Introduction

This family history traces the roots of George Foster Wyatt, my grandfather, who was the first of my lineage to settle in Texas. It shows his ancestry back to Sir Henry Wyatt of Yorkshire, England. (The line actually extends much further back.) The lineage to Sir Henry goes through Rev. Haute Wyatt in the Jamestown Colony where the American line began.

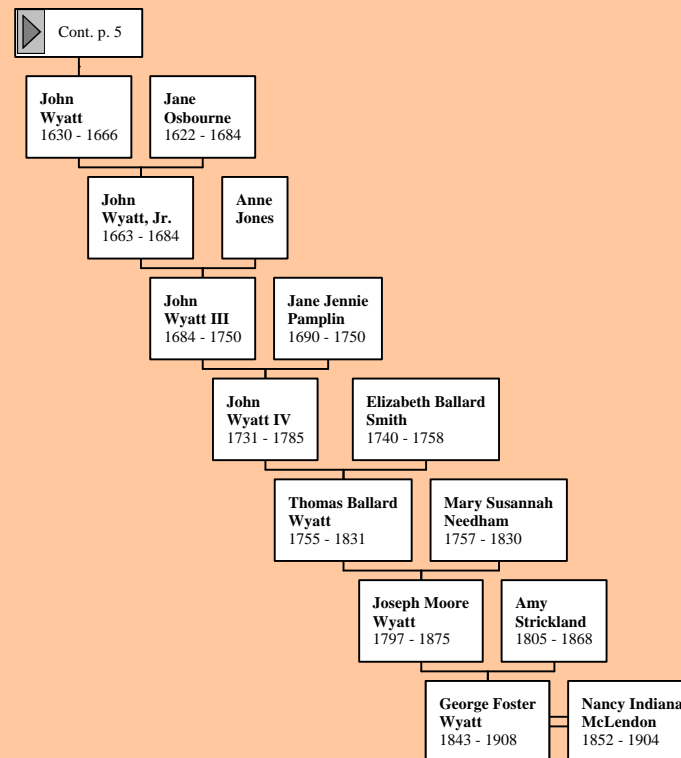

The descendants of George Foster Wyatt and his wife Nancy Indiana McLendon down through four generations are covered in the chapters on descendant genealogy. Although not published here, additional generations are maintained by the author in the software program, Family Tree Maker, from which this published history is derived.

More detail can be found in the informal family history George Foster Wyatt Family Tales listed in the Bibliography.

The author will be more than willing to furnish additional information as requested.

Family History of George Foster Wyatt

Descendants of Henry Wyatt

Generation No. 1

1. HENRY¹ WYATT was born 1460 in Yorkshire, England, and died 1537 in Allington Castle, Boxley Parish, Kent Co., England. He married ANNE SKINNER Abt. 1500. She was born Abt. 1480 in Reigate, Curry Co., England, and died Unknown.

Notes for HENRY WYATT:

Henry Wyatt became a close friend and royal courtier to two English Kings, Henry VII and Henry VIII. He was an Eaton classmate to Prince Henry (future Henry VII), and was knighted by King Henry VII and was titled Earl of Richmond. In order to properly entertain the royal court, he purchased Allington Castle in 1492. His son Sir Thomas Wyatt became a famous poet and royal courtier of King Henry VIII.

Children of HENRY WYATT and ANNE SKINNER are:

2. i. THOMAS² WYATT, b. 1503, Allington Castle, Boxley Parish, Kent Co., England; d. 1542, Sherborne, Dorset Co., England.
- ii. MARGARET WYATT, b. Aft. 1503; d. Unknown; m. ANTHONY LEE; b. Guorendon, England.

Generation No. 2

2. THOMAS² WYATT (HENRY¹) was born 1503 in Allington Castle, Boxley Parish, Kent Co., England, and died 1542 in Sherborne, Dorset Co., England. He married ELIZABETH BROOKE COBHAM 1520. She was born Abt. 1490, and died Unknown.

