He was living in Missouri prior to 1930, I think when he went home to Michigan for his father's funeral he took his mother Orilla, his Aunt Mary C Payne, and Cousin Harry L (Chip) Payne back to Missouri with him.

Do not know if they moved back to Michigan, they must have because they are both buried in the Walkerville Cemetery near his folks, in the Payne plots. Also his wife Carolina died in Walkerville in 1985.

Jan. 2, 2009, they moved to Florida, per the state census in 1945, he became a Mariner with his sons Wilson and Jesse Jr.

Willison is listed with his father Jesse on this manifest. Willison is a deck engineer, described his nationality as Dutch-German. He was 5' 3" and weighed 125 pounds, no tatoos.

1944 I am finding a Wilson E b 1918 and Jesse L b 1920 on the same ship the Lou Gerig as crew members? These could be the brothers? How likely is it that two men with the correct names could be on the same ship as a crew member? Birth is listed as U.S. I found two records where he and Jesse are on the same ship. Wilson uses W. E. Waddle in two of the records.
