Generation No. 5

Notes for JOSEPH WEAVER:

The following was reported by the York County, Pennsylvania, Historical Society in 1931:

"In 1781, Joseph Weaver is assessed a a single man in Windsor Township. Fedellus Foster appears on the same assessment as owning 150 acres of land. Joseph does not appear on the original tax lists any other year than 1781. Fedellus appears in 1792 but is not on the assessment in 1795. In the 1790 census, Joseph Weaver is listed in Earl Township, Lancaster county, PA, with one female child and wife".

(***There seems to be some confusion about when Joseph got married. He was possibly married prior to 1790 to a first wife ((name unk.)), possibly had Catharine and maybe Rebecca while living in PA. After marring Rebecca Foster, he moved from PA to WVa and had five more children. I'm taking an educated guess at this of course, but Catharine is listed as adopted which indicates that possibly Joseph's first wife died.

In "Easton-Avery Community History 1963", it states that John Abel moved to the community from Cheat Neck and purchased 100 acres of land from Joseph Weaver heirs (George and John) in 1841. Also, while in WVa, Joseph's two sons, John & George Weaver, got into a law suit with John Abel. Apparently in some court papers, John Weaver states that one of the witnesses was Joseph W. Stewart (Married Mary Pierpoint) and that his mother was John's half-sister. There is no mention of what his mother's maiden name was, and no record has been located as of this date.

Joseph weaver came to Monongalia County, WVA probably before 1798. The deed records show he purchased 160 acres of land from Samuel Hanway on July 9th of that year. (# A record from Francis H. Pierpont shows Joseph settled on a farm near Morgantown about 1785. This same record shows Joseph being buried in the Old Pierpont Cemetery, one mile from Cheat Rd., near Cheat Ch W.V. 41).

The above 160 acres adjoined land belonging to the heirs of John Pierpoint, the heirs of Lott Ridgway, Jesse Bayles, Lewis Rogers, Robert Abercrombie, Francis Tibbs, and others. In 1809 Joseph Weaver purchased 37 acres from Larkin Pierpoint and owned all of the above land until his death. In 1837, two of Joseph's sons, John and George, bought the land from their brothers and sisters after Joseph's death. Each son also received 60 dollars. In 1831 they divided the farm. Later, George sold his part to John Abel. John held his share of the land until his death at which time his son, Rufus E. Weaver, became the owner of most of the land originally owned by his grandfather, Joseph. In 1917, Rufus sold his land to James W. Pickenpough. **(Also noted is Joseph's will mentioned a daughter named Nancy (Weaver) Crumbel. **Also, Joseph signed everything with an "X" which indicated he did not know how to write.

After Joseph died, his wife, Rebecca (Foster) Weaver, lived with her daughter, Catharine (Weaver) Pierpoint until her death. Catharine claimed that her mother was 90 when she died which would have made her birth date about 1757.