Notes for THOMAS WYATT:

Sir Thomas Wyatt (the Elder) is well known as a famous poet and royal courtier to King Henry VIII who titled him Earl of Norfolk. He was also childhood friend, and perhaps lover, of Anne Boleyn before she married Henry VIII. As part of the charges against Anne Boleyn for adultery which led to her execution, Thomas Wyatt was briefly imprisoned in the Tower of London in 1536. He was cleared, witnessed the execution of his friend Anne, and continued in the service of King Henry, primarily in the diplomatic service, until his untimely death of a fever when he was only 39.

More About THOMAS WYATT:

Burial: 1542, The Abbey at Sherborne

Notes for ELIZABETH BROOKE COBHAM:

She was daughter of Lord Cobham of Cobham Hall one of the finest homes in England at the time. It is through Elizabeth Cobham that the Wyatt line can be traced back to Charlemagne. See "George Foster Wyatt Family Tales" as listed in the Bibliography later in this book.

Children of THOMAS WYATT and ELIZABETH COBHAM are:

3. i. THOMAS³ WYATT, b. 1521, Allington Castle, Kent Co., England; d. April 11, 1554, The Tower, London, England.
- ii. FRANCES WYATT, b. 1522.

Generation No. 3

3. THOMAS³ WYATT (THOMAS², HENRY¹) was born 1521 in Allington Castle, Kent Co., England, and died April 11, 1554 in The Tower, London, England. He married JANE HAUTE. She was born 1522, and died Unknown.

Notes for THOMAS WYATT:

Sir Thomas Wyatt (the Younger) was known in his youth as having a wild and impetuous temperament which may have led to his eventual downfall. He did continue in his father's steps in service to the King, and was knighted as second Earl of Norfolk. After Henry VIII died and his daughter became Queen Mary, Wyatt joined a rebellion against Queen Mary because of her close alliances with Spain. The ill-fated rebellion was named the Wyatt Rebellion in English history, and its failure resulted in Thomas Wyatt being beheaded in the Tower of London on April 11, 1554. Not only did he lose his head, but also Allington Castle and his titles, taken away from his widow Jane by Queen Mary. Portions of the estates and titles were later restored to Jane by Queen Elizabeth I, but never Allington Castle.

Generation No. 4

4. GEORGE⁴ WYATT (THOMAS³, THOMAS², HENRY¹) was born 1554, and died 1625. He married JANE FINCH. She was born Unknown, and died Unknown.

Notes for GEORGE WYATT:

George Wyatt was born the same year his father Sir Thomas Wyatt the Younger was beheaded. During Queen Elizabeth's reign, he was restored to his peerage rights by Act of Parliament. George was a scholarly person and wrote several books, among them "The Life of Anne Boleyn". This genealogy owes a lot to Sir George because one of his efforts was to flesh out and confirm the Twisden Roll of 1578 into a "History of the Wyatt Family". This book and the earlier effort by Roger Twisden traces and confirms Sir Henry Wyatt's pedigree back five generations to Adam Wyatt in 1320. Sir George's sons Francis and Haute were the only ones of this line to come to America as Governor and Chaplain, respectively, of the Jamestown Settlement in Virginia.

Children of GEORGE WYATT and JANE FINCH are:

5. ii. REV. HAUTE WYATT, b. 1594; d. 1638, Boxley Parish, Kent Co., England.

She was born Abt. 1600, and died 1626 in Jamestown, VA. He married (2) ANNE COCKE (COX) Abt. 1628 in Boxley Parish, Kent Co., England.

Notes for REV. HAUTE WYATT:

Haute Wyatt came with his brother Francis to Jamestown, VA in 1621. Francis served as Governor of the colony while Haute was Minister. Haute served for five years before returning to England to be Vicar (Rector) of Boxley Parish. Haute had two sons named Edward and George by his first wife Barbara Elizabeth Mitford, and two children, John and Katharine, by second wife Anne Cox (Cocke). The two older sons joined Uncle Francis in Virginia in 1639 serving his second term as Governor, where they settled and founded two branches of the Wyatt lineage. The youngest son John didn't get to Jamestown until 1652. He stayed in America and founded the line that leads to the author of this genealogy. Neither Francis nor any of his prodigy ever settled permanently in America. It is interesting to note that the family name was spelled Wiatt in England, and was changed to Wyatt by Francis Wyatt in America

