On John Maddox (1762-1845)

Virginian John Maddox III (1762-c.1845) was a volunteer in the Revolutionary War from Goochland County, Va. during 1777-78 and served under Capt. Gideon Hacker guarding Hessian prisoners. Later they rendezvoused at Richmond to march from the James River to Cabin Point. Maddox was with the troops to join the main Army at Richmond, commanded by Lafayette until joined by General Washington, when he took command. Maddox marched to within 16 miles of little York and crossed the river to Gloucester to prevent the escape of the British in that direction. (This is per Maddox pages on line).
