Notes for ELIZABETH ROBERTS:

Dixie Grimsley Middleton verified that Elizabeth Roberts (the daughter of Burrell Roberts) married William H. Grimsley. This was talked about in conversation a few years ago with Barbara Cofty Jones.

email dated june 22, 2007

Mr. Wood,

My name is Heather Grimsley. I am the daughter of Phillip Grimsley, Granddaughter of Mary Lou (Williams) and Roy Lester Grimsley, and second cousin of Jerry Grimsley (who was once married to Jan Rawls). My father's ancestors are long time residents of Colquitt, Miller County, Georgia.

I have recently become interested, obsessed may be a better word, with my family genealogy. I found your Family page through Genealogy.com during my search for my Great Great Grandmother's family. My Great Great Grandmother was Elizabeth Roberts. She married William J. Grimsley. Their son was William Hoyt Grimsley, who was my grandfather's (Roy Lester Grimsley) father.

I do not have a lot of information about Elizabeth Roberts. Her husband was, according to family stories, wounded in the arm at Bull Run. The arm had to be amputated and he died from complication with that. Despite only being married for five years, Elizabeth never married again. She lived the rest of her life raising her children. There is a note in one of the documents I found at my father's that says she may have moved back with her parents after her husbands death but no note about who they were is there.

Do you have any idea who Elizabeth is? Could she be related to any of your ancestors?

I would appreciate any information you might have about her.

Heather

Another note: until yesterday I did not know my Mama Mac's middle name was Maranda! Folks in Colquitt called her Miss Alma. She was Postmistress there for a time. Her status gave her the right to stop her 1947 Ford Deluxe in the middle of the street on the town square, leave it running, do her shopping, and return as she saw fit. Her primary claim to fame, though, was owning and managing several sharecropper farms. I believe she owned five farms, lived on one, sharecropped the rest. The major crop was peanuts, and I remember riding a ground sled, pulled by a one-eyed Mule named Jack (the only Democrat in Miller County, they said) out to where "the men" were working. Lester McDonald "ran away with another woman" sometime in the 30s. He died in 1954, I believe. I never knew him, but Mama Mac quietly seethed when his name was mentioned. She also had a rare knack for catching fish when all around her were skunked. She was a Force!

Good to know about Uncle Milton as well. He wasn't the sweetest angel in the choir, but some of my fondest memories are of lying on the floor of the Newberry home in Colquitt listening to his 78 rpm records of The Statesmen -- with lasting memories of an old gospel song called "Wait 'Til You See Me in My New Home". We spent several summers there. I assumed it was a vacation. Later, I discovered these were times when Dad was looking for work.

As I remember, the Newberrys owned the NuWay Dry Cleaning store in Colquitt. Spud, Hutto, and others called my cousin Milton, Jr. "Nuway." (We called him "Milton Junior Newberry" -- and found it unusual to see or hear him referred to as "Milton Newberry, Junior".) I'll have to confirm this, but believe Uncle Milton was also a salesman for the local Ford dealership -- remember the look, feel, and new-car smell of his Ford Victoria demonstrator. It's also said that he was a member of the local KKK -- but that's just a rumor.

292. E-mail From Dee Edwards, deedwards_53@hotmail.com., Mr. Woods, I saw your posting on Ancestry. Com for Henry K. Lane and Elizabeth Holly Roberts. They were my great-great grandparents. Their son Connie was my father's father. I have information on the Lane family that you might find interesting and some information to correct what you have. E.g., Connie Lane was married to Lucy Carrae Cooper January 30, 1903 in Early County. I am willing to share information with you and I'm sure you can shed some light on some of my other relatives. You may contact me at my E-mail address: deedwards_53@hotmail.com. Looking forward to hearing from you. Dee Edwards .