Practically all researchers agree on the total number of children born to this couple (16), but hardly anyone agrees on the names and birth order of the children. 17. REV. GEORGE FOSTER¹² WYATT (JOSEPH MOORE¹¹, THOMAS BALLARD¹⁰, JOHN⁹, JOHN⁸, JOHN⁷, JOHN⁶, HAUTE⁵, GEORGE⁴, THOMAS³, THOMAS², HENRY¹) was born September 2, 1843 in Americus, Sumter County, Georgia⁵³, and died May 8, 1908 in Gladewater, Upshur County, Texas⁵⁴. He married NANCY INDIANA MCLENDON June 1868 in Pike Co., AL, daughter of MARTIN MCLENDON and CATHERINE CAMPBELL. She was born May 25, 1852 in Dale County, Alabama⁵⁵, and died September 14, 1904 in East Mountain, Upshur Co., TX⁵⁶.

Notes for REV. GEORGE FOSTER WYATT:

George Foster Wyatt was the 15th of 16 children, born in Sumter County, Georgia. He was apparently a sickly child who read a lot of books and became better educated than most of his peers. He was inducted into the CSA army in 1862, was wounded, and got a disability discharge in 1864. The wound left him with a limp for the rest of his life.

His occupations after the war included circuit-rider preacher, school teacher, and farmer. Sometime between 1864 and 1868, he moved to Alabama where he married Nancy Indiana McLendon in Pike County. He and India (as she was called) had three children in Alabama, of which only daughter Ida survived. By 1875 George and his family had resettled in Lee County, Texas, our first Texan in the lineage. The year of 1875 is confirmed by the birth of son Charles Hamilton Wyatt. Altogether, the couple had 13 children of which 11 lived to adulthood.

George and India eventually settled in Wood County near Hawkins, Texas where they lived until 1900. At that point, they moved again to the East Mountain community in southern Upshur County, Texas, apparently to be near some of their married older children. India died in 1904 and was buried in East Mountain. By that time they had only one child (six-year old Roy) living at home. So George sent his young son to live with a sister and moved in with oldest son Charles and family living nearby. This set the stage for the final adventure of George Foster's life.

When his son Charles and family moved to Quay County, New Mexico to homestead, George went with them. He preached in a brush arbor the year he was there. A lonely widower who probably found New Mexico a harsh environs, he returned home to live with his daughter Ida near Gladewater, Texas. He died in 1908 soon after his return, and is buried among the pines in East Mountain Cemetery beside his wife.

Notes for NANCY INDIANA MCLENDON:

Nancy Indiana was the ninth child born to Martin McLendon and Catherine Campbell. She was usually referred to by nickname India or Indie. Her maternal grandmother was an O'Neil who was born in Ireland. India was only 16 when she married the transplanted Georgian George Foster Wyatt in 1869. She came to Texas with George between 1873 and 1875. Her final resting place is East Mountain Cemetery, Upshur Co., Texas.

Some confusion exists as to India's county of birth in Alabama. Some show Barber Co. or Dale Co. Other sources show Brundidge, Pike Co. (Barbour Co., misspelled Barber, has not yet been linked with the family movements). She is listed in 1860 Census in Dale County, Alabama as Nancy I. A. (?), age 9. Also appears in 1870 Census as living in Brundidge, Pike Co. AL. Best guess is she was born in Dale Co. AL, later settled in Pike Co. probably near Brundidge.

Children of GEORGE WYATT and NANCY MCLENDON are:

- i. IDA LAVERNE¹³ WYATT⁵⁷, b. May 31, 1869, Pike Co., Alabama⁵⁸; d. 1951, Gladewater, Gregg Co., Texas⁵⁹; m. (1) DR. ALONZO GEORGE PRITCHETT, M.D., Abt. 1886⁶⁰; b. June 1861, Georgia⁶¹; d. Unknown; m. (2) BURCH, Bef. 1951.

Notes for IDA LAVERNE WYATT:

Ida was born in Alabama, the oldest of George Foster Wyatt's children. She came to Texas as a small child with her family. In 1886 she married a physician Dr. Alonzo Pritchett and they settled in East Mountain in southern Upshur County, Texas near border with Gregg County not far from Gladewater. She never strayed far from that area of Texas. At the time of her death in 1951 she was living within the city limits of Gladewater, Gregg County, Texas.

