I went to the court house and in an old book called criminal docket, I found a listing under October 1887 as listed:

The state vs William H. Tootle, James H. Tootle, Daniel Tootle for assault and battery.

Remarks say: Bond. plea guilty april 1888 sentence No arrest Apr term 1888 Bond Bond forfeited Apr tr 1888. Absolute Oct. term 1888. cont generally apr term 1889. No arrest apr term 1888. No arrest april term 1889.
Of adjd ___ Dead docket.

The state vs William H. Tootle for assault and battery.

Remarks: No arrest April term 1889 of adjd ___ dead docket.

I asked the superior court judge what dead docket meant and he said it was used to say that they had not found the people and that the case was still open.

I will be mailing you a copy of the pages I found. It looks like we found out why they left Montgomery County and why they changed their name.
