertrude, William P., Frank L. and Fannie. Charles R. Church was educated in the schools of Stockton, and at the age of thirteen years entered the printing office of the Stockton Tribune, in which office he remained until about 1876, when the Journal and Tribune were consolidated. He continued in the same capacity three years, then filled the position of local editor two years, and, in 1881, became manager of the Stockton Journal for Hon. D. P. Stratton, the present circuit judge. He continued in this capacity until January, 1887, when he became editor and publisher of the same. He supports the principles of the Democratic party through the columns of his paper, and expresses his opinions in a fearless and straight-forward manner. The Stockton Journal is ably edited, and is a bright and newsy sheet, and has the largest circulation of any paper ever published in the county. It advocates the interests of Cedar County and her citizens, and deals largely and very fully with local news in all sections of the country. In April, 1882, Mr. Church was married to Miss Sarah C. Cheek, a daughter of ex-Judge W. A. Cheek, of Cedar County. She was born in Caldwell County, Mo., in 1863, and she and Mr. Church are the parents of two interesting little children; Raymond F. and Mildred I. They are worthy members of the Christian Church, and he belongs to the Knights of Pythias, Cedar Lodge No. 103, which he represented in the Grand Lodge at Hannibal in October, 1888.

What can be said about Edith Petty Doster is she took care of her husband Lewis after he got ill and most of his life. She loved her family and as I came home on leave from the military always I would know there was a hot pound cake waiting on me at my Aunt Edith's home waiting on the butter I would put on it. This went on for my 20 years in the military and Edith died one month before I retired while i was in the hospital having my knee operated on. I know she knew I loved her even though I did not make it to her funeral and that I miss thoses hot pound cakes even today in 2003.