Ida and her husband had four children, all but one of which had offspring.

- ii. ANNIE CORA WYATT, b. 1871, Pike Co., Alabama⁶²; d. September 1873, Pike Co. Alabama⁶².

Notes for ANNIE CORA WYATT:

Died at age 2 on same day and buried in same grave as infant brother George McLendon (Buddy Mack) per Francis Pyron Dance research. (See LDS Microfilm Roll 1035965)

- iii. GEORGE MCLENDON (BUDDY MACK) WYATT, b. March 1873, Pike Co. Alabama⁶³; d. September 1873, Pike Co. Alabama⁶⁴.

Notes for GEORGE MCLENDON (BUDDY MACK) WYATT:

Died same day and buried in same grave as two year old sister Annie Cora per Francis Pyron Dance research (see LDS Microfilm Roll 1035965)

- iv. CHARLES HAMILTON WYATT, SR., b. August 16, 1875, Lexington, Lee Co., TX⁶⁵; d. January 5, 1954, Tucumcari, Quay Co., NM⁶⁶; m. ETHEL ELIZABETH ELDER, December 5, 1900, East Mountain, Upshur Co., TX⁶⁶; b. July 19, 1884, East Mountain, Upshur Co., TX⁶⁷; d. October 16, 1964, Abilene, Taylor Co., TX⁶⁸.

Notes for CHARLES HAMILTON WYATT, SR.:

Charles (who was always called Charlie) was born near Lexington, Lee County, Texas. As the oldest boy, it fell to Charlie to be the primary farm helper to his teacher/preacher father. He remained a farmer his entire life including working a sizeable wheat farming operation in eastern New Mexico for a large part of his life.

He and his wife Ethel Elder had 12 children, with only 8 surviving to adulthood. They farmed a while near East Mountain in Upshur County, Texas, until they learned of a homesteading opportunity for free land in eastern New Mexico. So they pulled up stakes in 1907 and moved to Quay County, New Mexico to claim 160 acres near Jordan. (He eventually bought and managed 480 acres.) Charlie became a dryland wheat farmer, always struggling to make a crop during periodic droughts. They stuck it out however, and were successful for over 50 years. Charlie died in 1954, but Ethel stayed on the farm until 1960 when she went to live with a daughter.

Notes for ETHEL ELIZABETH ELDER:

Buried in Browning Cemetery, Jordan, NM

- v. INDIANA CATHERINE (ANNIE) WYATT, b. April 15, 1878, Lexington, Lee Co., TX⁶⁹; d. November 17, 1957, Scroggins, TX⁷⁰; m. JAMES MARION MCLAIN, November 9, 1893, Wood County, TX⁷¹; b. March 1874,

Selma, Alabama⁷²; d. March 3, 1952, Gilmer, TX⁷³.

Notes for INDIANA CATHERINE (ANNIE) WYATT:

Indiana Catherine was always known as Annie by her family. She married James Marion McLain when she was 15 years old in 1893. She and her husband settled in Wood County, Texas near Hawkins, where they had their five children. By the time of the 1920 Census, the family was living in Upshur County, Texas. The 1930 census finds them living in Dallas, Texas, where Marion was employed as a druggist. At some point later, they had moved to Pritchett, Upshur Co., TX. For the last few years of her life as a widow, she lived with daughter Grace Morris in Scroggins, TX. Annie was buried in the Morris Cemetery near Pritchett, Upshur Co., Texas. Proof that her birth name was "Indiana Catherine" instead of family recollections of "Anna Catherine" is found in the 1880 Census Soundex. Nevertheless, she will always be remembered as Annie.

- vi. JOSEPHINE AUGUSTA (GUSSIE) WYATT, b. June 15, 1880, Panola County, TX (see Notes)⁷⁴; d. February 21, 1960, Waco, TX, (buried in Waco Memorial Park)⁷⁵; m. (1) JOSEPH M. CONNELL, Abt. 1899⁷⁶; b. December 23, 1863⁷⁷; d. May 1936, Alba, TX⁷⁸; m. (2) PRUITT, Bef. 1960.

Notes for JOSEPHINE AUGUSTA (GUSSIE) WYATT:

Josephine Augusta went by name of Gussie. She married Joseph Connell around 1899, and they had two children, Clifford and Floye. Gussie and Joe moved around quite a bit all within Texas, where Joe had a varied career of occupations. In the early part of their marriage, they lived in Wood County near Pine Mills, Texas north of Hawkins, Texas, where son Clifford was born. The 1900 census for Wood County lists Joseph's occupation as merchant. By the 1910 Census, they were in Venus south of Ft. Worth, Texas where Joe was a grocery merchant. In the 1920 census they were counted as living in Gilmer, Upshur County, Texas where Joseph was apparently a tombstone salesman. In 1930 they were back in Wood County. Joseph had changed jobs again, being listed in the census as insurance salesman. Joseph died in 1936 in Alba, Wood County, Texas so perhaps this was where the family was living in at the time the 1930 census was taken in Wood County.

At some point after Joseph died, Gussie made her final move to Waco, Texas where she lived the rest of her life.

NOTE: Family records in possession of Gail Connell Coulbourn, Gussie's granddaughter, show Gussie's birth place as Panola Co., TX. However, the 1880 census lists one- month-old Gussie in Milam Co. where her family had moved two years earlier. It is a mystery as to why she would be born a hundred miles east of where her family was living. A similar mystery is that two years later, according to family records, her sister Willie was also born in Panola Co. near Carthage, TX while her family had permanent residence in Wood County, Texas, also some distance away. Perhaps the answer to both remote births lies in the fact that their mother India's brother had settled in Panola County some years earlier. It is conceivable, but not proven, that India went to Panola County twice for brief stays to give birth to children with support of close family. An alternative explanation, is that George Foster's itinerant career (preacher/teacher) took the whole family for brief sojourns in Panola County which have not been recorded anywhere else in the family annals. Perhaps, we will never know the whole truth.

- vii. WILLIE FLORENCE WYATT, b. April 2, 1882, Clayton near Carthage, Panola Co., TX⁷⁹; d. February 8, 1978, Texas⁸⁰; m. ALONZO LETHADIUS POPE, March 27, 1904, West Mountain, Upshur Co., TX⁸¹; b. April 24, 1870, Smyrna, Rutherford Co., TN⁸¹; d. August 3, 1931, Wood Co., Texas, 4 miles north of Hawkins⁸¹.

Notes for WILLIE FLORENCE WYATT:

Daughter Nina recalls Willie was born at or near Carthage, Panola Co., TX. Frances Pyron Dance LDS microfilm records says Clayton, TX which is near Carthage in Panola Co. In conflict with this is the fact that Willie's brother Charles kept a journal that claimed their parents moved to Wood County, Texas in 1880 and stayed there until Charles reached adulthood. No mention of a side trip to far away Panola County. (See discussion of this mystery and possible explanations in the Notes discussion for sister Gussie Wyatt.)

Willie married Alonzo Pope in 1904 and they had nine children. According to family records, Alonzo was a barber and farmer by trade. They were married in West Mountain, Upshur County, Texas and were still there in 1920 census. By the time of the 1930 census, they were living on the Hawkins-Gilmer Road in Wood County. At some point after Alonzo died in 1931, Willie resettled in nearby Upshur County until her death. She is buried in Liberty Cemetery near Hawkins, Wood Co. TX, beside her husband.

Family History of George Foster Wyatt

Notes for ALONZO LETHADIUS POPE:

Tombstone in Liberty Cemetery, Hawkins TX, shows A. L. Pope. However two sources show middle name as Thaddeus: Daughter Nina Vaughn written statement and Frances Pyron Dance research records, LDS microfilm. Grandson W. A. Pope's records show Lethadius. The only question is exact spelling of Lethadius.

Alonzo and John Lloyd Pope, Sr. were brothers who married two Wyatt sisters, Willie and Leona(Nonie) respectively.

Per Kim Pope Snyder family notes, Alonzo was a barber by trade.

Marriage Notes for WILLIE WYATT and ALONZO POPE:

Per daughter Nina Vaughn, Rev. Moser performed ceremony.

- viii. BENJAMIN CORBAN (CORB) WYATT, b. February 19, 1884, Cartwright near Winnsboro, Wood Co., TX⁸²; d. February 8, 1966, Hawkins, Wood Co., TX; m. MARY GLADYS SNOW, April 6, 1912, Wood County, TX; b. August 5, 1896, Mineola, Wood County, TX⁸³; d. May 13, 1986, Hawkins, Wood Co., TX.

Notes for BENJAMIN CORBAN (CORB) WYATT:

Benjamin Corban was always called Corb by friends and family. Corb was born in Wood County, Texas and spent most of his adult life there. He married Mary Gladys Snow in 1912 and they had four children. Corb and Gladys were both school teachers by profession. Although they always maintained a home in Wood County near Hawkins, Texas, they did travel around a bit to other Texas counties for short teaching stints. In both the 1920 and 1930 censuses they were counted in Wood County. In 1941, Corb retired from teaching and the family settled permanently in their country home north of Hawkins. Both Corb and Gladys are buried at Liberty Cemetery near Hawkins.

Note about Corb's birthplace: Oral history passed from his wife Gladys to daughter Rose says birthplace was Winnsboro, Wood Co. TX. Frances Pyron Dance research says Cartwright, TX which is about halfway between Winnsboro and Quitman, so both sources are correct. Dance research was obtained from microfilm rolls stored in Salt lake City, Utah at the Latter Day Saints Genealogical Depository.

- ix. HOMER THOMAS WYATT, b. March 21, 1886, Cartwright, near Winnsboro, Wood County, TX⁸⁴; d. February 1954, Ft. Worth, TX⁸⁵; m. BURSIE DONOHO, 1908, Venus, TX; b. 1893⁸⁵; d. October 31, 1964⁸⁵.

Notes for HOMER THOMAS WYATT:

Homer Thomas Wyatt was born at Cartwright, Texas in Wood County. Around 1908 he had moved to Venus, Johnson County, Texas, where he met and married 15-year-old Bursie Donoho. They had three children while living at Venus, only two of which survived. Homer was a pharmacist by occupation. The family was still in Venus at the time of the 1920 census. By 1930 they were in Ft. Worth Texas as witnessed by the 1930 census, where he was listed as a druggist. Family records say he owned the drug store on 6th Avenue for many years. At some point he sold his Ft. Worth store and moved to Arlington Texas where he worked as a pharmacist until his death. He is buried in the Rose Hill Cemetery in Ft. Worth.

Notes: Oral memory of his movements as a pharmacist is furnished by his granddaughter Lanelle Wyatt Parr. Birth place comes from Frances Pyron Dance research microfilms in Salt Lake City, Utah.

More About HOMER THOMAS WYATT:

Cause of Death: Heart Attack

Notes for BURSIE DONOHO:

Name supplied by granddaughter Lanelle Wyatt Parr. Variant spelling Donohoo found in Frances Pyron Dance research, LDS microfilm.

- x. LEONA FOSTER (NONIE) WYATT, b. December 16, 1887, Winnsboro, Wood Co., Tx⁸⁶; d. June 20, 1980, Big Sandy, TX⁸⁷; m. JOHN LLOYD POPE, SR., April 8, 1906, West Mountain, TX⁸⁷; b. March 13, 1876, Smyrna, TN⁸⁷; d. June 18, 1950, Big Sandy, TX⁸⁷.

Notes for LEONA FOSTER (NONIE) WYATT:

Leona Foster Wyatt always went by nickname Nonie. She married John Lloyd Pope, Sr. in 1906 at West Mountain, Upshur County, Texas. They apparently settled in Big Sandy in the same county where first child Jeff was born in 1910. They must have moved to Winona in nearby Smith County by 1918 where second son John Lloyd, Jr. was born. In the 1920 census, they are on their farm near Winona. Since we have not located this family in the 1930 census, we can't be sure when they moved back to Big Sandy. We do know that Nonie's husband died in Big Sandy in 1950 and that Nonie spent the last years of her life in that town. She is buried in Chilton Cemetery in Big Sandy.

Note: Nonie and her sister Willie not only married Pope brothers, Alonzo and John Lloyd respectively, but Nonie's two sons also married sisters from the Waller family in the Hawkins area.

- xi. JOHN BEAUREGARD (BURIE) WYATT, b. November 2, 1889, Hawkins, Wood Co., TX⁸⁸; d. July 19, 1913, Hawkins, Wood Co., TX⁸⁹.

Notes for JOHN BEAUREGARD (BURIE) WYATT:

John Beauregard was nicknamed Burie (or Buerie or Buria, depending on the speller). Burie was born in Wood County, Texas near Hawkins, never married, and left no progeny. He worked in various jobs as a saw mill worker and barber. He was shot and killed in Hawkins, Texas in 1913 in a dispute about a woman. Several family stories offer versions of what the dispute was all about. Read "George Foster Wyatt Family Tales" cited in the Bibliography to this book. Burie is buried at Liberty Cemetery, Hawkins, Texas

Note: A conflict exists about exact year of Burie's birth. Tombstone in Liberty Cemetery says birth year is 1890 vs 1889 in 1900 Census.

- xii. LESLIE CORNELL WYATT, b. July 6, 1895, Hawkins, Wood Co., TX⁹⁰; d. March 1963, Oil City, Louisiana⁹¹; m. BESSIE CARMEL, Abt. 1922⁹²; b. Abt. 1903, Arkansas⁹³; d. Unknown.

Notes for LESLIE CORNELL WYATT:

Leslie was born near Hawkins, Texas in Wood County. When he was 12 or 13 he accompanied his older brother Charles and family to homestead in New Mexico. His widowed father, George Foster, went along, but came back after a year. Leslie stayed on to help establish the homestead for about three years. He apparently came back to Texas around 1910. We have no record of his whereabouts in the years 1910-1922. He married Bessie Carmel in 1922 and settled in Oil City, Louisiana where they raised two children. In the 1930 census for Oil City, Caddo County, Louisiana shows Leslie's occupation as "laborer- oil wells". His application for social security in 1936 reveals he was employed by Gulf Refining Company. It also confirms his birth date as July 6, 1895. Leslie died in 1963 and is buried in Oil City. To date none of his descendants have been located.

Note: Spelling of first name in family records nearly always is Leslie, but 1900 Census shows Lesley.

Notes for BESSIE CARMEL:

The only reference to last name Carmel comes from Frances Pyron Dance research found in LDS microfilm.

- xiii. ROY EITEL WYATT, b. August 7, 1898, Hawkins, Wood Co., TX⁹⁴; d. January 17, 1986, Hawkins, Wood Co., TX⁹⁵; m. ELLEN CLARK, December 28, 1924, Wichita Falls, TX⁹⁶; b. August 25, 1899, Coleman, TX⁹⁶; d. September 30, 1988, Hawkins, Wood Co., TX⁹⁶.

Notes for ROY EITEL WYATT:

Roy Eitel was the youngest of George and India Wyatt's children. He was born near Hawkins but was living at East Mountain, Upshur County, when his mother died in 1904. His father then sent 6-year-old Roy to be raised by his older sisters Gussie and then Ida, while the father, George Foster, went with son Charles and family to homestead in New Mexico. (See notes for Charles Hamilton Wyatt for more details.) When Roy's brother Corb got married in 1912, Roy came to live with the newlyweds until he was old enough to join the Navy at the onset of WWI. Sometime after the war, Roy moved to Wichita Falls, Texas. He was shown in the 1920 census to be an unmarried roomer in a boarding house. He managed to meet Ellen Clark who was a telephone operator in Wichita Falls. They were married in 1924 and had two children. Roy worked as a baggage handler for the Railway Express Agency. After retiring, Roy and Ellen relocated to Hawkins, Texas in Wood County, and remained for the rest of their lives. Roy is buried at Liberty Cemetery near Hawkins.

Family History of George Foster Wyatt

Note; There is some confusion as to his birth year. His tombstone in Liberty Cemetery reads "born 1899". But the Birth Certificate Index for Wood County as well as the 1900 Census say "born 1898". The latter is used in this record.
